GIRL SCOUTS HOLD CAMP AT PERRY-ANN

Laurel Troop No. 2, composed of the younger Girl Scouts, enjoyed five days at Camp Perry-Ann last week.

The girls divided themselves into four groups, each occupying a cabin. The names chosen for these cabins were: The Pioneer, Pinehurst, The Sunshine Cabin and Our Gang Cabin. At campfire every night one cabin furnished stunts and another lead the "Goodnight Circle."

The morning hours were taken up with putting the camp in order, inspection and instruction in Home Nursing, map making, nature study and other work. Many Proficiency Badges were earned by the girls and many of the various parts of the First and Second Class Tests were passed.

The afternoons were taken up with rest and recreation. The girls were taught swimming under the direction of Mr. Frank Duckworth and Miss Martina Pearce.

On Tuesday the girls had their checker contest, on Wednesday they tried their skill at horseshoes, on Friday a field day contest took place, and on Friday a water carnival was the event of chief interest.

In the various activities of camp life, the following outclassed their sister scouts:

- 50 yard dash Thelma Johnson
- 100 yard dash Thelma Johnson
- Running broad Thelma Orr
- Standing broad Ruth Perry
- Basket ball Eliza Nicholson
- Checker player Jennie Pearce
- Horse shoes Eliza Nicholson
- Best Camper Jennie Pearce
- Most Freckles Doris Risk
- Most Points Eliza Nicholson
- Post Relay Pioneer Cabin
- Horse shoe relay Pinehurst Cabin
- Best Map Makers Pinehurst Cabin

It was with a feeling of sadness and regret that the girls came home and it was the expressed opinion of many that the permanent Girl Scout camp would be a great asset to Brevard.

Vaclar Konther of Hammond, Ind., branded his daughter on the forehead with a hot iron because she stayed out late at night.

Mrs. Gray Sowers is visiting friends and relatives in Lexington, N. C.

Mrs. Alice Huffington, of Dallas, Tex., spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. C. M. Siniard.

Money in the Bank

Only the thrifty home is the truly happy home. Where extravagance is--there is unhappiness because pressing bills, worry and demoralizing influences of never being in position to take advantage of opportunity--when opportunity knocks--brings only disaster in the end. The young couple who starts early in life to keep the outgo always within the limits of income, builds constructively--and there are many happy hours ahead for them.
