MATHATASIAN CLUB ENTERTAINS

The members of the Mathatasian club entertained their husbands at a banquet, Thursday evening, at the home of Mrs. Oliver Orr.

On arrival of all the guests, they were invited into the dining room where a delightful banquet supper was served, consisting of grapefruit, salad course, ice cream and coffee with whipped cream. The pretty decorations and favors were in commemoration of Washington's birthday. Little flags sailed over the grape fruit and hatchets served as place cards.

The following toasts and responses were given, Mrs. H. C. Ranson, club president, acting as toastmistress:

Toast to husbands, Mrs. R. H. Zachary; response, Mr. Harold Norwood; toast to honorary member, Mrs. Julia Trowbridge, Mrs. H. L. Wilson; toast to the president, Mrs. Julia Trowbridge; toast to club members, Mr. W. W. Hanaman; response, Mrs. H. C. Ranson; toast to our doctor friend, Dr. T. J. Summey, Mrs. W. H. Harris; toast to hostess, Mrs. W. W. Hanaman; Mrs. Summey read a toast sent by Mr. R. H. Zachary, who was unable to be present. During the evening little Miss Rachel Orr recited a poem, "George Washington Could Not Tell A Lie." Mark Taylor Orr presided at the victrola.

MUSIC LOVERS' CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE PROGRAM

One of the most enjoyable club meetings of the year was the meeting of the Music Lovers' club which was held at the home of Mrs. Roy Long, Tuesday evening, February 23.

Mrs. Patrick N. Simons was in charge of the program, the general subject being "Piano Music—the Sonata and Concerto." Mrs. Simons, in her usual able manner, illustrated by lecture her piano performance. Assisting Mrs. Simons on the program were Miss Marguerite Robertson and Mr. Alvin Moore.

Mrs. Simons' selections included Scarlatti's Pastorale Beethoven Sonata No. 1 complete, and Sonata Pathetique and Waldstein Sonata, two movements each. Mr. Moore's selection was "Sonata Quasi una Fantasia." The program was brought to a brilliant conclusion by Miss Robertson's playing of the first movement of the B flat minor piano concerto of Tschaiikowsky.

A pleasant social time followed the program during which the hostess served refreshments.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS ENJOYS SOCIAL GATHERING

The members of the Men's Bible class of the Methodist church enjoyed a social gathering in the recreation rooms of the church, Thursday evening, with some fifty members present.

It was decided to put on a class contest for membership and attendance, with J. M. Allison as leader of one side and C. P. Wilkins leader of the other side.

Very interesting talks were heard from Rev. E. R. Welch, pastor, Dr. J. F. Zachary, Prof. L. B. Haynes, Thornwell Haynes, C. P. Wilkins, Roscoe Nicholson, T. H. Galloway, and others.

Tempting refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program.

WEDNESDAY CLUB

Mrs. S. M. Macfie entertained the Brevard Wednesday club Wednesday afternoon at her home on Caldwell street.

The program of the day was in charge of Mrs. F. P. Sledge, her subject being "Makers of American Humor." Assisting Mrs. Sledge were Mrs. H. E. Perkins, Mrs. J. M. Allison, Mrs. W. E. Breese, all of whom related interesting facts the most of which centered around Bill Nye and Mark Twain.

Following the program a very pleasant social time was held, during which the hostess served a delightful salad course. Two guests were present and one honorary member. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ed Patton on the afternoon of March 10.

ZACHARY-HOUSTON ANNOUNCEMENT

Of much interest to friends in Brevard is the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Ella Good Houston to Mr. John McLean Zachary, which will take place in Greenville, S. C., on April 15. The contracting parties are both residents of Greenville.

Miss Houston is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hayne Houston, of Greenville, and Mr. Zachary is well-known in Brevard, being the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Zachary. For the past year Mr. Zachary has been connected with an insurance firm in Greenville.

FORTNIGHTLY CLUB

Mrs. H. A. Plummer was hostess for the regular meeting of the Fortnightly club at her home Thursday afternoon.

The president appointed the program committee for the ensuing year as follows: Mrs. H. A. Plummer, chairman, Mrs. F. A. Starrette, and Mrs. J. C. Hendricks.

Mrs. R. Y. Neel, who has been a substitute member for the past six months, was elected to full membership, and Mrs. J. C. Wike, a former member, was elected to fill the second vacancy.

An interesting program on the subject of "Illiteracy and Reading Habits," was led by Mrs. F. A. Starrette, assisted by Mrs. Cordia King. Instructive facts were brought in by the ladies, telling in an interesting manner of how North Carolina ranks in the matter of illiteracy, giving causes and consequences, and of the reading habits, public library facilities, etc., in the state.

The hostess served a dainty salad course during the social half-hour. Several guests were present.

MRS. JUDSON McCRARY ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Judson McCrary was hostess for a party at her home Friday evening, entertaining in honor of Miss Bonnie Kilpatrick's birthday anniversary.

The evening was delightfully in games and enjoying radio concerts.

Refreshments were served during the evening. Ten young people were present to enjoy this pleasant occasion.

33 REAL ESTATE DEALS RECORDED IN PAST SIX DAYS

DRUNKS HAVE HARD DAY

Eck Sims is still on the job as evidenced by the fact that he was the means of capturing three men on the highway in North Brevard Sunday afternoon for drunkenness and reckless driving.

Another capture of three men was made Sunday night in the Little River church, with the lights out and doors locked. Two of the men were from Henderson county and one from Michigan, all of whom were bound over to court on three charges: disturbing public worship, public drunkenness, and operating a car while under the influence of whiskey, on the highways of Transylvania county. All were placed in jail awaiting bond of $2,000.

The above were all arrested by Eck Sims.
