PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY HAS INTERESTING MEETING

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church, in accordance with its usual custom, celebrated its birthday anniversary at the Hut Thursday afternoon by presenting a most attractive pageant, "Hands Across the Rio Grande."

The Hut was artistically decorated with flowers and draperies, carrying out the color scheme of Mexico's national colors, red, white and green, while the Mexican and American flags hung side by side. Under the supervision of the Auxiliary's most efficient president, Mrs. P. N. Simons, this pageant, a pathetic appeal from our Mexican sisters, stirred every heart present and inspired a desire to help break the shackles of ignorance which still bind these unfortunate people.

Mrs. Simons, at the piano, played softly the Mexican national anthem, while eight young ladies with the assistance of three older members of the Auxiliary presented the theme in a most touching manner. The appeal was in behalf of two mission schools of Mexico, Zitacuaro and Chilpancingo, to which the generous birthday offering will be immediately sent.

The characters in the pageant were as follows: Mrs. L. M. Hart, as Mrs. William A. Ross, the missionary at Mexico City; Miss Lelia Stewart, principal of Zitacuaro school; Mrs. T. H. Shipman, principal of Chilpancingo school; Hinton McLeod, Juan, the gardener.

Mexican girls from the two schools were represented as follows: Mrs. Jerry Jerome as Esther Benitez; Mrs. Arthur Harrell as Amelia Alvarez; Miss Huarda Garcia as Sara Pacheco; Miss Lena Allison as Amanda Maranjo; Miss Dorothy Fetzer as Raquel Reina; Miss Mary Allison as Leonor Reyes; Miss Henrietta Simard as Elena Macais; Miss Margaret Lyerly as Evangeline Rodriguez.

MISS AVERY HONORS COUSIN WITH PARTY

Miss Nadine Avery entertained with a party Saturday afternoon at her home, honoring her cousin, Miss Zebbie Grooms.

Enjoyable games were played, after which ice cream and cake was served.

Those present to enjoy the occasion were: Elizabeth McCoy, Rebecca Patton, Belle Frady, Reba Nicholson, Virginia Cansler, Zebbie Grooms, Nadine Avery, Thelma and Helen Daniels, Roger Cansler, James Avery and Sonny Carr.

BREVARD BOY WEDS KENTUCKY YOUNG LADY

Barbourville (Ky) News
Mrs. Sallie B. Seent announces the marriage of her daughter, Caroline to Mr. William Burrel Daniels, April the twenty-eighth, nineteen hundred twenty-nine, Richmond, Va.

Mrs. Daniels is the second daughter of Mrs. Sallie B. Seent of this city. She is a graduate of the Barbourville High School and spent two years in the University of Kentucky, Lexington, and has held a responsible position as teacher in the Barbourville high school for the past four years. Mr. Daniels is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Daniels of Brevard, N. C. Mr. Daniels came to Barbourville two years ago and established the Barbourville Battery Co., of which he is owner and manager.

The young couple were accompanied to Richmond by the bride's sister, Miss Blanche Seent. The wedding took place at the home of Rev. J. H. Strother, the impressive Episcopal ceremony being used. Mr. and Mrs. Daniels are temporarily located at the home of the bride's mother on Depot street.

JOINT MEETING OF EPISCOPAL AUXILIARY AND GUILD

Joint meeting of the Auxiliary and Guild of St. Philips church was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. David Ward, with Mrs. H. N. Carrier as hostess. Upon acceptance of the resignation of Mrs. Harry Perry as president of the Guild, Mrs. David Ward was elected to the office of president.

Prior to the Guild meeting, the Auxiliary session was held, at which time several matters of business pertaining to the organization were transacted. Mrs. O. L. Erwin reported that a missionary box valued at $23 had been sent to a mission school in McMullin county, Virginia. It was voted to send an additional $10 to the general mission fund. Several committee chairmen were appointed, including Mrs. Harry Perry as chairman of the altar Guild, and Mrs. J. S. Silversteen as chairman of the calling committee for the month of May. A discussion was held as to the advisability of combining the Auxiliary and Guild into one organization, but it was decided to continue as formerly and give all missionary money as free will offerings. The organization voted to cooperate in any possible way in making Hospital Day a success.

MRS. CARRIER ENTERTAINS WEDNESDAY CLUB

Fifteen members of the Brevard Wednesday club and four guests were entertained on the afternoon of May 1 by Mrs. H. N. Carrier at her home, Rockbrook.

Included in the routine business was the reading of a letter from Mrs. Morris, of the Asheville Moonlight school, thanking the club for its donation of $2.00 toward the literacy fund. The club voted to pledge $10 toward Transylvania Hospital on Hospital Day.

The program for the afternoon, in charge of Mrs. D. G. Ward, was on the subject of the Merchant of Venice. Mrs. J. S. Silversteen told in an interesting manner the story of the play and something of its history.

Refreshments were served during the social period, after which adjournment was made until May 15 to meet with Mrs. E. W. Blythe, with Mrs. F. P. Sledge as program leader.

W. M. U. OF BAPTIST CHURCH HAS MEETING

May meeting of the W. M. U. of the Baptist church was held Tuesday afternoon in the church parlors.

An interesting program on the subject of Christianity's Contribution to World Progress was in charge of Mrs. Thomas Dodsworth, assisted by other members.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Roy Long. Plans were discussed and perfected for the all-day Associational meeting to be held at the local church on May 15.

METHODIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS

Regular meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church was held in the ladies' parlor of the church Thursday afternoon.

Matters of routine business were transacted, after which devotionals were led by the president, Mrs. J. B. Pickelsimer. Mrs. Cordia King was in charge of the program, reading a paper on matters pertaining to problems in the home. A very interesting report was given by Mrs. A. H. Houston on the recent meeting of the annual missionary convention of Western North Carolina, which convened in Winston-Salem, Mrs. Houston representing the local society at this meeting.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT OF INTEREST HERE

The following engagement announcement in Sunday's Charlotte News will be of interest to many people in Brevard and elsewhere.

"Joseph Lee Choate, of Huntersville and this city, announces the engagement of his daughter, Willie, to Walter Durham Hampton. The wedding will be a lovely event of June."

Mr. Hampton, the son of T. H. Hampton, of Brevard, is well known in this community, where he is born and raised, and has many friends.

OAKLAND NEWS

The Oakland school closed last week and the children were disappointed for it poured down rain all morning and knocked them out of their picnic trip, although they enjoyed a treat by their teacher at the school house. The closing exercises were good and prizes were given to the following children: Lane Sanders got a prize for being the best boy in school. Claud Nicholson and Frank Chappell were given prizes for not missing a day the entire eight months. We think the boys deserve more honor, for they were not expecting prizes, but their teacher thought they should be rewarded.

Miss Marion Henderson has left our village for her home near Brevard. We wish for her a pleasant and restful vacation.

Miss Bertie Burgess will be leaving soon she says for Detroit, Mich. She will join her uncles, Gus and Willie Galloway.

Otto Alexandre returned to his home here after his school closed at Old Toxaway.

Mrs. Waite Reid and children are home since the close of Brevard high school.

Misses Evann Sanders and Alene Fisher visited Miss Myrtle McCall, Friday afternoon.

Leo Reid had a shower of company one day last week. We think about four young ladies called on him in one day. How is that for popularity?

A fishing party was made up of the younger set of our village for Saturday afternoon and night with Mrs. L. S. Sanders, Mrs. Frank McCall and Mrs. Clarence Norton as chaperones. They were out until eleven o'clock and report a jolly time, but did not get many fish.

Mrs. A. E. Reid visited Mrs. Lee Norton, Saturday.

Mrs. Clarence Norton is leaving this week to join her husband in West Virginia. They will be away from home for some time, they now think.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Sanders were pleasant callers at the home of their son, Mr. I. S. Sanders, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Reid of Brevard, and daughters, Flora and Bess, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Reid, at Oakland, Sunday.

Mrs. Frank McCall and Mrs. Burgess and daughter, Bertie, and little nephew, Kile Galloway, motored to Rosman Sunday afternoon.

We had the worst wind storm last Thursday that our section has ever known. Theapple orchards of Mr. T. B. Reid and Mr. E. D. Reid were badly damaged and several apple trees in other orchards were blown down. There were numbers and numbers of big trees all through the forest blown down, one falling across the old mess hall of the state highway camp. This old hall has been used for some time as a place for all kinds of crowds to gather. We can't say that we are sorry that it is destroyed.

Our article in last week's News about Eck and the keg of booze didn't read just like we meant for it to, but we think every one understood that we saw the effects of the booze on the streets of Brevard. Let us say again, Mr. Officer, keep your eyes open and do your duty regardless of class.

We have just heard of the death of one of our old friends, Mrs. Oscar Woodard (Miss Pearl Cash before her marriage.) Our heart goes out in sympathy to her bereaved family and friends.

J. C. Reid has returned to Knoxville, Tenn., after spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Reid.

Mrs. Lee R. Fisher and daughter, Belle, Mr. Frank Fisher, wife and little daughter, Verona, of Rosman, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith and children, of Asheville, were pleasant callers at the home of Mrs. C. W. Fisher Sunday.

Mrs. Lanning, of South Carolina, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Effie Reid, this week.

Mrs. C. W. Fisher and children visited Mrs. W. W. Reid Sunday afternoon. Their first real outing since Mrs. Fisher's long and serious illness.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the many friends for their kindness and help that was given to our dear mother, Mrs. J. L. C. Orr, during her sickness and death. The last tribute was paid to her by many beautiful flowers.
