MRS. JORDAN WHITMIRE, Manager

Rosman Subscribers, Please Take Notice.

Statements have been mailed to our Rosman representative, Mrs. Jordan Whitmire, of all subscribers who owe us on subscription. Please see her and make payment on your paper. She will call upon as many as she can, but our readers can lighten this work if they will co-operate by seeing Mrs. Whitmire and making payment. If any one so prefers, money or checks can be mailed direct to The Brevard News office. We are being forced, however, to collect for the paper as the subscriptions fall due. Those who fail to see Mrs. Whitmire, or pay direct at the office, will be considered as not wanting The Brevard News any longer, and their names, therefore, will be removed from our list. We shall thank you for prompt attention to this matter.—The Editor.

ROBINSON-BLACKSTOCK

A wedding of interest in the community was that of Miss Kathleen Blackstock, of Weaverville, to Mr. Douglas McGuire Robinson, of Marshall, the ceremony being performed at the Weaverville Methodist church Saturday afternoon. The Rev. Horst Blackwell, head of the department of Bible at Mars Hill college, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. J. L. Savage, of Edenton, has been head of the violin department of Mars Hill college for the past year.

The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Robinson, of Mars Hill. For two years he was teacher in the Rosman school, and made numerous friends during his stay here, and has been a frequent visitor in this community since that time. He will be principal at Mars Hill the coming year.

After September 1, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will be at home at Mars Hill.

ENJOYABLE PARTY

Little Misses Edith and Inez Ruffy were joint hostesses at a party given at the home of their parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Ruffy in honor of their birthdays Friday afternoon.
