farmers and their wives registered at the convention. Other hundreds drove in for a day to attend some special session without registering for rooms at the College. The convention took up many outstanding problems of political affairs, rural schools, home building, and crop and livestock growing. Each afternoon was devoted to lectures on important farm and home problems while the forenoons were given over to special addresses. The evenings were devoted to inspirational talks and social affairs.

Mrs. J. S. Turner of Rockingham County was elected as the next President of the State Federation of Home Demonstration clubs. The other officers elected are: Vice-President, Mrs. R. A. McCullen of Sampson. County; Secretary, Miss Belva Bennett of Beaufort County; Recording Secretary, Mrs. C. E. Carter of Buncombe County and Treasurer, Mrs. Cornelia C. Morris of State College.

The new officers for the Farmers Convention are, President, C. F. Cates of Mebane; First Vice-President, P. D. Bagley, of Moyock; Second Vice-President, James C. K. Mc-Clure of Asheville and Secretary-Treasurer, James M. Gray of State College.

Before adjournment on Thursday morning the assembled farmers passed resolutions advocating many of the important matters brought before the convention.
