Wanamaker Said:

"No boy ever became great as a man, who did not in his youth learn to save money."

Wanamaker made a fortune by his own efforts, built on the foundation of a thrifty boyhood.

He was qualified to speak.

Practically all successful men say the same thing. As a success rule, thrift is endorsed by Roosevelt, Carnegie, Morgan, Rockefeller, Marshall Field and hundreds of other outstanding successes.

Our safe institution is ready to accept your thrift fund, to guard it well, to provide maximum earnings.

BOARD ASSOCIATED CHARITIES CALLS OPEN MEETING

The Brevard Board of Associated Charities is calling for a public meeting of all Brevard people to be held at the court house, Sunday afternoon, January 17, at 3:30.

The Purpose of the Associated Charities is to help worthy people in need, to protect the business men of Brevard from chronic beggars, and to handle local charity in a systematic economical way. This local organization is well functioning, and through its means and efforts approximately 52 needy families or individuals have been rendered assistance, financially and otherwise.

According to the treasurer's report, a sum of $2267.90 was collected from February 6, 1922 to January 11, 1926. Of this amount there was paid out through January 1926, a sum of $2133.25, leaving a balance in the treasury of $134.65.

The operation of this organization should not be a responsibility resting on merely a few, but it should be realized as a community responsibility and be given loyal support by all the citizens.

The officers of the Brevard Associated Charities are: T. H. Shipman, president; Mrs. H. E. Perkins, treasurer; Rev. V. A. Crawford, secretary. The executive committee consists of Rev. Wallace Hartsell, chairman, Rev. E. R. Welch, Rev. Harry Perry, Rev. V. A. Crawford, Mr. W. A. Monroe.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS

The regular meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church was held in the church parlors Thursday afternoon.

The business meeting opened with the appointing of various committees and the outlining of the coming year's work by the president, Mrs. Oliver Orr. The various members present responded to roll call by quoting verses of scripture relative to stewardship, which was the general topic for the day. It was voted to invite the other denominations to join in this weekly study, with the election of Mrs. Monroe as permanent teacher. One hundred dollars was the amount voted by the society as the special pledge for the coming year.

Following the business, a very interesting and impressive program on the subject of Stewardship was conducted by Mrs. Julia Trowbridge and Mrs. Hollinshead.
