Improved Uniform International Sunday School Lesson

(BY REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D.D., Dean Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.) (© 1928, Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for January 6 OUR HEAVENLY FATHER

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 6:24-34. GOLDEN TEXT—Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear Him. PRIMARY TOPIC—Our Heavenly Father. JUNIOR TOPIC—Our Heavenly Father. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What the Heavenly Father Means to Me. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Fatherhood of God.

Half of the lessons for the year 1929 are of a topical character. The aim of the committee seems to have been to place before the Sunday-school pupils some of the great doctrine of God's Word, as well as teachings on practical life.

I. Who is Our Heavenly Father?

(Genesis 1:1, 27). He is the Almighty God who created the universe. God was before all things. "Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God." The universe came into being by the will and act of the personal being called God. Man himself is a creation of God. He was created in the likeness and image of God. God is the infinite and perfect spirit in whom we live and move and have our being. He is omnipotent, omniscient and omnipresent. He was not only before all things, but the cause of all things.

II. What the Father Does.

1. He loves us (1 John 4:9, 10). This love was expressed by sending His only begotten Son into the world that we might live through Him. He not only loves the redeemed, but He loves the world (John 3:16). In the very essence of His being God is love (1 John 4:8). 2. He redeemed us (1 John 4:9). He gave His only begotten Son that we might live through Him. 3. God preserves us (Ps. 103:1-14). The preserving mercy of God embraces the following gracious beneficial acts:

- (1) He forgives all our iniquities (v. 3). This He is able to do because of the righteous provision He made for sin in the atonement wrought out by Jesus Christ.
- (2) He healeth all our diseases (v. 3). This healing refers to the body and soul.
- (3) He redeemeth the life from destruction (v. 4). Redemption implies the payment of all demands against the debtor.
- (4) He satisfieth thy mouth (v. 5). This means that God satisfies all legitimate desires so that youth is renewed like the eagle's.
- (5) He executes righteousness and judgment (vv. 6-12). The wrongs of life are righted and man is thus relieved of their burdens.
- (6) He pities His children (vv. 13, 14). The pity of an earthly father for his children is but a faint suggestion of the sympathetic heart of the loving God, our Father.

III. Our Responsibility to the Heavenly Father (Matthew 6:24-34).

Christ came to reveal the Father. The subjects of the heavenly kingdom will love Him as the child loves its father. 1. He will give unto him undivided attention (v. 24). The child of God makes the unequivocal choice between the heavenly Father and the world. The word "mammon" is a kind of personification of worldliness. 2. Will not be anxious about food and clothing (vv. 25-32). The child of God who knows Him as a Father will not be supremely concerned about what it shall eat or what it shall put on because anxiety is (1) Useless (v. 27). Regardless of what thought or concern one exercises concerning food and clothing, it will be provided only according to His will. In Him do we live, move and have our being. God supplies all our needs (Phil. 4:19). (2) It shows distrust of the Father (vv. 28-30). In the measure that one is anxious about these needs, he shows lack of faith in the love of God. (3) It is heathenish (v. 32). That those who are ignorant of God should manifest anxiety is not to be wondered at, but for His children, those who know God as the Father, to do so is to play the heathen. He knows that we have need of temporal blessings. 3. Will diligently seek the Kingdom of God and His righteousness (vv. 33, 34). This means that he will subordinate temporal things to the things of the Spirit. It does not mean that a child of God will fail to exercise proper forethought in providing for himself and family.

The Reality of Life

Silence is in truth the attribute of God; and those who seek Him from that side invariably learn that meditation is not the dream, but the reality of life; not its illusion, but its truth; not its weakness but its strength.—Martineau.

God's Promises

God's promises were never meant to ferry our laziness like a boat; they are to be rowed by our oars.—Henry Ward Beecher.

CONNESTEE NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. William Hogsed, Jr., and their children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Alton Holden. Mr. W. H. Hogsed was a business caller upon Mr. Jake Baker Saturday morning. Miss Lillie Gravelly spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Willie Tinsley. Our Christmas program at the church was a great success. It consisted of numerous recitations by the smaller children, a play "of olden times" in which Lillie Gravelly represented "Grandma" and Azilee Baker "an old maid of about 1800." They were both dressed according to the customs of that time. After the program a beautifully decorated Christmas tree and an "honest-to-goodness" live Santa Claus came upon the scene. This furnished much fun, both for old and young. Several from this section attended the singing convention at Brevard Sunday and reported a nice time. Messrs Jake Baker and W. H. Hogsed were dinner guests of the latter's daughter, Mrs. T. Brown of Brevard Sunday. Miss Azilee Baker visited Mrs. Willie Tinsley Friday night. Mr. Leo Gravelly spent the week-end at home here. Mrs. H. B. Glazener visited her mother, Mrs. Hogsed, who is very ill, Sunday afternoon.

The rabbits of the fields and woods have had several chases during the holidays by some of the hunters of this section. Last Thursday during a hunt, it is reported that eleven shots were required to kill one rabbit. Now that's not quite as good as Mr. Patton's record of shooting two deer from his front porch, but it must be on account of the inexperienced hunters, which are principally boys.

Mr. F. P. Tinsley and son, Porter, were Rosman visitors Saturday. Miss Lillie Gravelly visited Miss Laura Verter Saturday morning. Mr. Leo Raines visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Raines, Saturday. Officers for the coming year of the B. Y. P. U. were elected Sunday night as follows: President, Azilee Baker; secretary-treasurer, Beulah Tinsley; Bible drill leader, Mrs. G. W. Whitmire; group captain for seniors, Lillie Gravelly; junior group captain, Mildred Whitmire; chorister, W. J. Baker.

A party composed of Leo and Louie Raines, William Hogsed, Jr., Porter Tinsley and Alton Holden have accepted positions with the Electric Company, which is constructing a line to Greenville, S. C. The letters by Mr. Glazener and Mr. Hogsed were read with great interest in this section. We would like to have the county agents, but we would also like to have our taxes reduced.

Rev. Mr. Simpson and wife of Bradenton, were present at prayer meeting Saturday night and both gave interesting talks on the subject—"Love." They spent Saturday night with Mr. J. L. Gravelly. Mr. Simpson was at one time pastor of our church here. Subject announced for prayer service next week is "Hope," and Miss Lillie Gravelly will open the services.

Messrs Alton Holden and William Hogsed spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. H. B. Glazener.

Flu in our community has decreased quite a bit. Mr. Leo Gravelly motored to Lyman and Pickens, Saturday. Mr. Lee Masters and daughter Ruth, and son John, visited Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Tinsley Sunday afternoon.

Miss Azilee Baker and Lillie Gravelly visited Mrs. G. W. Whitmire Tuesday. Mrs. J. L. Gravelly and grandchildren visited Mr. and Mrs. Davis Whitmire of the Gloucester section, Tuesday.

We are glad to report that Miss Margie Whitmire, who has been ill with flu, is improving. Mrs. J. L. Gravelly has returned home after nursing Mrs. Elisha Gravelly and children.

Miss Lois Master was the guest of Miss Vera Whitmire Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Willie Tinsley have returned home after spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Masters. Misses Pearl, Reba and Ruth Gravelly visited Misses Lillie and Edith Gravelly Tuesday afternoon.
