

Rosman Section of Brevard News

MRS. JORDAN WHITMIRE, Manager---Rosman, N. C.

DR. OWEN LOCATED AT PICKENS-EASLEY

Dr. J. C. Owen, returned missionary from China, has accepted a call as pastor of Pickens and Easley First Baptist churches.

Dr. Owen, for the past year was pastor of a Baptist church in Greenville. He was a missionary to China for eleven years, giving up the work when his health gave way, being forced to return to America. Dr. Owen is a native of Transylvania and is a brother of Mrs. Joe Galloway of Rosman.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Helen, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Summey, enjoyed a party last Wednesday afternoon, it being the occasion of her ninth birthday. Those present for the occasion were Miss Lucile Dryman, Hilda Galloway, Edith Powell, Hazel Moore, Janet Volrath, Geneva Petit, Connie Whitmire, Margaret Glazener, Jesse Whitmire, Louis, Inez, Henry and Johnny Summey. During the afternoon games were played. Apples, popcorn balls, cake and lemonade were served. Many useful gifts were received by Helen and the little guests all went away wishing her many more happy events of like nature.

McCALL-PRICE

Coming as a surprise to the people of Gloucester and Rosman sections was the announcement of the marriage of Mr. Clarence McCall and Miss Mary Jane Price, the marriage having taken place several months ago.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Booth Price. She is a very charming and attractive young lady of the blond type. She graduated from Rosman High school last spring and has been attending school at Cullowhee State Normal for sometime.

Mr. McCall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Will McCall of Gloucester, and is a very promising young man.

After spending several days in South Carolina they will make their home with Mr. McCall's father for a short time. Later they will make their permanent home in Winston-Salem.

The community joins in wishing for the young couple a long life filled with happiness and prosperity.

GLOUCESTER ITEMS

Coming as a surprise to their many friends, was the marriage of Mr. Clarence McCall and Miss Mary Jane Price, the marriage having taken place several months ago.

Mr. Booth Price has purchased a new radio.

Mr. Glenn Owen and Dudley Fisher were Rosman visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Price were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Golden of Quebec, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Woodring visited the former's brother, Mr. Walter Woodring this week.

Mr. A. J. Aiken has returned home after a week's visit in Jackson county, where he visited his brother, John, who has been very ill, but is improving.

Messrs. Fred Chapman and L. C. Hall spent Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Price.

Miss Bessie Owen spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Owen. She is staying at Rosman and attending school.

A number of our boys and girls enjoyed a picnic at the marshmallow toast last Friday evening.

The following were in the party: Mr. and Mrs. Harlowe McCall and son Vernice, L. C. and J. B. Hall, Annie and Pearl Price, Homer, Reba, and Bessie Owen Lois and Almond Hall.

Hilda Galloway spent last Sunday with Helen and Inez Summey.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Volrath, on January 8th, a son, "Herbert Hoover."

ROSMAN LOCALS

Sheriff John Craig and B. B. LaBoon and Joe Finley of Pickens, were Rosman visitors Sunday.

Mr. Freeman Whitmire of Middle Fork was a business visitor to Rosman Monday.

Messrs Bud and Bob Mosley of Pickens, were Rosman visitors Sunday.

Miss Azilee Owen of Greensboro College, Greensboro, N. C., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Owen.

Messrs Baxter Fitzgerald, Jack Fitzgerald, Wash Fisher, Mrs. Lee R. Fisher and Mrs. W. J. Moore were Brevard visitors Saturday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Powell, Friday, January 30, a daughter, Vera Mae.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Glazener and children, Charles, Thomas and Ruby were Brevard visitors Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrell McGaha have moved from Rosman Theatre to house owned by D. H. Winchester, known as the Duff Glazener house.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Galloway and daughters Ethel and sister, Miss Ida Nicholson, spent Sunday at Sapphire as guests of Mrs. Galloway's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Nicholson.

Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Ruffy, Mrs. C. J. Eldridge, Mrs. W. I. Reece were Brevard visitors Saturday.

Mrs. F. O. Thomas spent Tuesday visiting her niece, Mrs. Thomas Morrison.

Miss Dana Lanning of Glenville, spent the week-end with Miss Ola Paxton.

Mr. L. W. Chapman was a business visitor to Brevard Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Mitchell and children were Asheville visitors Saturday.

Messrs J. B. Rogers, Elmus Barrett and Walter Rogers were Asheville visitors Monday.

Miss Lucile Dryman spent the week-end at her home at Chandler.

Mrs. Cos Paxton of Greenville, was a Rosman visitor Monday.

Mr. Harold Norwood of Brevard, was a business visitor to Rosman on Monday.

Messrs Harry Scott, E. A. Glazener and son Claud, were Brevard visitors Saturday. Mr. Grady Galloway had as his guest Saturday night, Mr. Wash Fisher.

Mr. L. E. Powell and daughter, Carrie, were Brevard visitors Saturday.

Mr. Olin Conner of Brevard was a Rosman visitor Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Sentelle and children, Lyle and Opal and Mrs. R. S. Winchester spent Sunday at Brevard as guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Raxter.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Moore have returned from their honeymoon trip to South Carolina.

Mr. Paul Kellar of Brevard, was a Rosman visitor Sunday.

Mr. Lionel Wilson of Robbinsville and Mr. L. P. Wilson of Brevard, were guest Friday of Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Whitmire.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad Miller of Seneca, S. C., spent Friday night as guests of Mrs. A. M. Paxton.

Mr. Rufus Price of Mt. Sterling, N. C., and Mrs. L. A. White and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dzomba, Clarence, Otto and Anderson Price of Akron, Ohio, visited their aunt, Mrs. C. R. Clarke, last week.

Mr. J. C. Galloway of Brevard, visited his mother, Mrs. Sarah Galloway, last Thursday.

Mrs. Paul Rogers and children, who spent last week visiting relatives in Salem, have returned home.

Mrs. J. R. Mahoney, who has been ill, is much improved.

Messrs Chas. Jones and J. E. White spent the week-end with their families in Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Alexander and children of Lake Toxaway, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Barrett.

Miss Berdell Henderson spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henderson at Quebec.

Mr. L. E. Powell and children were guests Sunday of Mrs. H. A. Orr near Brevard.

Miss Emma Bell spent Saturday in Brevard and while there attended teachers' meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Burnette of Tryon, spent the week-end with the latter's brother, Mr. G. C. McClure.

Miss Eva Pharr is ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pharr.

Mrs. A. M. Paxton, who has been very ill, is much improved.

Mrs. T. P. Galloway of Calvert, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee R. Fisher, Sunday.

Misses Ola Paxton and Dana Lanning were Brevard visitors Saturday and while there attended teachers' meeting.

The Rosman Sunbeam Band will meet in Miss Rosa Sumerel's school room at the Grammar school building Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 13, at 3:30 o'clock. All members are requested to attend.

Mrs. Vess Galloway was a Rosman visitor last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Burton and Mrs. Norma Padgett visited their aunt, Miss Sallie Whitmire, last Monday.

Miss Ada Galloway spent last Sunday afternoon with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Culwell Galloway.

Mr. Paul Volrath made a business trip to Pickens one day last week.

Mrs. G. C. McClure spent an afternoon recently with Mrs. W. H. Summey.

Mr. McDaniel Winchester, who has been ill with flu, is much improved.

Mr. Welch Galloway had as his

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS WITH MRS. McCLURE

The Women's Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. G. C. McClure February 4, with fourteen members and one visitor present. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. McClure.

"Work for the Night is Coming" was the opening hymn, after which Mrs. W. E. Hall, Mrs. Ed Jones and Mrs. McClure each read short passages from the Bible. A duet was rendered by Mrs. W. R. Lewis and Mrs. McClure; readings by Mrs. J. F. Corbin and Mrs. Freeman Hayes and prayer offered by Mrs. W. E. Ruffy, after which the personal service report was given by Mrs. L. M. Watkins.

Mrs. J. F. Corbin was added as a new member. The meeting adjourned with a prayer by Mrs. W. E. Hall, to meet again Feb. 18th.

guest Saturday night Mr. Arthur Dishman of Lake Toxaway.

Messrs Obie and Oscar Moore and Oliver Galloway visited Mr. and Mrs. Jule Anders, Sunday.

Mr. Carl Hogton of Sylva, spent the week-end with Mr. A. M. Paxton, Jr.

Mr. C. R. Clarke and Mr. Dzomba of Akron, Ohio, were business visitors in Asheville Saturday.

Mr. J. F. Corbin, agriculture teacher, spent the week-end in Salisbury, N. C.

Mrs. C. R. Clarke was a Brevard visitor Saturday.

Miss Ethel Curlee of Brevard, spent Saturday night as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Passmore.

Mr. J. E. Aiken of Greenville, S. C., was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Powell, Sunday.

Messrs Wade Chastain and W. R. Price of Pickens, were Rosman visitors Saturday.

Mr. A. O. Kitchen was a Hendersonville visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Amos McCall of Gloucester, was a Rosman visitor Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Winchester and children, D. H. Jr. and Stanley were guests Sunday of the former's brother, Mr. Leo Winchester, at Calvert.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Jackson of West Asheville, have moved to Rosman. Mr. Jackson lived in Rosman when he was a boy.

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Owen of Pickens, visited the former's sister, Mrs. Joe Galloway, here Saturday.

Miss Mae Rogers of Salem, who spent several days visiting relatives and friends in Rosman returned to her home Saturday.

Messrs William Jameson and Tom Mahoney spent Friday night at Seneca.

"Grandma" Kellar and son, Rev. G. E. Kellar, attended church services Saturday night and Sunday in Brevard.

Mr. Marvin Edney was called to Cashiers Friday on account of the illness of his wife, Mrs. Edney.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonzo Morgan of Brevard, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rogers.

Miss Ida Nicholson left Monday for Brevard for a visit of a few days to her niece, Mrs. Ed Wilson.

Mrs. R. F. Glazener and Mrs. Freeman Hayes were Brevard visitors Sunday.

Mr. Wallace Collins and sister, Ella Mae, had their tonsils removed at Rosman hospital Friday, and are recovering nicely.

Mrs. Sarah Galloway and granddaughter, Miss Alma, spent Saturday night as the guests of the former's son, Mr. J. C. Galloway, at Brevard.

Mrs. Baxter Summey and Mrs. Grady Kilpatrick of Brevard, visited Mrs. M. M. Bryant Tuesday.

Mr. Wade Nicholson of Oakland, has accepted a position with Rosman Tanning Extract company.

Mrs. M. C. Sumerel, Miss Ida Mae Armstrong and Miss Rosa Sumerel were Brevard visitors Saturday.

Mr. Elijah Crow of Salem, spent the week-end visiting friends in Rosman.

Mr. J. C. Murray of Long View, Washington, who spent last week in Rosman visiting relatives, is spending this week at Quebec as guest of his sister, Mrs. Johnnie Whitmire.

Mr. H. E. Guyer of Middle Fork was a Brevard visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Curlee and children of Brevard, spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Passmore.

Mrs. Hubert Edens and daughter, Frances, and Miss Willie Cantrell were Brevard visitors Saturday.

Mr. Richard Whitmire was a Lake Toxaway visitor Sunday.

Mr. W. I. Reece has purchased a new Ford.

Mr. Dick Roland of Pickens, was a business visitor to Rosman Saturday.

Miss Mildred Watkins and Miss Eugenia Nelson and Mr. J. B. Rogers were guests Sunday night of Mrs. Robert Zachary at Lake Toxaway.

Miss Alma Galloway was a guest of Miss Belle Fisher Friday night.

Miss Ethel Raxter, a student of Rosman school was called to the home of her parents Wednesday on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. James Raxter, near Brevard.

Mr. Frank Fields has returned to Rosman after a few days visit to his family in Asheville.

Mr. Cole Pangle has purchased a Chevrolet car.

Messrs Dick White and Buster Passmore were Calvert visitors Friday.

Mr. John Clarke made a business trip to Brevard Saturday.

Mr. Carl Galloway of Gloucester, visited his daughter, Miss Alma, last Friday.

Mr. Ernest Pangle made a business trip to Hendersonville Monday to

SCHOOL NEWS

(By EUGENIA NELSON)

The Senior English club presented an interesting program in study hall Friday morning. The topic was Shakespeare. Following exercises were given:

Life of Shakespeare, by Oneal Owen.

Shakespeare's Contemporaries, by Lula Reid.

Review on the play "Macbeth," by Girtha Watkins.

England in the time of Queen Elizabeth, by Vera McCall.

England at the present time, by Weldon Galloway.

The A section of the eighth grade had charge of the chapel exercise Friday. They proved some interesting facts by scientific experiments.

The following visited school Friday: Mrs. Jack Eldridge, Mrs. Elam Galloway, Mrs. M. C. Sumerel.

ROSMAN WINS FROM BREVARD INSTITUTE BASKETBALL TEAM

A basketball game was played between Rosman and Brevard Institute on the Brevard High School court last Thursday evening, Rosman winning by the score of 16 to 9. Joe Clayton was referee.

consult Dr. Brackett in regard to treatment on his head. It will be remembered that Mr. Pangle had a mastoid operation several months ago.

Mr. Mark Powell of Middle Fork was a Brevard visitor Saturday.

Mr. Welch Galloway was a Lake Toxaway visitor Sunday.

Miss Alice Hayes of Brevard, was a Rosman visitor Monday.

Mrs. Richard Rice and son were Brevard visitors Tuesday, visiting Mrs. Rice's mother, Mrs. Tom Gillespie.

Rev. W. E. Ruffy had a long hike last Sunday in order to fill his regular appointment at East Fork M. E. church.

Mr. Ruffy has just purchased a new six Chevrolet, but East Fork roads are too bad to try out the new Chevrolet on.

Mr. Jack Fitzgerald is ill at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilkerson, with flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Whitmire were Quebec visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Stophel were Brevard visitors Saturday.

SELICA NEWS

V. B. Waldrop, one of the most prominent citizens of our section, made us glad when he passed by with the road drag Monday. His motto with a few others is, "if four dollars won't make the road better forty will."

Lilue White was ready for the snow Monday night, as he hired a nice lot of wood hauled in Monday afternoon.

Lester Wilson is at home from his work on Trout Creek in Jackson county, on account of the serious illness of his father, Mark Wilson.

Mrs. Ward Breedlove made a pleasant call at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Galloway, visiting Mrs. Floyd Barnes and son Paul, who are spending sometime with Mrs. Barnes' parents.

Mrs. Jeter Barton is visiting at Woodruff, S. C.

Fred McKinna and Ward Breedlove spent Monday morning preparing and stowing wood at Cathey's Creek church. They say no more cold services this winter.

Clarence Whitmire, Tom and Robert McKinna, Bill Duncan, Carlee Mann, Russell Barton took a truck ride to town Friday and carried some nice chickens to sell. They report that the army had a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Carmon Hogsed were at church Sunday. Come ahead, folks, new neighbors are always welcome with a welcome that continues.

Our pastor, Rev. C. C. Reese, preached a splendid sermon from Hebrews 3:7. Text: "Today is a day of Golden Opportunity." The service was enjoyed by a large congregation.

J. P. Whitmire went to Brevard Monday.

Robert Eubanks went out on a mule trading trip last week and reports dull business.

Calvin Stamey is still hauling logs even if most people are afraid of the muddy roads.

Henry McKinna has traded for another house and is going to farm again this year. Men who know, say he is one of the best farmers in our section.

Jim Wilson and Harelus Barton went to Brevard Monday.

Prayer meeting was conducted at Cathey's Creek church Saturday night by Mrs. Julius Lance, 3rd chapter of James being used as scripture base. Next Saturday night the service will be led by Rev. Judson Corn, who will use Matt. 7. Subject: Making use of Heaven.

Sherman Owen of Gloucester, has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Sylvanus McCall.

Adger Capps of Etowah, was in our burg last week.

G. D., small son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey McCall visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McCall, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Elijah Eubanks visited Mrs. Van Waldrop Monday.

Rev. Judson Corn will preach at the county home on the third Sunday at 3 p.m.

Wonder if that old doodle bug called the flu has killed our Lake

PISGAH FOREST NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. John Lyday and children of Penrose, visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Orr Sunday.

Mr. Erwin Mullenax and family of Pickens, spent the week-end with friends in this section.

Mr. Charlie Reese of Boylston, was the dinner guest of Mr. Robert Mackey Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Carter had as their guests Sunday, Mrs. Carter's sister Mrs. Howard and two children Benfield and Pansy, Max and Doris Bird and Mr. George Lance of Mills River.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bryson have moved to Mills River, where Mr. Bryson is engaged in work.

Mr. Harter Campfield has as his guest, Mr. John Fowler of Mills River, who is employed by the Hoosier Engineering company.

Miss Rose Snelson of Brevard, spent Thursday with Miss Hilraed Lewis.

Mrs. Ed Patton is suffering with flu.

Mrs. E. C. Corn was a recent visitor at the home of her brother, Mr. Arthur Sentell, who is seriously ill after a fall at the saw mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Frances Allen were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mackey.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Frady of Brevard, were Sunday guests of Mr. Frady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Frady.

Miss Corrine Sentelle spent Monday

Toxaway correspondent. Wake up, folks and tell us about Dewitt, Charlie, Victor and all the rest.

We wonder how East Fork can hear the returns about those stills. The officers keep their maneuvers secret in our section and we oftentimes wonder if they are playing the part—you do for me and I'll do for you.

We are glad that Patrolman Sims has the nerve to declare he will arrest every one who runs a car without license. We hope he does, as there are cars in the county that have been running for years without a license, unless they have one for 1929.

If the snow does not stop this, we will come again.

day with friends at Brevard High school.

We are sorry to report the death of Mr. J. H. Norris of near here, which sad event occurred Tuesday morning, after a short illness of pneumonia. The deceased was 63 years of age and leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn his loss. Mr. Norris has many friends all over Transylvania county.

Mr. H. Hedrick had as his guests Sunday, Mr. Jim Killian and Mr. Frances Allen.

Mr. Roy Chapman, who is employed at Asheville, spent the week-end with his wife here.

We are sorry to report that Mr. Cornelius Rhodes is suffering with pneumonia.

Miss Jessie Mackey has been on the sick list, also Miss Nancy Jones.

Mrs. Dewey Allison and two children of Plumbranch, S. C., are visiting Mrs. Belle Corn.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Allison of Davidson River were the Sunday guests of Mr. Jim Allison and family.

We are sorry to report that our watchman, Mr. Henry Sexton is ill with flu.

The planing mill started back to its old hum-hum of planing Tuesday. As this is being written, early Monday night, snow is beginning to fall.

Miss Mildred Barnett had as her guests Sunday, Misses Doris Butler, Florine Carter, Annie Leverett and Messrs Waverly Morris, Carl Funk and Tom Leverett.

The fellow who loses his temper always seems to find it again.

"Why go to the ant?" remarked the slugard, "more ants than wanted come to me."

"But surely you didn't look for the escaping gas with a match?" "Ah, but this was a safety match."

"When was the radio first operated in America?" "When Paul Revere broadcast on one plug."

"Have you any thumb tacks?" "No, but I have some finger nails."

"Is that man rich?" "Is he! He's so rich he doesn't know his son's in college."

TO THE CITIZENS OF TRANSYLVANIA COUNTY:

Having been duly elected Constable of Brevard Township, it is my sworn duty to enforce the law. I shall do my best to enforce all laws, more especially those laws relating to prohibition and automobiles.

The following telegram was received by me:

"Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 30, 1929.

"W. L. Wood,
"Constable, Brevard, N. C.
"By all means enforce the law.
(Signed) "Revenue Department,
"Theft Bureau."

This telegram was voluntarily sent me, so you see where my duty lies. I shall play no favorites, as all citizens are equal in the eyes of the law.

Respectfully,

W. L. WOOD, Constable,
Brevard Township

BUY THE FEEDS IN STRIPED SACKS

We Recommend Quaker FUL-O-PEP EGG MASH

(Contains Cod Liver Meal!)

If you want more eggs, and better eggs—eggs that taste better, look better, and get the best price—feed your hens this scientifically correct ration that is recommended by poultry experts. The base of this mixture is fresh, pure oatmeal, nature's most nourishing food. With the oatmeal are blended minerals, proteins, and carbohydrates—just the things a hen needs to make eggs. Start using this great ration now.