Some young ladies of the Lake Toxaway and Oakland sections were joy riding last week on a lumber truck and the elderly ladies, especially the grandmothers, did not approve. I guess though, if we were to reprove them they would just say "old fogey."

We are sorry the folks at Brevard and surrounding country did not keep their chicken thieves at home. They visited our community last week. On Wednesday night there was taken from W. F. McCall's chicken lot eight young chickens that were nearly big enough to fry, and on Thursday night a hen and six. The hen was in a wire coop that she could not get out of, so we feel sure someone got her. We tried to think it was a fox, (but Mr. McCall says no four-legged fox could have gotten to that hen, and the one that comes the next time had better be as sly as a fox or he will give some doctor a job picking out shot.

Sunday night we were called on to entertain a party from South Carolina for a short time who had missed the Pickens road on account of the fog. SUFFERING EFFECTS OF BLOOD POISONING

J. A. Sitton is suffering from effects of blood poisoning, caused from a bruised place on his hand, when he accidentally struck his hand with a hammer while at work. He paid but little attention to the injury at first, but is now nursing a greatly swollen hand and arm.

"And when Delilah cut Samson's hair, he became mild as a lamb. Can you understand it?" asked the Sunday School teacher.

"Well," said little Tommy, reflectively, "it does make you feel 'shamed when a woman cuts your hair."

Broken-Down Patient—Have I a chance in the world to recover my health, doctor?

Physician—Well, I'd say that if you give up all intoxicating beverages, stop smoking so many cigarettes, cut out the late hours, lay off bright lights, and try eating some good foods, I can make a new woman out of you.—College Humor.

"Joseph, if your father could save a dollar a week for four weeks, what would he then have?"

"A phonograph, a new suit, a refrigerator and a set of furniture."

home of W. F. McCall. Before Mr. McCall could get up and dress and back to the place where they were another car had come along and ran into it. Mr. McCall helped to get the injured men to the hospital, and the South Carolina people got the tree out of the road and came back here to get a cup of coffee and an ax and left for Greenville.
