GOOD OLD FLORIDA ON TOP OF THE WORLD.

Word is brought here that Florida has "come back" with a vengeance, and is now enjoying the best season that great state has ever known. Many Brevard people have been in that great state, and upon their return give enthusiastic accounts of the big business now going on in Florida.

Mrs. Brown Carr spent a month in St. Petersburg, and says the people there are delighted with the business being done. Hotels and boarding houses are filled, and all winter cottages occupied.

Harry Clark, whose recent marriage occurred in Florida, expressed surprise at the large number of tourists in every town and city visited by him.

Mr. Dick Jennings, owner of Lake Toxaway properties, is now in Brevard, having spent several weeks in Florida previous to coming to Brevard, has told friends here that Florida is enjoying most splendid business.

Other well known people here have visited in Florida during the past few weeks, and all are in one accord on one thing: "Florida has 'come back' and is now in just as good condition, if not better, than ever before."

Brevard people are delighted with these reports, because the prosperity in Florida means much to this section, as so many Floridians have their summer homes in this county that whatever affects Florida has a direct bearing upon this community.

BUILDING AND LOAN MOVEMENT GROWING.

On this Saturday the 41st series of the Brevard Building and Loan association will be opened. This bare statement of fact carries with it a great lesson of thrift and progress. There has been no other way found whereby the average man can own his own home as easily as that plan provided through the Building and Loan association.

Then, too, it is the best systematic saving plan as yet discovered. By weekly or monthly payments, a home can be bought, or an estate created. The local association has done much in building this section, and is growing all the time.

We see nothing to cause excitement in the threat of the North Carolina legislature to place another tax on newspapers. Already we have a state tax to pay, a county tax to pay, a city tax to pay, a state income tax to pay, a federal income tax to pay, a corporation excise tax to pay. What difference will it make to have another little tax or two to pay? Anyhow, most of the newspapers of the state are dying to get to cuss the present legislature out, and this little additional tax will provide the opportunity and excuse for the papers to break the speed limit in giving the legislative members a real bawling out.

On Monday, March 4, President Hoover was inaugurated president of the United States. On Monday, March 11, the pictures of the great event of international importance were shown on the screen at the Clemson Theatre. If that isn't service, then we have failed to learn the proper definition of the word Service.

Wish to goodness the High School and the Elementary school would get their clocks together, and dismiss the students at the noon hour. Patrons who have children in both schools pick up the little ones, drive down to the High School, and wait for that school to dismiss the children at the noon hour.

Two great events just around the corner—say, three, there are:—The town election, opening of the fishing season, and the cry of the umpire—"Play Ball!"

Winter is gone, Spring is here, and all is well. Hugh Pinnix was in town this week, and that is an infallible sign that Spring has arrived.

PLEASE CO-OPERATE WITH US ALL THE TIME.

To Those Having Items and Copy for The Brevard News:

The paper goes to press at noon on Wednesdays. Very little matter can be put into type Wednesday morning, as the last hours are given over to the very latest happenings. Notices of meetings, program, and so on must be in the office Monday—certainly not later than Tuesday morning.

So if your article is not in the paper, remember, please, when you brought or sent it in, and you will know why it couldn't be published. We have only one Linotype machine, and printing so much local news and items from all over the county keeps the machine going constantly from early Monday morning until noon Wednesday on our news alone.

SAYS TO "LAY OFF" THE YOUNG BOYS.

Editor The Brevard News: May I direct a message to the bootleggers and whiskey dealers through your paper?

It is bad enough for bootleggers to sell whiskey to the men of the community.

But when it comes to selling whiskey to the boys of the town the limit of endurance has been reached. If another week-end occurs in this town like last week-end, the mothers of this community are going to organize a "flogging party" and some bootleggers in Brevard are going to be publicly flogged.

A SUFFERING MOTHER FROM CAMP DIRECTOR

Editor The Brevard News: Some time ago I was asked to make a statement, as a camp director, as to whether or not I regarded the Transylvania Hospital an asset to the camps near Brevard. It unquestionably is an asset, and that the directors of Camp Transylvania so regard it is shown by the fact that they state in their catalog that there is an excellent hospital in Brevard, and that the camp uses as its physician the surgeon of this hospital.

I might add that, when I recommend Brevard to families that are looking for a place in the mountains, to spend the summer, I invariably tell them of the first-class hospital service to be obtained there.

Respectfully,
JNO. W. MOORE,
Florence, S. C., March 12.

IN MEMORY OF AMANDA LYDAY

Amanda Lyday was born in Oconee county, South Carolina, ninety years ago and died at her home near Oakland, in Transylvania county, January 21, 1929. The body was laid to rest in the Travelers Rest cemetery, January 23, after the last rites were conducted by Rev. S. R. Reid of the Baptist church, of which the deceased had been a consistent member for more than 70 years.

Mrs. Lyday was a Miss Hudgins before her marriage. At the age of 20 years she was married to Miles Head of Oconee county, South Carolina; to this union one son, W. E. Head now of Oakland, was born. Soon after his birth the father was killed in the War between the States. Three years later Mrs. Head was united in marriage to John Thomas Lyday of Oconee county; to this union four children were born, two sons and two daughters. They are: J. T. Lyday of Rosman; Mrs. J. R. Kinsey of Oakland; Rev. L. M. Lyday, pastor of the First Baptist church at Porterdales, Ga., and Mrs. Sallie Kinsey, deceased.

Father died in Oconee county when we children were small. Soon after this Mother bought a little farm in Transylvania county, on the waters of the Thompson River in Hogback township. On this plot of land we children were brought up and provided for as best our dear Mother could. As I look back over our childhood days I am made to wonder that Mother did as well for us as she did, all things taken into consideration. I thank God for the sweet memory of such a good mother. Our mother continued to live on the above mentioned place until the morning she closed her eyes to the things of this world and opened them to view the things of the glory world, where no sickness, no tears and no death can enter.

For the past 25 years it has been a real pleasure to me to visit the old home in the hills of North Carolina and spend a few days with Mother. And when I came back to my work I always felt that I was better for having had the pleasure of being with her. But she is no longer in the little home by the side of the road watching and waiting for me to come. But thank God she is in a better home and she watches and waits, and by the grace of God some day we will meet again.

Two hands upon the breast
And labor's done,
Two pale feet crossed in rest,
The race is won,
Rest for the toiling hand,
Rest for the anxious brow.

Rest for the weary wayworn feet;
Rest from all labor now.

The Mother's love, there's none so pure,
So constant and so kind,
No human passion doth endure
Like this within the mind.

L. M. LYDAY,
Porterdales, Ga.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. M. M. NICHOLSON

Mrs. M. M. Nicholson closed her eyes to earth and earthly scenes on February 12, 1929.

The passing of one individual has its marked effect upon a certain circle. There were heart-cords well nigh to breaking; a home made motherless; a place made empty that never can be filled.

She had been a faithful consecrated member of the Methodist church since early youth, and was loved and esteemed by all who knew her. She was one who always had a smile or a kind word for all and a frown for none. Hers was a faith that moves onward and upward, looking beyond the petty things of life. So in her passing the loss is ours, but what a glorious gain for her! She was a loving devoted mother, one whose children should rise up and call her blessed. After she had given her youth and best years to her children, in her older days she took an orphaned grandbaby into her heart and home, and has fitted and prepared her for a life of usefulness that will be a living monument to all who helped in shaping and fitting her for service.

Mrs. Nicholson lived to the ripe old age of 79 years, always kind and thoughtful of the need of others, hiding herself behind the cross in doing deeds of love for her Lord and Saviour.

She leaves a feeble companion, a faithful loving daughter, and sons besides the grandchildren to mourn her loss. Others surviving are one sister, Mrs. Wilson, of Anderson, S. C., and one brother, Mr. Daw, of Henderson, Texas.

"One month has passed and gone
Since one we loved so well
Was taken from our home on earth
With Jesus Christ to dwell.

An evergreen sweetly sleeping
Where the flowers gently waver,
Lies the one we loved so dearly
In the cold and silent grave.

The flowers we place upon her grave
Will soon wither and decay,
But the love for her who sleeps beneath
Will never fade away."

A FRIEND.

Listen to East Fork Correspondent

Everybody reads the letter that appears weekly in The Brevard News from East Fork. It is always interesting. Last week the East Fork correspondent said:

We "took in" the inauguration of President Hoover from Washington over our Atwater-Kent. The broadcasting was so plain and clear and the descriptions pictured so vividly we almost rejoiced that we could stay by our firesides and get it all and not be in Washington in the jam and rain.

It makes us happy to have people give such unqualified endorsement to the great
