HOUSTON FURNITURE CO. DECLARED AS CHAMPIONS

Official representative of the Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet factory has been in Breyard several days issisting the Houtson Furniture company in the hig sale of kitchen cabinets now going on. This factory representative states that the Houston Furniture company in Brevard holds the championship in the sales record of kitchen cabinets in the United States, based, of course, on the num-ber of sales in comparison to the population of the town. The sale new on closes Saturday night.

MAJOR RAINES ON VISIT TO FRENCH BROAD CAMP

Major H. E. Raines, owner of French Broad camp, was in Brevard last week, making final arrangements for opening of the camp for the 1928 season. While here Major expressed himself as being elated over the prospects for this season, and said he fully expects this to exceed any year since he has been operating any year since he has been operating to go to work on interesting sermon at Cathey's Creek along being sermon at Cathey's Creek along being any here.

scheme as suggested above would be truly patriotic and to the eternal credit of both political parties, and could, I think, be arranged to the entire satisfaction of all concerned.

Respectfully, M. W. GALLOWAY.

Editor The Breva. News:
Why should Transplvania county, under the present status of things, be rent and torn ander by a heated and bitter political, campaign during the coming [...]? I sincerely believe that the sensible thing for the politicians and office-seekers to do is to get together on some agreement which might eliminate the necessity of a campaign with the spending sometime with Mr. Sharp's policy of this section.

We are glad to see Mrs. Ward Breedlove out again after having the new of the sick list.
