PAUL WRITES TO HIS FRIENDS IN CORINTH

LESSON TEXT—I Cor. 1:10-13:3; 5-11, 21-23.

GOLDEN TEXT—Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul Writes a Letter to His Friends.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul Writes a Good Letter to His Friends.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Paul Urges Team Work.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S AND ADULT TOPIC—Paul Pleads for Christian Unity.

Concerning Contention in the Church (1:10-13).

1. Exhortation (v. 10). "That ye all speak the same thing."

In view of the fact that he besought them in the name of Jesus Christ, the one thing which he desired them to speak was the Lord's name. The name of the Lord stands for all that the Lord is and does. "That there be no divisions among you," that is, no factions, no alienation of affection. "That ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment."

2. The reason for this exhortation, (v. 11).

Word had been brought to Paul by members of the household of Chloe that wrangling was going on among the members of the Corinthian church. He assured them that he had sufficient evidence of the strife which was going on among them.

3. Nature of the contentions (v. 12).

Their disputes were about their teachers. Their interests were centering in their favorite ministers. Some were for Paul, perhaps attracted by his logic; some were for Apollos, doubtless moved by his stirring eloquence; others were for Peter. Doubtless these were Jewish converts who looked to Peter as their authority. There were still others who had as their cry "back to Christ," repudiating all human teachers.

The grounds of allegiance to Christ (v. 13).

(1) He is Head of the whole church.

The unifying power of the body is the head. He raised the question, "Is Christ divided?" The mere raising of the question gave the answer.

(2) Redemption accomplished.

By his atoning death He has supreme Lordship over all.

(3) Allegiance to Christ acknowledged in baptism. By one Spirit are we all baptized into one body (I Cor. 12:13).

II. Concerning Christian Ministers (3:1-4:5).

Since the dissensions in the church gathered around the ministers, Paul proceeded to cure the evil by exhibiting the ministerial office in its true light. To conceive of ministers as party leaders or teachers of philosophy tends to divisions. Divisions in the church occur when men are occupied with the messenger rather than with the message. The cure in such a case is to get a right conception and proper estimate of human teachers. Ministers really are:

1. Servants of God (vv. 5, 6).

They are instruments in His hands for the execution of His will. They are men sent to deliver a message, to do a definite work.

2. Ministers are equal in rank (vv. 8, 9).

They are called by the same spirit to teach the same truth, and therefore stand in the same relationship. Official hierarchy in the church has no foundation in the Scriptures.

3. Every minister must give an account to God for his work (vv. 10-21).

If he lay other foundation than Christ he is not a Christian minister at all. If he build sound doctrine on the foundation he will receive a reward. If he build false doctrine on a true foundation he will suffer loss and receive punishment. Sorrow and anguish will be to him who builds good material upon a wrong foundation, and likewise to him who builds poor material upon a right foundation. Human wisdom has no place in the solemn work of building; the church of God.

4. Ministers are the property of the church (vv. 22, 23).

Frequently the assumption is that the church is owned by the ministers. Ministers should be followed only as far as they follow Christ.

5. Ministers are God's stewards (4:1-5).

Their business is to dispense His truth. They do not originate the message. God demands fidelity on their part and He will enter into judgment with them as to their faithfulness.

Proof of a Divine Reality

The best proof of a divine reality at the heart of things is the passion for growth, the desire for perfection, that makes itself felt in all who are sensitive to the possibilities of spiritual attainment.

Being Content

We have been content with a slight elevation above the evils of our time, and not intent on the inward searching, purifying and consuming of the Holy Spirit.—F. B. Meyer.

MORE NAMES ADDED TO COLLEGE GROUP

In the list published last week of the young men and young women of the county who are leaving for colleges and universities, the following well known students were not included, due to the fact that telephone communications could not be had with them:

Broadus Henderson, of Quebec, son of W. B. Henderson, returns to the University of North Carolina for his third year's work there.

Miss Helen Henderson will attend Cullowhee.

Miss Mary Jane Price and Miss Siva Clark are at Cullowhee.

Miss Azalea Owen is a student at N. C. C. W., Greensboro.

Miss Ressie Kate Meese, of Brevard, will be a student at Weaver College.

W. Ernest Merrill, of Little River, has re-entered Furman University, Greenville, to continue his studies there.

Robert Morris enters Clemson College.

This brings the list of Transylvania boys and girls almost to the sixty point, and it is believed that others whose names have not been as yet sent in, will swell this county's college population to sixty.
