SOCIETY

The regular meeting of the Matansian club was held at the home of Miss Florence Kern, Thursday afternoon, February 11.

The program committee for the coming year was appointed as follows: chairman, Mrs. Oliver Orr, assisted by Mrs. L. A. Ammon and Mrs. L. P. Hamlin. The club voted unanimously to invite Mrs. Cowper, executive chairman of the State Woman's National League, to come to Brevard at an early date and address the women of the town.

Mrs. L. P. Hamlin was program leader for the afternoon, assisted by Mrs. H. L. Wilson and Mrs. Oliver Orr. The general topic of "North Carolina as an Agricultural State," was ably discussed by the three ladies. Mrs. Hamlin telling of the leading crops in the state, with the variety of soils, seasons and crops, and of an improved system of agriculture as carried on in the state. Mrs. Wilson dwelt on the livestock phase of the subject, stating North Carolina's rank as a livestock state, the quality of livestock and national advantages for its proper development. Mrs. Orr told of the horticultural possibilities, mentioning the different types and kinds of fruits and vegetables produced in the state, stressing with particular emphasis the idea that every farmer ought to develop his own home garden, specializing in small fruits, trucking, or utilizing the ground for whatever purpose the soil and farmer are best adapted.

A short social time followed the program, during which the hostess served a dainty salad course. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Oliver Orr, on Thursday, February 25.

BILLY BEASLEY HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

Little Billy Vann Beasley entertained fifteen of his little friends on his fifth birthday, Monday afternoon, February 15.

On entering the reception room each child was given an envelope with a broken heart enclosed. When all guests had arrived, they were given five minutes to put the hearts together, little Annie Mae McCall being the lucky one. The postman then appeared dressed as St. Valentine, and calling each one by name presents a valentine.

Great amusement was afforded the children in playing the game in which they were one by one presented at Court, with little Martha Kate Moore representing the queen and Billy Vann Beasley representing the Knave of Hearts. The ring game also was the source of much joy to the children, in which Ora Holt Long won the prize for piercing the rod through the ring.

The king and queen leading, all walked into the dining room which was beautifully decorated in a color scheme of red and white, with red and white tapers extending from the chandelier to each corner of the table. The children marched around the table and blew out the candles. Red and white ice cream and angel cake was served, with favors of dainty heart shaped baskets filled with red and white candies.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS ENJOY VALENTINE PARTY

The high school girls of the Tyne literary society enjoyed a valentine party, Saturday evening at the high school building.

Half of the girls appeared dressed as boys and acted as escorts to the other girls, thus adding to the merriment of the occasion. The decorations were cleverly arranged and suggestive of the valentine season. The evening was delightfully spent in games and contests appropriate to the occasion. Miss Marguerite Robertson favored those present with several piano selections.

Refreshments were served during the evening to some thirty young girls present.

MRS. RALPH FISHER HOSTESS FOR BRIDGE AND TEA PARTY

An elaborate social event of the week was the bridge and tea party, given by Mrs. Ralph Fisher, Tuesday afternoon, at her home on Broad street, honoring her two house guests, her mother, Mrs. Carroll Le Richardson, of Marion, Va., and her sister, Mrs. J. Franklin Hackler, of Charlotte.

A pretty yellow and white color motif was artistically carried out in the room decorations, favors and table, and further accentuated in the refreshments served following the games. The dainty yellow calandru added attractiveness in the prevailing color arrangement.

Seven tables were arranged for play. At the conclusion of the games when scores were counted, it was found that high score was held by Mrs. William Denver, who received a prize of a box of score pads and tallies to match; Mrs. Boyce Walker made second high score, receiving a luncheon cloth, while consolation fell to Mrs. Valdes, who was the recipient of a fancy powder puff. The two honor guests were presented gifts by Mrs. Richardson receiving a pair of silk hosiery, and Mrs. Hackler a novel old fashioned doll as a powder container.

Following the games, the tea guests, ten in number arrived, after which refreshments were served.

ELAINE KILPATRICK HAS VALENTINE PARTY

Elaine Kilpatrick was the young hostess for a Valentine party Friday evening, February 15, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Kilpatrick.

The fifteen young girls and boys present enjoyed various games and dancing during the evening, after which cake and ice cream with red hearts were served.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB

Mrs. Z. W. Nichols was hostess for the Fortnightly Club at her home Thursday afternoon. By vote of the Club, the membership limit was increased from twelve to fifteen. Several names were suggested to fill the three new places, upon which suggestions the Club will decide by unanimous vote at its next meeting.

A most interesting program on the subject of "Our Natural Resources," was led by Mrs. H. A. Plummer assisted by Mrs. J. C. Hendricks and Mrs. E. R. Welch. The three phases of the topic, including water power resources, mineral resources and resort resources of North Carolina, were discussed at some length by the three ladies, each one of whom related new and interesting facts concerning the subject at hand.

At the conclusion of the program, the hostess served refreshments. Two guests were present, Mrs. J. B. Summey and Mrs. W. L. Aiken.

ALLISON ORR HAS SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. D. M. Orr entertained at her home on Whitmire street Wednesday evening, February 10, with a surprise party for her son, Allison, in celebration of his twentieth birthday anniversary.

Upon arrival of the guests and following a diligent search in locating the young man, the young people enjoyed a delightful evening in games of various sorts. A delicious repast was served during the evening to the twenty-five guests present.

WEDNESDAY CLUB

An enjoyable meeting of the Brevard Wednesday Club was held at the home of Mrs. R. B. Lyon, Wednesday afternoon, February 10.

The president, Mrs. R. W. Everett presided over the short business session, after which the meeting was turned over to Mrs. W. E. Breese, program leader for the day, the subject being "Historic Spots in America." The program, which was of an unusually interesting nature, was divided into three groups, Mrs. Breese being ably assisted by Mrs. G. Ward and Mrs. J. S. Silversteen. Mrs. Breese related interesting facts about Gettysburg and Vamo; Mrs. Ward about Jamestown and Plymouth Rock; Mrs. Silversteen about Ticonderoga and Independence Hall. The three discussions proved highly enjoyable as well as instructive.

Refreshments were served during the very pleasant social hour which followed. The Club adjourned to meet Wednesday, February 24, at the home of Mrs. S. M. Macfie.

LEAGUERS ENJOY VALENTINE SOCIAL

The members of the Epworth League of the Methodist church enjoyed a delightful Valentine social in the recreation rooms of the church Thursday evening.

The rooms were tastefully decorated with hearts and other attractive ion. Numerous games and contests were enjoyed, many of which were quite novel and amusing in nature. An enjoyable feature of the evening's entertainment was the opening of the Valentine box, and great amusement was afforded in displaying the various valentines, comical and otherwise.

On this occasion prizes were awarded to the winners in the League highest record contest which has been in progress the past six weeks. Miss Nellie Miller was awarded a gold vanity case, as first prize winner; Harold Whitmire, as second prize winner, received a book on Palestine, written by Rev. E. R. Welch; Miss Lorene York received a box of candy as winner of third prize.

Refreshments of hot chocolate, sandwiches, cake and candy were served to the fifty or more guests present.

T. E. L. CLASS HOLD THEIR MONTHLY MEETING

The T. E. L. Class of Brevard Baptist church met with Mrs. J. A. Glazener on Tuesday afternoon, in social meeting. The business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. B. F. Beasley. Some matters of importance were brought before the meeting. The program was in charge of Mrs. Beasley and the subject was "Limitation". She gave a fine talk on this subject and Mrs. E. R. Pendleton gave a beautiful reading along this line. A social time was enjoyed by all and the hostess served delicious refreshments. The class will hold its meeting in March with Mrs. W. T. Bosse.

Easy Money

STRIKING it rich and remaining rich long requires a "GOOD HEAD."

THE HUNDREDS of men we have known who made "EASY MONEY" were men never able to stand the test of sudden success.

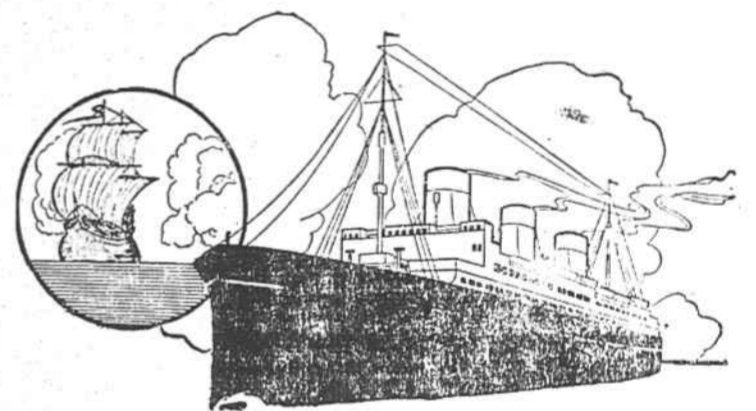

SUCCESS IS of a slow but sure growth, and the man who settles down to make his little pile by the slow but sure process of intelligent industry will be a winner.

THIS MAN is constructive and will have lasting success for his enterprise, and will prosper and perpetuate.

PROGRESS

In days gone by, vessels went forth over the bounding main with no surety of ever returning. And if they came back, an empty hold, instead of a profitable cargo, might greet the owner.

Today, great ships go to the utmost ends of the earth—speedily, directly, safely, profitably. Progress in finance is fully as great.

Where, formerly the saving and investment of money was an extreme gamble, today, under the building and loan plan, your thrift ship steams straight toward the port of success—speedily because our earnings are so generous, and safely because ours is the soundest financial plan in all the world.
