

THE BREVARD NEWS

VOL. XXXIII.

BREVARD, NORTH CAROLINA, MAY 24, 1928

No. 21

PRECINCT MEETINGS CALLED FOR SATURDAY AFTERNOON

The county board of commissioners has called for precinct meetings to be held on Saturday afternoon, June 6, at 2 o'clock. The meetings will be held at the same time and place as last year. It is the duty of every voter to appear at these meetings and cast his ballot for the candidates for the coming year. The board of commissioners will meet on Monday, June 11, at 10 o'clock, to receive the returns from the precinct meetings.

W. O. W. CIRCLE OFFICIAL

CANDIDATES FILED FOR MANY OFFICES

But Few Contests In Primary—Galloway Files For Legislature

When the list of candidates for the primary election was filed in the county clerk's office on Monday, it was found that there were a large number of candidates for many of the offices. The most numerous candidates were for the offices of justice of the peace, constable, and school board. The only candidate for the legislature was Galloway.

MANY GUESTS AT FRANKLIN HOTEL

Season Opening To Assist In Caring For Early Visitors and Festival Week Crowds

Announcement that the Franklin Hotel has been intently opened will prove of great interest to the people of Brevard. The hotel is a fine example of modern architecture and is well equipped for the comfort of its guests. It is situated in a beautiful location and is surrounded by a large amount of land. The hotel is now open for the season and is ready to receive its guests.

SCHOOL BUDGET REDUCED BY $54,000 FOR THE COMING YEAR

TO VISIT HERE

Transylvania county's school budget for 1928-29 has been reduced by $54,000 from that of last year. This reduction was made by J. S. Broadhead, chairman of the board of education, and will be the result of the board's efforts to reduce the school budget. The board has been working hard to reduce the budget as much as possible. The new budget for the coming year is $1,000,000.

It has been known for some time that the school board, with Superintendent Henderson, have been working hard in an effort to reduce the budget just as much as possible. The news that a saving of this big sum over last year, with the full term provided for, will be welcome to the citizens of the county.

Officials of the school board feel that the reduction in the budget will enable them to make like expenditures for the coming year. The board will meet on Monday, June 11, at 10 o'clock, to receive the returns from the precinct meetings.

TAXPAYER'S LITTLE KITCHEN

Elated Over Change in Taxation of Estates—Ward, Ex-Prizefighter, Gladly Values $2,000 Tax

Ward, ex-prizefighter, is elated over the change in the taxation of estates. He has paid a tax of $2,000 on his estate and is glad to do so. He says that the new law is a relief to taxpayers and that he is glad to see it enacted.

KIWANIS BAND STEPHAN'S CAMP

Ladies Night Fringed Most Interesting Meeting—Work For Good Attendance

The Kiwanis band played at Stephan's camp on Thursday evening. The ladies night meeting was most interesting and the work for good attendance was well done. The band played a variety of songs and the ladies enjoyed the music very much.

BREVARD VISITOR IS GIVEN HIGH HONORS

The many friends of Miss Frances Scott will be interested in hearing that Miss Scott has recently been re-elected to serve a second year as president of the Teachers' League. This is a large organization of some 500 teachers of East Tennessee, including the city of Knoxville. In July Miss Scott will go as representative from this organization to the American Educational Association, which convenes in Minneapolis, Minn.

CITIZEN ON TABLE AT THE U. D. C. LIBRARY

Librarian Miss Edith Hunt announces that the daily Asheville Citizen may now be found on the reading table of the U. D. C. Library for the use of patrons and friends of the library. This is made possible through the summer months by the Brevard High School library, through the courtesy of Supt. J. B. Jones.

CLEAN-UP DELAYED ACCOUNT OF RAIN

Heavy rains during the week have delayed the work mapped out in the clean-up campaign to a marked extent. Many people, however, have cleared their premises, and the trucks, which began the announced program Tuesday morning, will follow the schedule as outlined in last week's paper. On account of the rains, the trucks could not complete each section in the day assigned in that community, but will return at the end of the week and remove whatever was missed on the first trip, according to City Clerk Harry Patton.

AIR MAIL PROVEN BY LOCAL LAWYER

Wm. E. Breese, while in Philadelphia last week, wired Brevard at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon for some needed papers. The papers were mailed on the afternoon Greenville mail, sent to Greenville over the star route, from there to Spartanburg by train, and from Spartanburg to Philadelphia by airplane mail, and were awaiting Mr. Breese and his associates at the beginning of the business day on the next morning. This is just another instance of the great part the air mail service is destined to play in American life.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 6 TO BE BREVARD DAY

Wednesday, June 6, will be "Brevard Day" during the great Rhododendron Festival Week, and it is expected that large crowds will visit this county on that day. Mrs. Wm. E. Breese and S. P. Hammatt are in charge of arrangements for this day. It is planned to have the visitors come from Asheville to Brevard, then to Connessee Falls, Cedar Mountain, Caesar's Head, and return to Brevard for a buffet lunch at the Franklin Hotel. In the afternoon the visitors will go to Lake Toxaway, Cashiers, and on over No. 28 to the intersection of No. 10, returning to Asheville by Waynesville.

AIR MAIL SERVICE PRAISED

Last Saturday evening at 10 o'clock, Miss Katharine... a letter in Washington... parents, Mr. and Mrs. Breese, were in Brevard, through the courtesy of the Asheville Post Office. The letter was received at 5 o'clock on Sunday morning and was received by noon Sunday. Many people are praising the air mail service. Mr. Breese says, "It is a great convenience to have mail service so quick." The Asheville Post Office is doing a fine job of transmitting mail.

R. & P. W. CLUB IN UNIFORM PROGRAM

Family Album of Long Ago Presented—Officers Re-Elected for New Year's Work

Twenty-six members of the Business and Professional Women's club met at the Pierce-Moore Hotel Monday night, where an interesting meeting was held and a thoroughly satisfying supper was enjoyed around two long tables. The main feature of the business meeting was the annual election of officers, the election resulting as follows: President, Mrs. Hugh R. Walker; vice president, Mrs. R. E. Lawrence; recording secretary, Miss Alma Trowbridge; corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. H. Houston; treasurer, Miss Launa Clayton; state councilor, Mrs. H. N. Carrier. These officers were all re-elected to succeed themselves.

Two new names were voted into membership—Miss Earlene Poindecker and Mrs. W. H. Underwood. Mrs. L. K. Stanford was elected delegate to represent the local club at the meeting of the State Business and Professional Women's club, to be held at Fayetteville, N. C., on June 16.

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE IS ORGANIZED HERE

The Industrial League has been organized here. The league will be held at the Asheville Methodist church, delivering the address of the occasion. The league will be held on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in the Institute chapel. The program will include a senior class day program, a tennis tournament, and a musical program. The league will be held on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The graduation exercises will be held at the Asheville Methodist church, delivering the address of the occasion.

TO VISIT HERE

People from many sections came to hear the singing, which was pronounced by "old timers" to be one of the most enjoyable days ever devoted to this kind of work in this community.