

OAKLAND NEWS

Rev. E. R. Pendleton was a pleasant visitor in our village last week. While here, he, with our teacher, made several calls. Mr. Pendleton says he wants to know the folks better with whom he works.

Mrs. Annie Reid visited Miss Henderson and her pupils at school last week. While she has no children attending at Oakland, she seems interested in the home school.

Those present at Oakland School Friday of last week enjoyed the splendid talks given by Mr. Orr, of Brevard, and Rev. Mr. Ruffy, of Rosman. We were delighted to have with us also Mrs. Orr and Mrs. Ruffy and her two little daughters.

The school children enjoyed an egg hunt Friday afternoon. Alleen Fisher won first prize and Grace Bryson second for finding the most eggs. This fun was cut short by the arrival of the school bus that some of the children had to leave on.

Miss Marian Henderson left immediately after school closed for a week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Henderson, at their home near Brevard.

Mr. Raymond English was calling in our village Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Effie Reid and Mrs. David Miller were among friends at Oakland Friday.

We are glad to know Mr. T. E. Reid, of Brevard, is able to visit the folks again.

Mrs. Myra Scruggs, of Brevard, spent a few hours last week with her sister, Mrs. E. A. Reid.

Mr. Otto Alexander, teacher at Old Toxaway, and two of his friends of that section were calling at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Chappell Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Burgess and daughter, Brevard, called on their aunt, Mrs. Lee F. Norton, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Ola Sanders and daughter, Ewaund, and son, Lane, spent Saturday evening with Mrs. C. W. Fisher and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Tull Glazener, formerly of this county, but now of West Virginia, and Mr. and Mrs. Plato Scruggs and son, of Brevard, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Reid and son, Leo.

Little Kile Galloway spent a pleasant hour with his little cousins, C. W. Fisher and Lane Sanders, Sunday.

Let everybody remember the service at Lake Toxaway Baptist Church next Sunday. Preaching will be at

SAM B. CRAIG

Attorney-at-Law
MASONIC TEMPLE
PICKENS, S. C.

Office Phone 39 — Res. Phone 18

PENROSE NEWS

Well, as spring has arrived a bit ahead of schedule time, and birds are coming back from their winter resorts I suppose it is time for groundhogs to come out of their hibernating quarters and bask in the glorious sunny weather, so here comes the Penrose groundhog.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Ledford of Gastonia and Randall Lyday of N. C. State College are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Lyday, during the Easter holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Wootin of Campobello, S. C., visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Williams, last week.

Mrs. Joe Lyday visited her mother in West Asheville last week, returning Sunday.

Mrs. V. M. Owenby is also on the sick list. Her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery.

The marriage of Mr. Huston Mackey and Mrs. Daisy Allison came as quite a surprise to us all. They have our best wishes for a long and happy life.

Mrs. Wade Anderson and family of Pickens, S. C., and Mr. W. C. Nicholson and family of Etowah spent Easter Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Surrette.

Arnold Williams has taken over the Nason Service Station at Davidson River and will run it this summer.

Rev. Joe Mason will preach at Enon Church the second Sunday in April. We hope all who possibly can, will come out to hear him. The preaching hour will be at 11 a. m. Our pastor, Rev. W. W. Marr, will preach at 11 a. m. next Sunday.

A very pleasant surprise was given to Mr. and Mrs. Z. B. Jackson Sunday in celebrating his 68th birthday. He didn't know anything was going to happen until his yard was crowded with people from various places.

A picnic dinner was served, and to say it was a fine dinner is but describing it very mildly. Everything possible to make it a pleasant occasion was brought into play. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Gedwin Vaughn of Asheville, J. D. Dermid of Asheville, Mrs. Junie Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hoots and family, Roy Justus, Austin Newman of Dana, N. C.

Mrs. Edgar Garren and family of Hendersonville, L. H. Hudson and family of West Asheville, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Duckett of West Asheville, Glover Jackson of Brevard, Miss Dorothy Gaston of Asheville, and Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Lyday of Penrose. All went home feeling fine and wishing Mr. Jackson many happy returns of the day.

The rainy winter put all us farmers behind with our work on the farm but we are doing all we can to redeem the time during these bright sunny days. Now Bollston, I am back in line so pinch yourself and see if you are awake. If you are come on with your news.

3 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. E. R. Pendleton.

The many friends of Mr. R. J. Galloway, of Glennville, will be sorry to know that he is in very bad health this spring.

Mr. Sylvannus Sanders and his brother visited old Uncle Henry Miller Sunday, and reports the old man getting very feeble.

The many friends of L. C. Sanders, of Lake Toxaway, will be sorry to know he left for New York last week for an indefinite stay.

CALVERT NEWS

P. A. Morgan and family visited relatives in South Carolina Sunday. Miss Mamie Hayes gave her school children an Easter egg hunt at the home of Mrs. T. P. Galloway Friday afternoon.

Arthur Whitmire and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Whitmire Sunday.

Mrs. F. Paxton is very sick at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hogsd had as their dinner guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Glazener of Brevard.

Prof. W. R. Burnette of Hayesville, Miss Myrtle Whitmire, Mr. Paul Stroup, Mrs. Susan Morgan of Cherryfield, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Morgan Sunday.

Mrs. J. V. Gillespie spent the day with her mother, Mrs. Morris of Cherryfield last Wednesday.

Mrs. Temple Whitmire was a dinner guest of Mrs. E. C. Glazener Tuesday.

Roy Waldrop, who has had his tonsils removed, is slowly improving. Clemson Garren and family were South Carolina visitors Sunday.

Judd Plot is home spending Easter with his family.

Mrs. Rena Aiken of Cherryfield spent Friday with Mrs. F. Paxton.

Miss Ollie Perry and Miss Alza Hogsd were shopping in Brevard Thursday afternoon.

DAVIDSON RIVER

People in this section seem to be busy planting gardens.

Mr. Joe Heath spent Sunday night at the home of Mr. V. McGatha.

Mr. Orrian Ramer and Miss Mary Sherell were married Sunday in Brevard. We wish for them much joy and a long happy life.

A party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ramer, Mr. and Mrs. Sherell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sherell, Mr. and Mrs. Narvan Ramer, Mr. and Mrs. Orrian Ramer, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Allison went on a picnic Sunday in the Pisgah National Forest. All reported a nice time.

Mrs. Henry Sentell and Mrs. Lillie Parker were visitors at the home of Mrs. Edna Strickland Friday afternoon. Mrs. Strickland has been very sick the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Picklesiner and children were Balfour visitors Sunday.

Misses Mildred and Julia Barton were visitors at the home of Mrs. McGatha Sunday afternoon.

Miss Nellie Wilson is on the sick list.

Mrs. Bates Patton was a visitor at the home of Mrs. Strickland recently.

We are very sorry to hear Mr. John Patton is suffering with rheumatism.

The children of the 3rd grade enjoyed an egg hunt Friday afternoon, given by their teacher, Miss Flora Lyday.

We were very sorry to hear Mr. Isaac Hamet is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. George Norris were visitors at the home of Mr. Barton recently.

CHERRYFIELD NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Taft Owens and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Glazener of Rosman spent Easter with Mr. Owen's parents at Cherryfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Galloway were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gillispie Sunday.

Mrs. Bessie McCarter and Mrs. A. H. Gillespie visited Mrs. J. R. Whitmire and Mrs. L. W. Brooks Friday last.

Mrs. J. N. Morris spent the week end with her daughter, Mrs. J. V. Gillespie.

Mrs. Eli Huggins and Mrs. Mary Garren spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. A. H. Gillespie.

We are glad to know Roy Waldrop has recovered after an operation of having his tonsils removed.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Allison visited Mrs. J. C. Whitmire Sunday afternoon.

J. L. Waldrop and family spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Waldrop's sister, Mrs. Lester Wilson of Selma.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon McCall of Pirkens, S. C. were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McCall Sunday.

Mrs. Rena Aiken spent Thursday as the guest of Mrs. Bessie McCarter.

Ruth Whitmire of Mars Hill College spent last week-end with her parents at Cherryfield.

The children of the primary and intermediate grades of the Sunday School enjoyed a delightful egg hunt Sunday afternoon.

Our pastor, W. S. Price, conducted the Easter Service Sunday morning with an appropriate sermon text, "He is Not Here, But Arisen." A good attendance, with a number of visitors from other communities, was present.

Subscribe for The News
— $2.00 per year.

THE RIGHT WAY TO TRAVEL is by train. The safest. Most comfortable. Most reliable. Costs less. Inquire of Ticket Agents regarding greatly reduced fares for short trips. SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM

WHY BOTHER YOURSELF

We'll take your subscription for any Magazine or Newspaper, at regular price. Saves you the worry and postage.

WARD'S BARBER SHOP
and
News Stand Phone 54

PISGAH FOREST NEWS

The farmers of this section do not know whether to give up to a bad case of spring fever or go to work and do their spring duties. We're all afraid the present warm days will make mischief.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chapman and Mrs. Sam Wyatt motored to Asheville Sunday.

Mr. Henry Boggs of Spartanburg is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lyday.

A large crowd from this section attended the home-coming days at Balfour Sunday. An enjoyable time was reported.

Miss Mary Louise Croushorn, who is attending school in Asheville, spent the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Croushorn.

Mrs. J. A. Colburn has returned home after spending the winter in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Milas Marcum have moved from their home in Toxaway and are now occupying the Hall residence.

The baseball team held the first practice of the season and many stiff arms are in evidence.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mackey had as their guests Saturday Mr. Lee Scruggs and Tom English of Boylston.

Mrs. J. A. Colburn had as her week-end guests Mrs. Carl Morris and two daughters of Asheville, and Mrs. T. C. Kennon and Miss Rose Snelson of Brevard.

Mrs. Bert Alexander of Silver Creek was the recent visitor of Mrs. W. A. Lyday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. McMahon have moved into our section.

Friends in this section were surprised to learn of the marriage of Miss Mary Sherril and Mr. Orrian Ramer of Davidson River. This community joins in wishing them much success and happiness.

LAND SALE BY TRUSTEES

Default having been made in payments due as set out in Deed in Trust executed by Fred Harris and wife to the undersigned trustees for Union Bank & Federal Trust Company, which deed in trust is registered in Book 16 at Page 532 Deed in Trust Records of Transylvania County, N. C., and the default not having been made good, the undersigned trustees will sell to the highest bidder for cash at the court house door in the Town of Brevard, N. C., on Mon. May 6th, 1929 at 12 o'clock M., all that real estate known as the Fred Harris property, lying in the Town of Brevard, N. C., on Rice Street, and fully described in the Book and at Page above referred to, to which reference is hereby made for full description of the lands and premises to be sold.

Sale made to satisfy the indebtedness, cost and expenses of sale.

This the 28th day of March, 1929.

WELCH GALLOWAY, Trustees.
L. E. JOHNSON, April 4-11-18-25.

SPRING IS HERE

April showers are again reviving the signs of springtime. The birds have returned from their southern sojourn, and all nature is ready to burst forth with renewed life.

This renewal of energy in nature is also evident in each individual's life in the springtime. Your spirits are light. You are happy to be alive.

You will be still happier if you have the satisfaction of maintaining an account with the Brevard Banking Company, and know that their co-operation is behind you.

Brevard Banking Company

4% PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNT

Officers

THOS. H. SHIPMAN, Pres. JOS. S. SILVERSTEEN, V. Pres.
ANNIE L. SHIPMAN, Cashier J. I. CRAWFORD, Asst Cashier
N. A. MILLER, Asst Cashier R. J. DUCKWORTH, Asst Cashier

Directors

W. S. ASHWORTH THOS. H. SHIPMAN J. M. ALLISON
R. W. EVERETT W. M. HENRY C. C. YONGUE

Seed Irish Potatoes for Sale

300 bushels grown from certified seed selected.

Cash or on time.

THOS. H. SHIPMAN

Smart women choose Gordon V-Line Hosiery because, by lightly accenting the natural shadows of the heel, it gives an effect of lovely contour to the ankle. A new thought in hosiery, but so beautifully, inevitably right that fastidious women will always wear it.

Exclusive Gordon colors to harmonize with the season's fabric tones and smart new shoes. In children or sheer-service weight, the V-Line is $2.50.

MORRIS
Footwear
DEPARTMENT
AT PUSHELL'S

Ottsie Bird Wash Dresses!

Fast Colors - Dainty - Service-able - Popular - Good Economical at $1.95

Other Wash Dresses

98c $1.29 $1.69

Pushell's Dept. Store
Main Street