

LYNCH CHOSEN AS DISTRICT GOVERNOR BY KIWANIS OF THE TWO CAROLINAS

In response Lieutenant Governor Joseph B. Johnson, Barium Springs, N. C., said the delegates could depend upon the sincerity of Charleston's welcome and praised Charleston as being the "mother of all American history."

The first day of the convention was featured with the disposition of a number of routine matters and a banquet Thursday evening at which John H. Moss of Milwaukee, past president of the International, was principal speaker. Several impromptu addresses were also made by men prominent in Kiwanis, nationally and in the Carolinas district.

The divisional group meetings were held early Friday morning and at 10:00 the convention reconvened. The program for this session was started in peppery manner with Miss Annie Frierson of Kingstree, S. C., leading in lively singing of old time songs, following the singing of America. At this meeting the reports of committees on credentials, resolutions, memoirs, president's conference and secretaries' conference were taken up and disposed of.

James M. Lynch of Florence, S. C., was elected governor of the Carolinas district by unanimous vote.

Accepting the gavel of authority Governor Lynch declared it the proudest and happiest moment of his life, that he had never belonged to an organization that he had grown to love so much as Kiwanis and that he appreciated the honor and heavy responsibility that had been given him by the Kiwanians. He stressed the fact that education in Kiwanis was the outstanding need in the district and that another was the linking of the clubs. Commenting on the International organization, he declared it not to be a "superimposed organization" and brought out that it had no way to achieve its ideals except through the activities of the local clubs. In closing he urged the Kiwanians to link their respective clubs up with the great principles and purposes of Kiwanis International and to learn what Kiwanis stands for and to put that knowledge into some practical purpose in the communities in which they live.

By action of the convention the Carolinas were divided into six districts instead of five, four divisions being in North Carolina and two in South Carolina. This was done in order that the lieutenant governors whose duty it is to visit each club in their respective districts at least once each year might have less territory to cover, and for the ensuing year lieutenant governors were elected as follows:

J. D. Lineberger, Shelby, first division; J. A. Kellenberger, Greensboro, second division; Frank H. Jetter, Raleigh, third division; Clarence R. Pugh, Elizabeth City, fourth division; Charles Anderson, Marion, S. C., fifth division and Douglass Featherstone, Greenwood, S. C., sixth division.

BREVARD GIVEN BOOST ON TRIP

Incidental to the trip to Charleston in attendance upon the Kiwanis convention of the Carolinas district, much favorable publicity was given Brevard by the local Kiwanians. The Brevard scenic film was exhibited in the Garden theatre in Charleston on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. The arrangements for showing the picture were made through the courtesy of J. Gilmore Smith, president of the Charleston Board of Trade with the Pastime Amusement company, operating the largest theatres in Charleston and other cities. The management of the theatres were highly pleased with the way in which the Brevard picture was received by their patrons and asked that the film be left in Charleston after the close of the convention in order that more people interested in Brevard as a tourist town might see pictured on the screen the views that are so attractive to many Charlestonians.

In addition, Glad-Hand signs were posted all along the highway from Charleston to Laurens, pointing to Brevard. Immediately out of Charleston signs were posted at intervals of five miles on either side of the road. Further along the highway the distance between the signs was increased until Columbia was reached. From that point approximately the same method of posting signs was employed and from Charleston to Laurens the road was posted on an average of every fifteen miles.

In addition to the exhibition of the scenic film in Charleston and posting signs along the highway, frequent calls were made at chambers of commerce and filling stations along the route where Brevard booklets were left for distribution to those interested in mountain vacation trips. At almost all places Brevard was favorably known and many of those who were interviewed indicated a willingness to assist in distributing publicity material of "The Land of Waterfalls."

It is the intention of Kiwanians to pick up the trail of posted signs at Laurens in the near future and continue the work through to Brevard via Pickens and Rosman and later, when the Caesar's Head road is completed.

GAVE CHESTNUTS TO ALL KIWANIS

Distributing two and one-half bushels of selected chestnuts at the Charleston Kiwanis convention, the Brevard Kiwanis club created much favorable comment, both as to the quality of the fruit and the spirit of the local club in distributing the chestnuts. These were placed in 300 bags, and labeled: "Compliments of the Brevard Kiwanis Club." The bags of chestnuts were placed on a table at registration headquarters, where eager hands quickly took them up.

All visiting Kiwanians were impressed with the warm welcome that was extended by the citizens of Charleston. This was particularly noticeable when the Charleston ladies entertained the visiting ladies on a tour of the interesting and historic places about the city, ending with a delightful tea at the Charleston Country club. Favorable expressions were to be heard on every hand concerning the rapid progress that is being made by the civic institutions of Charleston in the tourist and commercial attractions of that historic city.

Durham, N. C., was selected as the meeting place for the 1927 convention. Durham Kiwanians distributed cigarettes and smoking tobacco at the banquet on Thursday night.

The attendance cup was awarded to Greensboro club, which was represented at the convention by thirteen members, producing 559 points, the greatest number registered by any visiting club.

FINE PROGRAM AT LITTLE RIVER SCHOOL

Little River school presented a splendid entertainment program last Saturday night at the school house, after which a box supper was given for the benefit of the church. About sixty dollars were added to the fund as a result of the sale of the boxes.

Children taking part in the entertainment showed much talent, and their work testified to the splendid training they are receiving in the school. An unusually large crowd was present, and all seemed to thoroughly enjoy the occasion.

SIMS DESTROYS TWO SHEETIRON STILLS

Rural Policeman Eck Sims reports the destruction of two stills in the East Fork section several days ago. One 90-gallon; and one 60-gallon outfit were destroyed. From all appearances, Mr. Sims states, "run" had been made shortly before his arrival. There were no operators in sight, however, and no arrests have been made in connection with the stills.

TOXAWAY NEWS

Much to the surprise of their many friends, Mr. C. R. McNeely and Miss Lela Brooks, of Toxaway, were married Wednesday morning at Brevard.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Crooms and small son, of Asheville, spent the week-end with relatives here.

Rev. Nicholson preached a splendid sermon at the Methodist church Sunda evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arrowood and sons, Martin and Charles, have returned from a week's visit with relatives at Roan Mountain, Tennessee.

Mr. Murial Moltz has returned from a couple of months' visit with his wife in Pennsylvania.

The many friends of Mr. Lee Norton will be sorry to learn of his death, which occurred at his home last week.

Blanche Arrowood spent the week-end with Paulette Gillespie at Brevard.

Mrs. H. G. Rogers spent the week-end with her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Neill, at Brevard.

Mr. Cleon Williams and Mr. Fred Hall motored to Brevard Saturday evening.

SNAPPY STUFF

After taking two drinks of bootleg whiskey, James Darhma of Chicago thought he was a fish and was arrested for trying to swim in the streets.

REVIVAL CLOSED AT CHERRYFIELD

Rev. Harvey Stanberry closed the revival meeting at Mt. Moriah Baptist church last Sunday night, having "carried on" for ten days at the Cherryfield center. Members of the church there were highly pleased with the success of the meeting, which was pronounced god by all who were heard to express themselves on the revival campaign.

At a meeting of the deacons of the church Sunday morning, plans were started for enlargement upon the regular work there. Heretofore preaching services have been held but once each month. The Sunday school, Baraca class and the B. Y. P. U. have been meeting more often, doing much of the church work. It is believed Mt. Moriah will become a regular charge now, with a full-time pastor.

First need in the new work being a parsonage, the members were delighted with an offer from Mr. Henry Gillespie of six acres of land for the parsonage site. Immediately Mr. J. L. Whitmire of the Pisgah Bank, offered to give the lumber necessary for the building of the parsonage. Other members assured the deacons that sufficient funds would be forthcoming to erect the building and put it in shape for a pastor.

At the Sunday night services a free will offering was made to Rev. Mr. Stanberry, and a purse of $190 was presented to the evangelist. It was a splendid offering, and Mr. Stanberry, in deeply moved manner, thanked the people of Cherryfield, assuring them that the funds would be used in continuation of his evangelistical work in other sections of the country. T. W. Whitmire, of Brevard, made a strong appeal for the support of Mr. Stanberry in the great work he is doing.

Mrs. Stanberry and daughter, Miss Alma, worked with the evangelist in the meetings, rendering him great assistance, as they do in all his work.

TINSLEY IS CLEARED IN FEDERAL COURT TRIAL

John Tinsley, of this city, was exonerated in Federal court last week on a charge of white slavery. People of the county are familiar with the case, in which Mr. Tinsley and a woman were brought back from South Dakota several months ago. H. E. Martin appeared for the accused man, conducting the case which resulted in clearing Mr. Tinsley.

PROMINENT VISITORS IN THE LAND OF WATERFALLS

Hon. James P. Carey, Jr., prominent attorney and banker of Pickens, and David J. Watson, building contractor of Anderson, were in the city for several hours last Saturday. Mr. Carey has many friends here among the lawyers, and promised to spend a portion of next summer in the county.

OYSTER SUPPER.

Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church will have the annual oyster supper and fancy article sale at the England home on Tuesday afternoon, November 23, beginning at 3 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

TRANSYLVANIA GOT THREE FIRST PRIZES

Mr. Duckworth spent considerable money, but tells me that he has received enough business to well pay him back. That being true, Transylvania county has gotten an equal amount of advertising. The people outside are beginning to think of us as a real trucking county, and I hope they are not far wrong.

The Latest
The latest dope from the New Jersey Experiment Station, is that by adding certain simple minerals to cotton meal, linseed meal, or the corn by-products, that the protein in these is just as good for egg production as meat scraps. The mineral mixture is one pound common salt, three pounds 16 per cent acid, and two pounds ground limestone, like we put on the land. Make your feed twenty per cent cotton meal, and five per cent of the mineral mixture. Hens fed this mixture for a year out laid the meat meal pen by ten eggs per hen, while those having cotton meal without the mineral were a hundred eggs short of the meat meal. Best piece of poultry news that has come out in years, especially to the South. More work needs to be done to further prove the findings.

Latest corn reports give us a crop slightly under last year with about one-fourth soft. Same reports give a shortage in beef and eggs, but heavy in dressed chickens.

Does it pay to hog down corn? If you have any doubts about the good profits just ask Mr. C. F. Woodfin of the Penrose section. More later.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Annah Leonora Mull, who was born October 26, 1848, and died October 15, 1926. She died at the home of her son, W. L. Mull. She was born in Morganton, N. C. When she was four years old her father, William Mull, moved to Transylvania county, where they lived until after the war between the states, then he moved back to Morganton. In the year 1867 she married J. H. Mull, of Burke county, and in the year 1869 they moved to Transylvania county and lived here ever since. They lived together 59 years, but God called her home.

Mrs. Mull leaves her husband, one sister and six children to mourn her loss. She was buried at Conestee cemetery, where she was a member of the M. E. church, accompanied by relatives and a host of friends, where she was laid to rest by her father, mother and children. May God comfort those who grieve at her death, then let our sorrows cease to flow, God has called her home.

They loved her, yes they loved her, But Jesus loved her more. And He has sweetly called her To yonder shining shore. The pearly gates were open, A gentle voice said come. And with farewell unspoken She calmly entered home.

Ralph Andrews, 13-year-old lad of Duluth, Minn., who was charged with stealing a bucket of coal, was released and given a new suit of clothes.
