MRS. JORDAN WHITMIRE, Manager

REVIVAL AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

A series of meetings started at the M. E. church Monday night, the pastor, Rev. W. E. Ruffy in charge. It is hoped that, by the cooperation of members and other church people of Rosman, that a successful meeting can be held. A special sermon for young people will be preached next Sunday.

Pastor Founded
One night recently a large number of Rosman citizens, both Methodists and Baptists "pounded" Rev and Mrs. Ruffy with many good things to eat, for which the popular pastor and his wife are very grateful.

SCHOOL NEWS

The regular Friday morning chapel exercise was in charge of the fourth grade. The program consisted of a dialogue, readings and songs.

The following were present for the program, Mrs. Ernest Ruffy and children, Mrs. G. C. McClure, Mrs. Walter Reece and Mrs. H. G. Stophel.

The Senior English class held its regular meeting Friday morning. Those on program were Eugenia Nelson, Weldon Galloway, Girtha Watkins, Pauline Leathers, Mary Etna Fisher and Marjorie Henderson. After the program the club passed on a constitution for the society.

Part of the class games in the tournament have been played. Winners so far are the ninth grade girls and tenth grade boys. These two teams will play the seniors some night this week.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY IN MEETING

The Woman's Missionary Society of Zion Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. G. C. McClure, March 18, with fourteen ladies present. The meeting was opened by singing "Must Jesus Bear the Cross Alone." Prayer by Mrs. McClure. After a short business session, Rev. Wallace Hartsell conducted the devotionals. The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Wallace Hartsell, who gave a thorough and enjoyable report from the State W. M. C. meeting at High Point.

IN MEMORY

On the twenty-eighth day of February, 1929, Mr. Jack Nelson quietly passed away at his home on Middle Fork, from this life to the life beyond this low land of sorrow and pain.

The Lord blessed Mr. Nelson with a long life of service and perfect health. He was always physically strong until about three years ago, when he was stricken down with a stroke of paralysis from which he never regained his normal strength. He was happily married to Miss Sarah Bowen in his early manhood. To them were born thirteen children, eleven of whom are now living to mourn his going. He also leaves a wife and two sisters, one brother to weep for the dear brother and loved companion; they are Mrs. Sarah Nelson, Mrs. J. M. Bowen, Mrs. Ann Galloway and Mr. George Nelson.

The body of the deceased was laid to rest on Friday afternoon, March 1, in the Mt. Moriah cemetery, near Calvert. Rev. W. H. Hartsell of Brevard, conducted the funeral services.

May the Lord add his comfort and blessing to those who mourn, and may each one so live as to meet him on the other side in the land of pure delight.

—E. D. RANDOLPH.

ERNEST PANGLE PAINFULLY HURT IN BASKETBALL GAME

Ernest Pangle, a freshman of Rosman High School, suffered a very painful injury to his foot on the Rosman basketball court last week during a practice game. # GLOUCESTER NEWS

The people of Gloucester certainly should be thankful for the great kindness which the Lord has bestowed upon them in sending the rain to wash out our good roads and then the good old north wind to dry them for us. It certainly is nice to have one great friend like Him, that will work our roads all over and not in spots and patches as some of our road men have been guilty of doing.

Some of our good men have been carrying around a petition to our tax payers to go fifty-fifty with the State to road work in our section, but the tax payers refusing to sign only ask "Where has our tax money gone?" We are sure that all our tax payers would sign a petition to reverse the road law and say six dollars or four days.
