MRS. KYLE HONORS SISTERS WITH NEW YEAR DANCE

Among the delightful holiday festivities was the New Year's eve dance given by Mrs. Albert Kyle at her home on Parke Avenue, honoring her sisters, Miss Dorothy Silverstein and Miss Adelaide Silverstein, who are at home for the Christmas holidays from their respective colleges. Holiday decorations in red and green were effectively used in the spacious rooms thrown en suite for the dance. Punch was served during the evening to the sixty guests present. The beautiful costumes worn by the young women were in keeping with the gaiety of the occasion. At midnight favors of horns, rattles and confetti, together with an elaborate display of fireworks, proclaimed the advent of the New Year and the departure of the old.

SURPRISE WATCH PARTY

One of the most delightful social events of the season was the surprise watch party given Miss Alta Clark at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Gravely in Forest Hills, Monday evening.

The evening was enjoyably spent playing games, telling fortunes, having contests and eating apples. Much merriment was added to the occasion by two young men being dressed as modern flappers.

When the clock on the mantle had ticked the Old Year out and the New Year in, the following guests departed: Misses Mollie, Ruth and Bobbie McCall, Hybernia and Rheumma Shipman, Messrs Dewey Moore, Romulus Bell, Paul and Walter Glazener, Luther and Walter Shpman, Lewis Surret and "Bud" Clark.

MISS NETTIE JACKSON WEDS DR. HENRY F. TOPP

Coming as a surprise to the many friends here was the marriage of Miss Nettie Dorothy Jackson to Dr. Henry Francis Topp, which took place at Charleston, W. Virginia on Monday, December 31, at the home of Rev. Dr. Clarence M. Kenyer.

Mrs. Topp is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Jackson, of Rosman, and is a graduate of the Rosman High School and successfully completed the two-year training in Petersburg Hospital, Petersburg, Va. where she met Dr. Topp, who taught her class in Materia Medica.

Dr. Topp is a graduate of the University of Michigan, and has charge of DuPonts First Aid Station at Charleston.

The former Miss Jackson left Sunday for Charleston, accompanied by her class mate, Miss Annie Gates, of Petersburg, who will continue her training in the hospital there.

Dr. and Mrs. Topp will make their home in Charleston.

MR. AND MRS. R. J. WHITMIRE ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Roland J. Whitmire entertained Sunday with the last of a series of dinners at their home on Franklin avenue.

Guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Rush Whitmire, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Forrest, of Hendersonville, Miss Sarah Jane Whitmire and Mr. Tom Whitmire.

LITTLE FRED GLAZENER CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Little Fred Glazener celebrated his fifth birthday Thursday afternoon by entertaining at a birthday party a number of his little friends at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julian A. Glazener.

Pretty Christmas decorations used in the rooms added to the pleasures of the occasion. Ice cream and cake served during the afternoon and favors of picture books and fruit delighted the little folks present. Much pleasure was afforded the children when the little host opened the many birthday gifts he had received. Mrs. D. F. Moore and Mrs. L. D. Martin assisted Mrs. Glazener in entertaining.

Guests present to enjoy this happy occasion with Fred were: Martha Kate Moore, Rosalie and Billie Martin, Billie Nicholson, Paul Jones, Edward Glazener, Ethelyn Picklesimer, Mary Louise Price, Christine and N. A. Miller, Jr.

POOLE-GODWIN

Mr. Joe Poole and Miss Mayron Rose Godwin were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents in Benson, on the evening of December 28. The ceremony was performed by R. D. Langdsen.

Mrs. Poole is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Godwin, and was a prominent member of the younger set of Benson.

Mr. Poole is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Poole, of Brevard, and has government employment as mail carrier on Route No. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Poole are now making their home in Brevard.

B. Y. P. U. ENJOYS SOCIAL GATHERING

Members of the B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist church enjoyed a social gathering Thursday evening, with Miss Myrtle Barnett as hostess.

The Barnett living quarters at the jail were most attractive with Christmas decorations and other suggestions of the holiday season. Games were played during the evening, during which a delicious salad course was served to the large number of guests present.

MR. AND MRS. RUSH WHITMIRE CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Rush Whitmire entertained New Year's eve at their home on Franklin avenue with a New Year's bridge party in celebration of their seventh wedding anniversary.

Only one table was playing, as other invited guests were prevented from being present on account of illness. An ice course was served during the evening.

Playing with Mr. and Mrs. Whitmire were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fisher.

MRS. BROWN CARR IS HOSTESS AT BRIDGE

Mrs. Brown Carr was hostess at three tables of bridge Friday evening at her home in Pisgah Forest.

Attractive decorations suggestive of the Christmas season were tastefully arranged, the holiday colors being further carried out in the dainty salad served at the conclusion of the game. Miss Marion Yongue won high score prize among the ladies, while Mr. Carl Moltz was high score winner among the men players.

Those playing included: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Ed McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Walker, Miss Jennie Aiken, Miss Marion Yongue, Mr. Moltz, Mrs. Smith, of Jacksonville, Fla., Mr. Arthur McLean, of Asheville, Mr. and Mrs. Brown Carr.

MISS SARA BARRETT HONORS HOLIDAY GUEST

An enjoyable social event of the Christmas vacation was the watch night party given by Miss Sara Barrett Monday evening at her home on Caldwell avenue, honoring her holiday guest, Miss Mary Stowe, of Asheville.

Dancing, games and music were enjoyed during the evening, and at the hour of midnight the jolly party of young people watched the incoming of the New Year and the departure of the old with much merriment. Sandwiches and coffee were served during the evening.

Guests present were: Elizabeth Mills, Gladys Wood, Ruth Cantrell, Ruth Snelson, Mollie Snelson, Christine Snelson, Mary Stowe, Geraldine Barrett, Susie Hunt, Rebecca Summey, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Peacock, Jr., Bill Erwin, Harry Sitton, Henry Erwin, Ed Jones, Harry Bryson, Smith Briggs, Laurence Ward, Harry Johnson, Charlie McCrary, Warren Scruggs, Speedy Jones.

Mrs. Oliver Crary and little daughter, Mary, have returned to their home in Charlotte after spending the holidays with Mrs. Crary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris.

Coach Walter Emerson, of Wake Forest College, and A. G. Ober, of Asheville, have returned after visiting Joe Clayton during the holidays.

Miss Dorothy Neil, of Columbus, Miss., and Miss Lorene York, of the University of Tennessee, were holiday guests of Miss Margaret Lyerly.

Mrs. W. R. Lyerly will leave the last of the week to spend two weeks with her son, W. R. Lyerly, Jr., in Charlotte.

Mrs. Carrol Kilpatrick has been very ill with flu for the past ten days. Miss Juanita Sprinkle, county home demonstration agent, has returned to Brevard after an absence of several weeks from the county.

Mr. Pat Kimzey has returned from a visit to Reidsville and Greensboro. Mr. and Mrs. Obie Fisher, of Lake Toxaway, were guests of Mrs. Fisher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Coren, during the Christmas holidays.

Friends of Mr. Alfred Zachary are glad to know of his recovery from a very serious attack of the flu.

M. D. Harden, of Tuckaseegee, former teacher of the Rober school, spent Christmas holidays with friends at Brevard, Quebec and Selma. Mr. Judson Coren being among the Brevard friends visited.

Miss Myrtle Bryson is seriously ill with flu at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Bryson.

Little Miss Shirley Mae Zachary was the guest of Miss Donave Coren Monday.

"Pa, did you go to Sunday school when you were a boy?"

"Yes, my son. I always went to Sunday school."

"Well, Dad, I think I'll quit going—it ain't doin' me any good either."
