MRS. FRAZIER ENTERTAINS BAPTIST CIRCLE

Mrs. June Frazier entertained the members of the Blanche Barrus Circle of the Baptist church Tuesday afternoon at her home on East Main street. Nine members were present. The program of the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. Lester Martin on the subject of the Negro question. Assisting on the program were Mrs. Eck Sims, Mrs. J. E. Ruffy and Mrs. R. S. Terry. The hostess served refreshments at the conclusion of the program, after which adjournment was made until the second Tuesday in April, to meet at the home of Mrs. Sims.

EPWORTH LEAGUERS ENJOY PICNIC

About thirty members of the Epworth League enjoyed a picnic and weiner/roast Monday evening at Glen Cannon Falls. A huge camp fire, around which was cooked the bountiful picnic supper, were enjoyable features of the evening's pleasures. A thoroughly enjoyable time was reported by the young people in attendance.

WEDNESDAY CLUB IN REGULAR MEETING

Regular meeting of the Brevard Wednesday club was held on the afternoon of the 20th at the home of Mrs. A. H. Kizer, with thirteen members and one guest present. Included in the routine business was the reading of several letters and the transaction of other matters pertaining to the club work. The program for the afternoon on the subject of Richard III was in charge of Mrs. H. E. Perkins, who read character sketches and the story of the play.

Following a social period and refreshments the club adjourned to meet on April 3rd at the home of Mrs. P. N. Simons, with Mrs. T. H. Shipman in charge of the program on the subject of The Tempest.

MISS WEAVER IS HONORED WITH BIRTHDAY PARTY

The Home Economics class of the Brevard High school entertained with a surprise birthday party Wednesday evening in the department's class rooms, honoring the teacher, Miss Weaver.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with crepe paper and spring flowers. After many games were enjoyed, delicious refreshments were served by Gladys Wood, Margaret Bryson and Lavada Orr. Included in the guest list were members of the High School faculty and of the class, as follows: Prof. J. B. Jones, J. A. Glazener, Coach Tilson, Mr. Wilke, Miss Lockman, Miss Russell, Mrs. Coldwell, Miss Wannamaker, Miss Keels, of the faculty, and Gladys Wood, Bronna Sharp, Lois Byrd, Essie Norton, Mildred Whitmire, Evelyn McIntosh, Dixie Jones, Margaret Bryson, Mildred McCall, Ethel Lane and Lavada Orr.

DOROTHY POOLE HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Little Dorothy Poole celebrated her fifth birthday Tuesday afternoon with a party and Easter egg hunt at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Poole, on West Main street.

In addition to the enjoyable egg hunt, other games were played by the little tots on the lawn. The little baskets were filled with candy and Easter eggs delighted the children. Many pretty birthday remembrances were received by the little hostess. Cake and lemonade were served to the twenty children present on this occasion.
