SOCIETY NEWS

JOINT MEETING IS ENJOYABLE EVENT

One of the most enjoyable and helpful recent gatherings of a social nature, was the joint meeting of the four women's auxiliaries of the different churches of the town which was held in the ladies' parlor of the Methodist church Thursday afternoon with members of the Methodist society hostesses of the occasion. About seventy-five representatives from the different auxiliaries were present at this meeting, including those from the Baptist, Presbyterian, Episcopal and Methodist churches.

Following a short business session, presided over by the president, Mrs. J. B. Picklesimer, in which necessary matters of business were transacted, devotionals were led by Mrs. Ernest Norwood, basing her remarks on the 46th Psalm, the keynote of which was consecration. This was followed by a vocal selection, "I Love a Little Cottage," by Mrs. J. F. Winton, accompanied by Mrs. B. E. Nicholson at the piano. The main feature of the program was the open discussion on the subject of "Daughters," led by Mrs. L. B. Haynes, assisted by Mrs. Laura Miller, Mrs. Hume Harris and Mrs. H. C. Ranson, and participated in by other members and guests present. Problems in the home from a daughter's standpoint were interestingly and helpfully discussed in the different ideas exchanged on this subject.

Following the program, refreshments were served during a social period in which members and guests enjoyed a short time of conversation and fellowship.

HONORS BROTHER ON EVE OF DEPARTURE

Miss Jack Clayton entertained Wednesday evening at her home with a bridge-dance in honor of her brother, Joe Clayton, who left the latter part of the week for Birmingham, Ala., where he will be connected with the Southern League.

Six tables were arranged for play in the rooms which were tastefully decorated with ferns and potted plants.

Miss Dorothy Allen, of Rosman, won high score among the young ladies, while Frank Carr made high score among the gentlemen, and consolation going to Mrs. Rush Whitmire, all of whom were presented with gifts. The guest of honor was presented with an attractive souvenir baseball bat.

At the conclusion of the game an ice course was served, after which the tables were removed and the following guests danced until a late hour: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kyle, Mr. and Mrs. Rush Whitmire, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carr, Mrs. Oliver Cray, Misses Flora Wike, LaVerne Waters, Margaret Miller, Dorothy Allen, Dorothy Lumby, Eva Jo Lockman, Gladys English, Elizabeth Ramsey, Agnes Clayton, Messrs Ruffin Wilkins, Glenn Galloway, Albert Burley Rogers, Joe Clayton.

WEDNESDAY CLUB IN ENJOYABLE MEET

An enjoyable meeting of the Wednesday club was held Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. G. B. Lynch as hostess. Fourteen members were present.

Two letters were read concerning the Citizens Military Training Camp, and one letter from the state president, Mrs. O'Berry, concerning the federation dues.

Mrs. Ethel McMinn was in charge of the program for the afternoon on the subject of Shakespeare's play, "Taming of the Shrew." Mrs. McMinn was assisted by other members of the club who read different parts of the play. Those taking part on the program and the characters they represented included: Mrs. H. E. Perkins, as Christopher Sly, a tinker; Mrs. W. E. Breese, as Baptista, a rich gentleman of Padua; Mrs. Perkins, as Vincentio, an old gentleman of Pisa; Mrs. E. W. Blythe, as Lucentio, son of Vincentio and in love with Bianca; Mrs. P. N. Simons, as Petruchio, a gentleman of Verona, a suitor to Katharina; Mrs. Ed Patton and Mrs. David Ward, as Grumio and Hortensio, suitors to Bianca; Mrs. T. H. Shipman and Mrs. F. P. Sledge, as Tranio and Biondello, servants to Lucentio; Mrs. O. L. Erwin and Mrs. McMinn, as Grumio and Curtis, servants to Petruchio; Mrs. Erwin, as Pedant, an old fellow to personate Vincentio; Mrs. J. M. Allison, as Katharina, the shrew; Mrs. A. H. Kizer, as Bianca, her sister; Mrs. Ed Patton, as the Widow; Mrs. McMinn, as tailor, haberdasher and servants attending on Baptista and Petruchio. The scenes were laid in Padua and in Petruchio's country house.

Following refreshments and a social period, the club adjourned to hold the next meeting at the home of Mrs. A. H. Kizer, with Mrs. Hinton McLeod as program leader, on the subject of Richard III.

MISS JUANITA SPRINKLE WEDS W. PATTON KIMZEY

A wedding of prominence throughout the state was solemnized late Saturday afternoon, when Miss Juanita Sprinkle, of Reidsville, and Mr. William Patton Kimzey, of Brevard, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Sprinkle, in Reidsville. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Marion S. Hyske, pastor of the Reidsville Presbyterian church. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion, the ceremony being performed before an improvised altar of ivy and ferns amid Easter lilies and burning cathedral candles. During the ceremony the appropriate old love song, "Juanita," was softly played.

The bride, who entered on the arm of her father, wore an afternoon gown of pink chiffon and tulle and a picture hat. She carried an arm bouquet of pink rose buds and lilies of the valley. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Robert Kimzey, of Greensboro. About 125 guests were present. Immediately following the wedding, an informal reception was held, the color scheme of pink and green being carried out in the dining room decorations and in the refreshments. Immediately following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Kimzey left for a ten-day motor trip to Florida, after which they will return to Brevard to make their home. Mrs. Kimzey is well known throughout the state, being a graduate of Salem College, after which she taught in several North Carolina schools. She traveled abroad one year. For the past year she has held the office of home demonstrator for Transylvania county. Mr. Kimzey, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kimzey, is a native of Transylvania county, and descended from the old and well known family of Pattons in Western North Carolina. He is a graduate of Brevard High School, Davidson College, and Cumberland Law School, Lebanon, Tenn. He practiced law in both Tennessee and North Carolina, and for the past three years has been a member of the law firm of Hamlin & Kimzey, of Brevard.

JOINT MEETING OF ST. PHILIPS AUXILIARY AND GUILD

Joint meeting of the ladies' auxiliary and guild of St. Philips church was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. L. Erwin.

Mrs. G. E. Orr resigned as president of the guild and Mrs. Harry Perry was elected to fill the vacancy. Mrs. F. P. Sledge conducted a study class on New Africa, which proved very interesting.

After a social period during which a salad course was served, the meeting adjourned until April, to meet with Mrs. Moore at her home in Forest Hills.

MRS. HOLT IS HOSTESS TO CIRCLE MEET

Mrs. Lawrence Holt was hostess to the members of the Sarah Taylor Circle Monday afternoon at the Watermire Hotel. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Thomas Teague, the vice president, in the absence of the president, Mrs. Goode Loftis.

Mrs. Teague was elected delegate to the annual missionary meeting convening in Winston-Salem, April 16-19. Following the reading of the minutes, roll call and paying of pledges, Mrs. Oliver Orr spoke on Better Homes, after which she led in prayer. Mrs. Roland Whitmire read an article on "Water in the broken cup," followed by closing prayer by Mrs. Teague.

Refreshments were served by the hostess at the conclusion of the meeting.

MUSICAL FEATURES ARE ENJOYED

Two musical features of the past week, which were highly enjoyed, were the recitals given by Mrs. P. N. Simons and Mr. Alvin Moore at the home of Mrs. O. L. Erwin, featuring Schubert's Symphony. The first recital was that given before the Brevard Wednesday club on Tuesday afternoon, and the second before the Music Lovers' club Monday afternoon.

Members present on the two occasions expressed themselves as deeply appreciative of the program
