MISS YONGUE WON THE CHEVROLET CAR

Mrs. Lucy Holt Awarded the Ford as Second Prize Winner

MANY NAMES ADDED TO SUBSCRIPTION LIST

Flood Week Kept Contestants from Doing Much Final Work

Despite the fact that the last week of The Brevard News Salesmanship Club Campaign happened to be the week of the storm and flood waters, the effort was a decided success, and about one thousand new names were added to the subscription list of this paper. Many renewals were also made, and the people generally lent great assistance to The News.

Miss Marion Yongue won first prize, the new Chevrolet car, with a total vote of 9,580,039.

Mrs. Lawrence Holt won second prize, a Ford Tudor sedan, with a vote of 6,223,398.

The automobiles were offered as the two prizes open to all territory. Then there were three prizes each in two districts, the first district being in the town of Brevard and the second district being the territory outside of Brevard.

In the first district, Mrs. J. L. Saltz, won the prize, an Atwater-Kent Radio, purchased from the Brevard Battery company. Mrs. Saltz had a vote of 2,593,498.

Winner of the second prize in the first district was Julian A. Glazener, the prize being a suite of furniture purchased from the Farmers Supply company. Mr. Glazener had a vote of 2,048,277.

Third prize in the first district went to Mac Grogan. This prize was $15 cash, and the vote was 686,185.

Miss Susie Jordan won the third prize in the second district, with a vote of 2,294,850.

Several other candidates won cash commissions, checks for which have been mailed to the winners.

Messrs. Randall Everett, D. L. English and Alex Kizer very kindly acted as judges and declared the winners of the several prizes.

Many people gathered on News Arcade in front of The News building early Monday morning to hear the announcement made of the winners. Utmost secrecy was kept as to the standing of all the contestants throughout the campaign, and at no time was any information given to any one as to the standing of the candidates. Only the manager of the campaign, Mr. W. W. Latta, and the editor of The Brevard News knew at any time how the candidates stood, and these men knew nothing during the last week, as the reports of the candidates were placed in a locked and sealed box, the keys to which were in the hands of the judges. Every effort was made to treat all contestants fairly and squarely, with no partiality shown any one at any time.

The paper's expression of gratitude to all will be found on the editorial page of this issue.

POWER PLANT HARD HIT BY THE FLOOD

Expect to Have Plant in Operation By End of Week

Last week's flood and storm did considerable damage to the Cascade Power company's plant, on Little River. About one hundred feet of the flume was washed away last Wednesday evening, putting the power plant completely out of commission. Great difficulties were encountered by officials of the company in reaching the plant to begin replacement of the torn section of the flume.

J. H. Pickelsimer, president of the Cascade Power company, and a force of men used boats in which to get across the French Broad river at Davidson River. The French Broad was out of banks, the water reaching to the railroad in front of Lyday's store at Davidson River. A boat was used from the railroad to the bridge over the river. The boat was then carried across the bridge and the men used the boat again from the bridge to Mr. Tom English's place. Lumber for repairs was also carried across the river in the boat.

The roads then had to be worked out, after waters receded, before the heavy material could be placed at the dam. The Carr Lumber company made the sections of flume necessary to replace that which had been washed away.

Sid Barnett's machine shop force was also engaged for several days in working on the flume repairs. Mr. Barnett, it is said, had to order some needed material from Johnson City, Tenn., and experienced great difficulty in getting this material through from Asheville to Brevard. During the time the dam is being repaired, power and light for Brevard is being furnished by the Sapphire Cotton mill. It is said the damage will have been repaired by the end of the week, and power will be coming through from the plant soon.

Monday, September 3, the bell rings for Transylvania county's school children to resume their work. All schools, all over the county, begin on the same day this year, and for eight months now the boys and girls will be engaged in school room work.

Superintendent Henderson and the school board have all details worked out for the year's work, and look forward to this being one of the most successful years in the history of the county schools.

LIBRARY NOTES

Increased interest and attendance in the U. D. C. Library is noted during the past week over that of any previous week during the summer. According to the librarian's report for the week ending August 20, there were 269 books in circulation, with an attendance of 222, six new members, and several books added to the shelves.

COUNTY RECOVERS FROM FLOOD EFFECT

Industries, Roads, Farms, Suffer from Effects of Swollen Streams

COMMUNICATION CUT OFF FOR TWO DAYS

Rosman and Pisgah Forest Get Brunt of Raging Floods—Business Going On Transylvania county is rapidly recovering from the effects of the floods of last week, when streams of the county left their banks, flooded the highways, covered acres of bottom farm lands, washed bridges and trestles on logging roads away, and had the county isolated for two days. Wednesday of last week was the beginning of the flood conditions, when the French Broad river flooded the streets of Rosman, and by Thursday morning the high waters had reached a point but little under that which prevailed in the 1916 flood.

Much damage was done to the crops in the county along the French Broad valley.

The industries at Rosman and the lumber roads into the mountains suffered much damage, mostly, it is said, from the loss of trestles along the logging railroads. Work on repairing and replacing such structures is being rushed with all possible speed, and it is hoped to have resumed full operations in all the various companies affected at an early date.

Efforts are being made to ascertain damages done to farming, the industries and the highways, so authentic information can be given the public.

All highways were opened by Sunday, however, and business throughout the county has been resumed, only in the industries are men idle while repairs are being made. It is hoped to have everything going at full speed within a few days.

County commissioners in session Wednesday set aside $10,000 for the purpose of replacing bridges that were washed away during the floods last week, and to repair roads that were made impassable. Judging from amounts being spent in other counties, Transylvania emerged from the floods with minimum damage to highways and bridges, as other counties are spending much more than the sum set aside in Transylvania.

It is expected all repairs to the damaged bridges in the county will soon be made.

The State Highway commission estimates the damage to the highways in Western North Carolina amounts to more than $300,000.

CARR LUMBER CO. MAKING REPAIRS

Many trestles on the railroad lines of the Carr Lumber company were washed away during the flood last week, causing great loss to the company and necessitating a suspension of operations until the trestles are replaced and other damages repaired.

W. W. Croushorn, manager of the big concern, stated the impossibility of estimating the damage done until a thorough investigation of the lines far back in the mountains can be made. Large forces of men are at work, rebuilding the trestles and making repairs to the railroads.

Comparatively little damage was caused about the lumber plant at Pisgah Forest, it is stated.

The Carr Lumber company employs a large force of workmen, and suspension of operations entails a great loss to the community. It is said at least two more weeks will be required to make all repairs to the damages done.

CANNOT FURNISH POWER FOR PLANTS

Manager H. E. Erwin, of the Sapphire Cotton Mills, stated Wednesday that industrial plants and other places of business where electric motors were used, must cease running their machinery at night. The cotton mill is supplying the town with current for lighting purposes, Mr. Erwin stated, and not for industrial purposes.

Mr. Erwin said if industrial plants are to run, that he would run his own mill. He has shut down his mill at nights, however, in order to furnish power for lighting purposes for the city.

Some places that use electric current, it is said, for their manufacturing or mechanical work, have been running at night. The load is too heavy for the cotton mill plant, hence switches are thrown and the town goes into darkness.

Until the regular power company resumes operation, Mr. Erwin insists that no power be used for industrial purposes before midnight. After that hour, when the most of people have retired and turned off their lights, then there is power available for other purposes.

WOODMEN CIRCLE MARCHING ON TOWN

First Arrivals To Reach Camp Sapphire Next Sunday, Aug. 26th.

MANY STATES TO SEND DELEGATIONS TO CAMP

Carolina Day To Be Observed Next Thursday Afternoon

The Woodmen Circle is coming! At least, close to 200 field workers, national officers, interested members, and drill team members will begin arriving at Camp Sapphire next Sunday for the five-day meet which will be held in honor of 52 field workers who have made unusual and outstanding records in the last few months. The conference opens August 28.

$14,685,000 new business was written by the Woodmen Circle in the nine months ending last July 1. In this nine months period the society's field workers exceeded by nearly one million dollars the quota which the Field Work committee had set them for one year.

The committee, consisting of National President Mary E. LaRocca and National Secretary Dora Alexander Talley of Omaha, Neb., and National Drill Instructor Jeanie Willard of Denison, Texas, all of whom will be at Camp Sapphire for the meeting, also reports 14,666 net gain in combined membership over the same nine-month period. The membership is now 155,808.

A total of 15,335 juveniles were written in the nine-months, or nearly 2 1/2 times the Field work committee's quota of 6,330 for the entire year.

Investments in North Carolina

The Woodmen Circle has invested $2,356,000 in North Carolina securities, mainly school and road bonds. Mrs. LaRocca and Mrs. Talley are both on the investment committee, together with National Director Ethel Holloway of Montgomery, Ala. These ladies say that the society has faith in North Carolina, faith in its present and faith in its future, and is willing to back its faith with cash. The society has a record of never having lost a penny through bad investment.

For the last seven years the order has made one monthly payment for members, and in November of this year members' payments will again be taken care of for them out of the surplus benefit fund. The assets of the society, which is more than 102 per cent solvent, total $21,000,000.

ZACHARY REUNION NEXT SATURDAY

Plans are complete for the Zachary reunion to be held next Saturday at Cashiers. This is an annual affair, and always brings a great crowd of the Zachary family and their friends together. The community of Cashiers was settled by the Zacharys, and there is much of historic interest in the meetings.

One of the sad features to be encountered at the meeting next Saturday will be the absence of Ralph Zachary, whose death occurred since the last reunion. He was one of the prime movers in the organization of the Zachary association, and was always one of the happiest men at the reunions.

FACULTY TO LEAVE FOR NORTH FRIDAY

Dr. John K. Lacock, president of the Boston School of Expression and Dramatic Art, and members of the faculty of the Summer School which closed here Thursday, will leave for Boston early Friday morning. Dr. Lacock has made many friends here during the summer months. He states that his school will return here next summer for the second summer term.

The school has had unusual success in the first summer term to be held in Brevard. Dr. Lacock and members of the faculty have assisted in every way they could all clubs and social gatherings that have called upon the school for entertainers. It is recognized as an organization of service, hence the great popularity enjoyed here by Dr. Lacock.

PRIVATE SCHOOL ESTABLISHED HERE

Summer Term Here and Winter Term in West Palm Beach

A new boarding school, unique from the fact that it is to spend six months of each year in North Carolina and six months in Florida, is being organized by Prof. B. H. Gault of West Palm Beach, Fla. The school will be called Florolina, a name secured by the contraction of the two state names, Florida and Carolina. The management announces that the school will accommodate boys from six to fifteen years of age and will be in session for twelve months each year.

The winter term of the Florolina School, November to April, will be held in property belonging to the Gault Private School in West Palm Beach and will open this fall for the first time. For the summer term, May to October, Prof. Gault has secured the use of Deer Park Home, the farm place of Mrs. W. H. Allison, near Brevard. This is one of the most beautiful country places to be found anywhere. It contains eight-every rooms and is modern in every respect. The house is situated amid magnificent trees on a spacious lawn, adjacent to the fertile farm lands in the valley of the Davidson and French Broad rivers.

Such a climatic arrangement as is offered by the Florolina School will provide out-door activities for the students during the entire year. Swimming, tennis, baseball, horseback riding, etc., can be enjoyed practically every day of the twelve months. A pleasing contrast is also provided in the plan of the school to spend half the year in the city and half in the country. The Florida session will be devoted strictly to academic work and sports, while the period spent in North Carolina will be given over largely to the activities of agriculture, scouting, camping, nature study, manual training and other handiwork. September and October will, however, be devoted to books, so that the full academic requirements will be met each year.

Prof. Gault has a college degree and has been engaged in school work in Illinois and Florida for sixteen years. For the past seven years he has operated his own private school. For five years he has been actively engaged in the work of the Georgia Military Academy's summer school and camp near Hendersonville. Prof. Gault will be headmaster of the Florolina school. He will be ably assisted in his work by Mrs. Gault, who is a graduate of a musical conservatory and has had ten years' experience as a teacher. She possesses a beautiful soprano voice and is in much demand for church and artistic programs wherever she goes. Mr. and Mrs. Gault will be aided in their work by other experienced teachers who are specialists in their respective lines.

Mr. Cooper Hurt by Motorcycle
"Uncle Babe" Cooper, as he is so well known, was injured late Tuesday afternoon when a motorcycle, ridden by Jimmy Sledge, struck Mr. Cooper, cutting a gash in his leg. It is said that Mr. Cooper was standing on the sidewalk, near where the motorcycle was parked, and when Mr. Sledge started the car, something went wrong with it, and one of the bars struck Mr. Cooper. He is reported as resting easily late Wednesday evening.

LACOCK TO SPEAK AT CLUB DINNER

Dr. John K. Lacock, president of the Boston School of Expression and Dramatic Art, will speak at the Kiwanis meeting today at noon, on Robert E. Lee. Dr. Lacock is said to be an effective speaker. The fact that a Bostonian is to speak in praise of the South's idol is sufficient to bring the entire membership of the club to the meeting today.
