

FARM NEWS

(By L. A. AMMON)

Two samples of cane stalks, were brought in during the past week—Riverside Farm measured 14 feet and two inches, and Mr. Hollingsworth, of Boylston was the same, so no honors to be given yet.

This shows the possibilities in the soils of this county. Everything seems to be at its best here.

Again, Mrs. Armstrong brought over some French artichokes, and planted them in her garden. She says she never saw them as good in Europe or any other part of the United States, as in her own garden.

Mr. Eugene Duckworth is busy picking beans, and is putting out a product that is selling all around the other fellows, in Asheville.

Late Truck Crops

If you grow what the world wants, and at the time it wants it, and better than others you will have only a few troubles in selling.

Water will keep off frost or thaw out after frost has come, and leave plants only slightly hurt.

Suppose some one who has water, so that he can get fifty or more feet of fall to a few acres of land, plant the field in late tomatoes, peppers, and beans.

Prospects of getting that car load of gurnsey heifers looks good, and many have spoken complimentary of the proposition.

Sweet Potatoes Can Be Kept In The Ground

Most people have always made a failure of trying to keep sweet potatoes in pits as we do Irish potatoes.

The idea is to dig potatoes, and let them sweat out two or three days, then satter in sun to dry.

GOODWILL TOUR IS ADJUDGED SUCCESS

BREVARD RECEIVES SHARE OF FAVORABLE PUBLICITY

The 125 citizens of Asheville and Western North Carolina who invaded the land of the Northern Yankees during the past two weeks returned home Sunday afternoon fully convinced that they have sold the South to the North. The object of the pilgrimage of the Goodwill Tourists, which was fostered by the Asheville Chamber of Commerce, was to let the world at large know of the many advantages of Western North Carolina as an industrial center and an all-the-year-round tourist resort.

Along the way mayors of cities, chambers of commerce, civic clubs, and organizations met the train, entertained the tourists and feted them royally. From the first scheduled stop made by the "Land of the Sky Special" at Harrisburg, Pa., eastern Canada, down through New England and on to the last city visited, Philadelphia, the "Pilgrims of Progress," as they were styled on the tour, boosted this section and distributed thousands of pieces of publicity material.

It would be hard to estimate the results obtained from this tour. Hundreds of columns of newspaper publicity and numerous pictures were devoted to telling the story of what this section has to offer. Motion pictures of Asheville and Brevard were shown in theatres while the speakers for the party cultivated the acquaintance of thousands who are interested in this state.

Brevard received its full share of publicity in the cities visited due to the activities of W. E. Breese and Thornwell Haynes, both of Brevard. Mr. Breese was a member of the tour committee and took his turn in responding to the addresses of welcome while Thornwell Haynes was booked for radio talks on the Smoky Mountain National Park.

Harrisburg, Pa., Buffalo, N. Y., Toronto, Canada, and Boston, Mass., were cities which enthusiastically received and entered more into the spirit of the occasion, perhaps, than the others visited, but the leaders of the Goodwill Tour declare the pilgrimage just ended was the most successful ever attempted. The favorable publicity which Brevard received will doubtless have a far reaching effect.

"The members of the party extolled the wonders of North Carolina scenery and told of its numerous industrial advantage. The town of Brevard came in for as much praise as Asheville, and according to several of the boosters, it is one of the most picturesque spots in the South, with every form of recreation known to resorts to be found near by. It is described as a real (continued on second page)

TEN STATES REPRESENTED BY PRESENT STUDENT BODY OF BREVARD INSTITUTE

The student enrollment at Brevard Institute this year includes practically 200 students, representing ten different states besides the District of Columbia and Cuba. Thus from many sections of the country the young people have come to receive instruction at an institution of learning which is in its 31st year, having been established in 1895 by Mr. and Mrs. Fitch Taylor, the former of whom went to his reward a number of years ago, his widow surviving to see the fruits of their early labors and struggles maturing year by year, and endearing herself to the hearts of the entire community in which she has resided for nearly half a century.

The states represented by the student body include: North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Virginia, Tennessee, Alabama, New York, and Pennsylvania. North Carolina heads the list, with about half of the student body coming from various sections of the state, while South Carolina sends 25 or more students the present year, the remaining students being scattered over the several other states and locations mentioned.

LOCAL HIWAY WORK IS GOING FORWARD

FIVE MILES OF NO. 28 HARD SURFACING COMPLETE

The work of grading highway No. 284 from the city limits to the South Carolina line towards Caesar's Head is progressing satisfactorily, with two and one-half miles of the 12 mile stretch of highway now complete, since the beginning of the project about three months ago. Practically 150 men are employed in the grading and structural work now in progress.

Included in the grading program of this important highway will be the construction of 29 culverts and a bridge across the French Broad river, which bridge is now under construction and is to be of reinforced concrete, with five 35-foot spans. The new bridge is located 50 feet above the present one, thus necessitating no interference with traffic during the period of construction.

It is now thought that the original appropriation of $150,000 by the county for this work will not be sufficient to carry it on to completion and that probably an additional sum will need to be appropriated before the work is completed. Wood and Lipscomb, of Roanoke, have the grading contract, and the structural contractors are Belote Construction company, of Asheville. E. H. Spiers, of Petersburg, Va., is resident engineer in charge of the work.

The construction work of hard surfacing highway No. 28 from Rosman to the Jackson county line, which project was begun about the same time as that of highway No. 284, is also getting well under way, with five miles of the highway completed beyond Rosman. The crusher is being moved this week to Lake Toxaway, as a more central location as the work progresses.

This 17 miles of highway to be included in the paving program will be constructed at an estimated cost of $100,000, and it is hoped the work will be completed within the next six months. J. C. Walker, division engineer of Asheville, is in charge of the construction work.

THOMAS H. HAMPTON WINS DISTINCTION BY INVENTION

Thomas H. Hampton, a former Brevard resident and well known in the community, who holds an important position with the Oliver Mining company, has distinguished himself recently by his invention of a tiny telephone, an interesting account of which follows:

"Ironwood, Mich., Sept. 30.—Designed for communication with the entombed miners who were rescued last night, the Oliver Mining company today possessed what is believed to be the smallest telephone in the world.

"It is smaller than a watch. It had been planned to lower it through the two inch pipe that was being drilled to supply food while a tunnel was built through 300 feet of rock, from the neighboring Auroora mine.

"The telephone, completed late on Wednesday by Thomas H. Hampton, superintendent of electrical inspection of the Oliver Mining company, is 1 3/4 inch long, 3/8 inch wide, and 1 1/4 inch thick."

GIRL SCOUT WEEK TO BE OBSERVED

VARIED PROGRAM WILL BE GIVEN DURING PERIOD

From Saturday, October 23rd, to Saturday, October 30th, will be National Girl Scout week. Girls all over America will be celebrating, and Brevard Girl Scouts are looking forward to the various activities of this week, which will be observed fittingly here.

Many people in Brevard will remember Girl Scout Week of last year. A new program will be given this year, which is as follows:

Saturday October 23—Mother's Vacation—Day on which the Girl Scouts will try to do mother's work.

Sunday, October 24—Union Service at the high school auditorium, Sunday evening. A splendid speaker, special music, and union choir. Collection to be used to further Scout work.

Monday, October 25—Good Cheer Day—Girl Scouts will visit County Home, singing for the inmates and giving them magazines, quilt scraps, etc.

Tuesday, October 26—Health Day—

Wednesday, October 27—Music Day—Free concert at high school auditorium at 8:15, p.m.: local artists—Brevard band, Girl Scout songs. Put a donation in the box at the door if you wish to aid the Girl Scout movement.

Friday, October 29—Gift Day—Girl Scouts will give their handwork to shut-ins, etc.

Saturday, October 30—Daddy's Day—To be combined with Mother's Day. Program will be announced later.

The Girl Scouts are asking the following of the community: "Help us put over Girl Scouting by your presence at public meetings, by your encouragement and by donations. You will be richly repaid in the high morale of the future womanhood of Brevard. Scouting develops personality, poise, service, home-makers and lovers of nature. It makes sturdy bodies, useful hands, willing hearts and clean minds."

In anticipation of the National Girl Scout Week a community committee is being organized to sponsor the local Girl Scout activities. This committee, to be formed of representatives of the various clubs, churches and organizations of the town, will feature in many ways in the observance of Girl Scout week.

The local committee will aid in securing a permanent Scout camp, in securing Girl Scout leaders, in putting over a drive for funds during Girl Scout week and help in other ways to put the organization on a well-functioning basis.

There is a great need at the present time for a suitable room for the weekly meetings that can be decorated by the Scouts and remain so for their exclusive use.

Two troops are already organized with a total of about 45 members. Girls from the ages of 10 to 16 are eligible for membership. A complete list of the members of the community committee will be published in next week's issue of The News.

DR. HARDIN MOVES OFFICES TO THE WEILT BUILDING

Dr. Carl Hardin has moved his dentist offices to the rooms over the Standard Clothing company store, in the Weilt building.

MARVIN YATES IS MAKING GOOD AT WAKE FOREST

Marvin Yates, who is in his second year at Wake Forest College, is making an enviable record for himself, along musical lines in particular.

He made the Glee Club and the orchestra this year, being one out of 100 boys to be selected for this honor. There are 30 members of the Glee Club.

This speaks well, not only for Marvin's natural musical ability, but also for his previous training and experience in the home band.

THE AGE OF GIRL SCOUTS IS FROM 10 TO 16 YEARS. GIRL SCOUTS NEED A ROOM FOR WEEKLY MEETINGS.

SUPPOSE

"If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them"—John 13:17.

Suppose that a fresh flood of brave, cheerful, joyous energy should be poured into all the forms of Christian work. Suppose that plenty of money should come flowing in to send out every missionary that wants to go, and that plenty of the strongest and best young men should dedicate their lives to the ministry of Christ: and then I suppose that the Christian life, in its daily manifestations, should come to be marked and known by simplicity and happiness.

Suppose instead of loading themselves down on lifes journey with so many bags and parcels and boxes of superfluous baggage and bric-a-brac; that they are forced to sit down by the roadside and gasp for breath, Christian families should turn to quiet ways, lovely pleasures, pure and simple joys.

Suppose that they should truly find their happiness in the knowledge that God loves them, and Christ died for them and heaven is sure, and so set their hearts free to rejoice in life's common mercies, the light of the sun, the blue of the sky, the splendor of the sea, the peace of the everlasting hills, the wholesome savor of good food, the delights of action and motion, the refreshment of sleep, the charm of music, the blessings of human love and friendship:

Suppose, I say that such a revival of the joy of living and working should silently sweep over the Church in the Twentieth Century.

What would happen? Great would be the peace of her children. Greater still would be their power.

A PRAYER FOR SUPPOSITION

O Thou God of Truth and Thought, and Imagination, grant that a fresh flood of brave, cheerful, joyous energy may be poured into all the forms of Christian work. that plenty of money shall come flowing in to send out every missionary that wants to go, and that plenty of the strongest and best young men shall dedicate their lives to the ministry of Christ, and that the Christian life in its daily manifestations shall come to be marked and known by simplicity and happiness and Christian families shall turn to quiet ways, lovely pleasures, pure and simple joys.

May Christians truly find their happiness in the knowledge that God loves them, that Christ died for them that heaven is sure, and so set their hearts free to rejoice in lifes common mercies; the light of the sun, the blue of the sky, the splendor of the sea, the peace of the everlasting hills, the song of birds, the sweetness of flowers, the wholesome flavor of good food, the delights of action and motion, the refreshment of sleep, the charm of music the blessings of human love and friendship.

So believing, thinking and acting, a revival of the joy of living and working shall silently sweep over the Church of this Twentieth Century, and great shall be the peace of her children, and greater shall be their power.

Grant this most Gracious God for the sake of Him who gave His life for the Church, and ever liveth to make intercession for it, Amen. —C. D. C.
