PAUL'S EXPERIENCES IN JERUSALEM

LESSON TEXT—Acts 21:18-28:28. GOLDEN TEXT—Be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. PRIMARY TOPIC—How a Boy Helped His Uncle. JUNIOR TOPIC—How a Boy Helped His Uncle.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Paul Proves His Courage. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Religious Prejudices and Fanaticism.

I. Paul's Vow (21:18-28).
Upon Paul's arrival at Jerusalem representatives of the church there gave him a most cordial reception. In order that the brethren in Jerusalem might graciously receive him, it was proposed to him by the elders that he take a Jewish vow to prove that he was in no way opposed to the law. The effort was to remove prejudice.

II. Paul's Arrest (21:27-40).
How far this act conciliated the Christian Jews we are not told, but it only enraged the unbelieving Jews, causing them to resort to mob law. These madmen seized Paul, dragged him from the temple and beat him mercilessly, intending to put him to death. Paul was rescued from the mob by the Roman guard. The chief captain, not being able to get any information from the howling mob, bound Paul and started for the castle. In order to protect him, the soldiers lifted him upon their shoulders and bore him up the stairs.

III. Paul's Defence (22:1-27).
Paul's chief concern was not his own safety. He used this last opportunity of witnessing for Christ.

1. His just claim for a hearing (vv. 1-3).

(1) His birth (v. 3). He was Jewish-born in Tarsus, a city of no mean reputation.

(2) His education (v. 3). He was educated in the best of schools, the school of Gamaliel, and instructed "according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers."

(3) His zeal (v. 3). He was as zealous toward God as those Jews who were trying to destroy him.

2. His former attitude toward Jesus (vv. 4, 5).

"I persecuted this way unto the death," so that his attitude was one of hatred as was that of the Jews.

3. How his attitude was changed (vv. 6-10).

This change of attitude was brought about by the intervention of God. While on his way to Damascus with authority to bring the Christians to Jerusalem to be punished, Paul was smitten to the ground by a light from heaven, and the voice of the Lord said, "Why persecutest thou Me?" When Paul inquired as to what he was to do, he was told to go into Damascus where he would be told what to do. Ananias was sent by the Lord to make known His will.

4. The Lord commissioned him to go to the Gentiles (vv. 17-21).

It was not of his own will that he preached to the Gentiles, but by the Lord's direct commission.

IV. Paul Before the Sanhedrin (23:1-10).

The Roman officer, in order to learn why Paul was arrested, commanded the chief council to assemble, and brought Paul before them.

1. Paul's earnest look at the council (vv. 1, 2).

This was a solicitation of their honor or to give him a fair hearing, and also a look of conscious integrity and unflinching courage.

2. Paul's stern rebuke of the head of the council (v. 3).

"God shall smite thee, thou whited wall." This was a just sentence, no doubt directed by the Lord. Paul showed that he had the highest respect for the office, but the man then occupying it was not worthy of it.

3. Paul's appeal to the Pharisees (vv. 6-10).

Seeing that he could not get a hearing, and perceiving that the body before him was made up of Pharisees and Sadducees, he appealed to the Pharisees for his preaching and something in common with their belief.

V. The Lord Stood by Paul (v. 11).

He was in great need of grace to sustain him. He may have begun to question the wisdom of his going to Jerusalem, but this assured him that his course was right, and thus comfort was brought to him.

VI. The Conspiracy to Kill Paul (vv. 18-22).

More than forty men banded together for the purpose of getting Paul out of the way. This plot was known to Paul's sister's son (v. 16), who reported it, and thus doubtless saved the apostle's life.

Highway of Holiness

The highway of holiness is along the commonest road of life—along your very way. In wind and rain, no matter how it beats—it is only going hand in hand with Him.—Mark Guy Pearse.

The World's Condition

The world is in a sick condition today because the Bible says: "In the beginning, God" and the world is saying: "At the last, God."—A. W. Tozer.

CULLOWHEE GETS NEW RESERVATIONS

Registration for the winter quarter will be held at Cullowhee State Normal on December 13th. Several students have sent in their reservations for this quarter, and it is believed that at least thirty new students will enter. A few will leave at the close of the fall quarter, most of these completing their work for graduation at that time. Last winter quarter there were 171 students enrolled in the Normal while this winter an increase of at least twenty-five per cent is the outlook. At the present time an increase of a little more than twenty-one per cent over the enrollment of the fall quarter last year.

THE PRAYER CORNER

ACCESS
"Duty is the end and aim of the highest life. The truest pleasure of all is that derived from the consciousness of its fulfillment. There is something in every one which urges him to do his duty."

"Some men call it conscience, but I prefer to call it the Voice of God in the soul of man. If you listen and obey it, then it will speak clearer and clearer, and will always guide you aright; but if you turn a deaf ear, or disobey, then it will fade out little by little, and leave you in the dark without a friend. Your life depends on heeding that little voice."

"Character is the great desideratum of human life. This truth, sublime in its simplicity, and powerful in its beauty, is the highest lesson of religion—the first that youth should learn, the last that age should forget."

"The one great truth to which we all need to come is that a successful life lies not in doing this, or going there, or possessing something else, it lies in the quality of the daily life. It is just as sure success is to be just and courteous to servants or companions or the chance comer, as it is to make a noted speech before an audience, or write a book, or take a million dollars. It is achievement on the spiritual side of things; it is the extension of our life here into the spiritual world, that is, a life of value. This extension is achieved, this growth toward higher things is attained, by our habitual attitude of mind. It develops by Truth and Love and Goodness. It is stunted by every envious thought, every unjust or unkind act."

"He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often, and loved much, who has gained the respect of intelligent men and women, and the love of little children, who has filled his niche and accomplished his task, who has left the world better than he found it, whether by an improved poppy, a perfect poem or a rescued soul, who has never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty, or failed to express it, who has always looked for the best in others, and given the best he had, whose life was an inspiration, whose memory a benediction."

"The life of full completion, haunts us all. We feel the thing we ought to be beating beneath the thing we are."

"Build it well whatever you do; Build it straight and strong and true; Build it clean and high and broad. Build it for the Eye of God."

A PRAYER FOR SUCCESS
We thank Thee, our Father, that Thou hast enriched our being with those faculties which prompt to noble endeavor. We rejoice in our powers guided by Thy free Spirit, both to overcome evil, and to do good. Help us, dear Father, to recognize the great incentives of science, and of duty, assured that cheerful conformity therein we will find the sweetest zest of life.

Holy Lord, teach us the meaning of real success. May we not become the victims of the world's ambition. May we esteem holiness more than gold. May we aim at the Eternal, any may we be successful. Increase our faith in Thee, O Lord. Enable us more clearly to realize that in the end truth and right will gain the victory.

Thus may we be inspired to live brave, true and wholesome lives. May we fight the good fight of faith, and win the crown of life promised to all those who follow the "Conquering Christ."

Above all, O Lord, help us to measure success by the standard of the Master. When all men speak well of us, may we be on our guard lest they praise us for what Thou dost disapprove. May we not be content with any transient success, but coveting earnestly the best: find reward where Christ found it—in the victory of the cause for which He gave His all, the triumph of that kingdom from which selfishness shall be forever banished and where love shall be supreme. In His name, Amen.

REV. PENDLETON'S CALL TO CHURCHES

The Lake Toxaway and Oak Grove Baptist churches will hear Rev. E. R. Pendleton during the ensuing year. He has consented to the call made by the two churches, and on two Sundays each month will visit them, namely on the first and third, morning and afternoon each time. The first Sunday morning will go to Oak Grove, and the third Sunday morning at Toxaway, alternating the afternoons. Hence next Sunday, Nov. 18th, will be preaching day at both—Toxaway at 11 a.m. and Oak Grove at 3 p.m.

It is not known what Mr. Pendleton will do to occupy his full time, but if other churches took up his two open Sundays near Brevard it is presumed he would spend his winters as well as summers in the mountains.

CARD OF THANKS
I desire to thank all my friends who supported me in the election and made me their constable. I shall try to show my appreciation by making you a good officer.

Respectfully,
W. L. WOOD.
