

ROSMAN NEWS

MRS. JORDAN WHITMIRE, Manager

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

G. C. McClure, manager of Gloucester Lumber company, is spending several days this week in Knoxville, Tenn., on business.

Mrs. G. P. Hightower and sons, Lawrence and Howard, of Longview, Washington, left Friday for their home after spending the past two weeks visiting friends in Rosman and Asheville.

Miss Beatrice Sisk and Mr. Swan spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Sisk. Miss Sisk has accepted a position in Asheville and will start on her new duties Monday.

Mrs. Boyd Moore is reported very ill at her home here.

Misses Mary Whitmire and Eugenia Nelson and Misses Wade and Hubert Callahan were six o'clock dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Sisk Sunday.

Lambert Gillespie of Cherryfield, was a business visitor to Rosman Monday.

Homer Clarke, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Clarke, is attending school at Cowarts, N. C.

Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Eldridge were guests of Rev. and Mrs. Nathan Chapman Friday night.

Miss B. Chapman of Jocassee, is spending some time with her aunt, Mrs. Dick Pettit.

Willie Reid of Reids Siding, was a Rosman visitor Sunday.

Misses Vera and Norma Chapman of Tryon, attended the funeral service of their cousin, Mrs. Avery Morgan at Old Toxaway, Saturday.

Miss Norma Morgan of Old Toxaway, was a Rosman visitor Friday.

Mrs. J. Nicks and children have moved to Salem, S. C.

Billie Morgan of Eastatoe, spent last Wednesday night with Alf Cantrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Manley Powell and children spent the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wash Whitmire.

Rev. Bob Meece of Eastatoe, S. C., was an Old Toxaway visitor last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Raxter Galloway and daughter, of Balfour, are spending some time with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Culwell Galloway.

Pierce Aiken, who has been ill for some time, is much improved.

Jule Lance of Selica, visited his sister, Mrs. Wash Whitmire, Sunday.

Jesse Whitmire visited his sister, Mrs. Manley Powell, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Galloway, and children of Middle Fork were Rosman visitors Friday.

The M. E. Aid society will meet at the parsonage at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening for the purpose of re-organizing the society. Everyone who will take part are requested to be present.

Lire Littleton and Tom Littleton and two daughters of Salem, S. C., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Moss Saturday.

Walton Gillespie of Brevard, visited his sister, Mrs. Richard Rice Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gillespie of Brevard, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Edens Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Woodard and children were Sunday guests of Mrs. Woodard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Reid, at Quebec.

Oliver Galloway and son, Glen, and daughters, Louise and Lourine, were Gloucester visitors Sunday.

Miss Frances Galloway spent Monday night as guest of Miss Emma Jane McLean.

Miss Alma Galloway spent Wednesday night as guest of Miss Virginia Bruner at Lake Toxaway.

Mrs. Elmer White and sons, Kenneth and "Bud" accompanied Miss Mae White to Asheville Friday, and spent the week-end.

Carl Galloway of Gloucester, spent Wednesday night as guest of his mother, Mrs. Sarah Galloway.

Messrs Paul, J. B. Rogers and Leon Manley spent Sunday at Easley, as guests of the former's sister, Mrs. LaSalle Hands.

Mr. and Mrs. Everette Smith and Homer Clarke of Cowarts, N. C., spent the week-end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Clarke.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlee McCall and son of the Gloucester section were Rosman visitors Monday.

Dewey Winchester and A. M. Pharr were Forest City visitors Sunday.

Mrs. C. L. Moss and Mrs. Doyle Moss visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCall at Cherryfield the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Raines were Sunday guests of the latter's parents, Mavor and Mrs. J. R. Mahoney. Buster Rice spent Wednesday at Brevard as guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gillespie.

Weldon Galloway has accepted a position at Asheville, leaving several days ago.

Rev. Ed Summey of Central, S. C., was a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Summey, the first of the week.

Messrs J. R. Mahoney, D. H. Winchester and A. M. Pharr were business visitors to Pickens Monday.

Miss Edna Hinkle spent the week-end at her home at Sapphire. On Saturday Miss Hinkle accompanied her mother to Lincolnton.

Mrs. G. C. McClure and children were Hendersonville visitors Sunday.

Messrs Wade and Hubert Callahan of Westminster, S. C., spent Sunday visiting friends in Rosman.

Claud Kilby of Talladega, Ala., joined Mrs. Kilby at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Watkins, Sunday, leaving later for Roanoke Rapids.

Miss Betty Moore of Canton, is spending several days as guest of her cousin, Miss Ora Moore.

Arthur Enos and A. K. Moore, teachers of Rosman School, spent the week-end visiting at Hickory.

Friends in Rosman will be interested to know Mr. and Mrs. Welch

ROSMAN HI SCHOOL NOTES

On Wednesday morning, Sept. 8, during the chapel period the section of the 10th grade officers was held, the following officers being elected: President, Dorene Lee; vice president, Walter Glazener; secretary and treasurer, Ruth Morgan.

On Monday morning, Sept. 23, two 10th grade girls had charge of a very interesting 10th grade chapel program. The devotional exercise was conducted by Mary Whitmire, followed by a reading and poem given by Lily Mae Whitmire.

The 10th grade was glad to welcome Margaret Towe back to school again. She has been confined to her home the past two weeks on account of illness.

The 11th grade held the election of class officers during the chapel period Monday morning, Sept. 16, in their home room. The following officers were elected: President, Pauline Powell; vice president, Coy Fisher; secretary and treasurer, Belle Fisher. It is hoped that each officer will do his or her best toward the class.

The 8th grade elected their class officers as follows: President, Lawrence Whitmire; vice president, E. J. Whitmire; secretary and treasurer, Charles Glazener.

MRS. AVERY MORGAN

Funeral services for Mrs. Avery Morgan, aged 33, prominent Old Toxaway woman, who died Friday morning at eight o'clock, was held at the Old Toxaway Baptist church Saturday, conducted by Rev. Nathan Chapman and Rev. Judson Corn.

Mrs. Morgan was only ill a few hours. She was before her marriage one year ago, Miss Emma Chapman, daughter of Mrs. Johnnie Chapman, and had lived all her life in the Old Toxaway section. In early life she joined Old Toxaway Baptist church and lived a true Christian life.

Mrs. Morgan is survived by her husband, her mother, Mrs. Johnnie Chapman, and five sisters, as follows: Mrs. Charles Miles and Mrs. Thurman Galloway, of Rosman; Mrs. Zerk Morgan of Old Toxaway; Mrs. Clarence Allerton, of Jocassee, S. C.; and Mrs. James Birchfield, of Cleveland, S. C.

DISTRICT SINGING CONVENTION CONSIDERED AS SUCCESSFUL

The District Singing convention met at Middle Fork Baptist church near Rosman Sunday afternoon with a large crowd present, in spite of the rain.

Meeting date was changed from the 4th Sunday to the 3rd Sunday in each month, and the next convention will meet at Zion Baptist church the 3rd Sunday in October.

PICNIC SUPPER AT ARCANA

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Cadwallader entertained with a picnic supper at The Arcana Wednesday evening. The large cabin being used for the occasion, with the dining room beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and goldenrod and a blazing fire in the huge fireplace adding to the occasion. A delicious supper was served to the following guests:

Misses Ida Mae Armstrong, La Verne Whitmire, Irene Pharr, and Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Whitmire.

Galloway have arrived in Alamogordo, Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bishop and children and Miss Cordelia Clarke of Asheville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Clarke Saturday.

Nathan Dworetzky, of New York City, was in Rosman and Brevard several days last week, leaving for New York Saturday.

James Staton and Ernest Pangle made a business trip to Seneca, S. C., Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Manley and baby and Mrs. M. B. Owen were called to Forest City Sunday on account of the death of the latter's sister-in-law, Mrs. Jim Schand.

Miss Bertie Lance and Miss Viola McCall and Starland McCall and Elmer Moseley were Brevard visitors Saturday night.

Mrs. Bertie Owen spent last week at Oakland with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nicholson.

Friends will be glad to know that Mrs. Joe Galloway, who has been suffering with rheumatism, is very much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Galloway were dinner guests of the former's mother Mrs. Sarah Galloway, Saturday.

Miss Nannie B. Connor of Biltmore, spent the past week as guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Connor at Cherryfield.

Miss Dorothy Allen, superintendent of music, spent the week-end in Spartanburg, as guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Allen.

Clarence Green of Gloucester, was a business visitor to Rosman on Monday.

Girtha Watkins, Tom Stroup and Mrs. L. M. Watkins were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ulys Merrill at Brevard Sunday.

Bert and Elmer McLean and Miss Emma Jane McLean were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dunn at Selica Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Bush have taken rooms with Rev. G. E. Kellar on Church street. Mr. Bush is superintendent of Rosman High school.

sonville, and Miss Lucy Fulbright of Brevard were dinner guests of the former's sister, Mrs. A. M. Paxton, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wilds and baby of Cherryfield, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Randolph, Saturday.

Norman Murphy spent Sunday at Pickens, as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ransey Whitmire.

Rev. J. K. Henderson of Pembroke, preached at Zion Baptist church Sunday morning.

Milus Galloway and daughter Mae, and son Algie, of Wolf Mountain, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Randolph Saturday.

Mrs. Eugene Morrison was a guest of Mrs. Jake Jarrett Monday.

Millard Lance of Avery's Creek, spent Thursday night as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Jarrett.

Rev. A. J. Manley, who is teaching at Shoal Creek in Gloucester, spent the week-end with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Lance of Brevard, were called to Anderson, S. C., Thursday on account of the serious illness of Mr. Lance's brother. Mr. and Mrs. Lance returned Sunday and were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Jarrett.

Miss Alza Hogsd of Calvert, spent Saturday in Hendersonville.

Roy Fisher of Mars Hill College, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee R. Fisher, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Whitmire visited the latter's brother at Easley, S. C., Sunday.

Rev. Hoyt Blackwell of Marrs Hill College, was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Morgan at Calvert Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fisher and baby of Brevard, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee R. Fisher.

Mrs. Freeman Hayes and Misses Belle Fisher and Frances Edens were Brevard visitors Sunday.

Mrs. Mattie Barton of Los Angeles, Calif., and Miss Victoria Galloway of Brevard, are spending several days as guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Galloway Jr. at Calvert.

Mrs. F. Paxton of Calvert, who has been ill, is much improved.

Misses Betty, Ora, and Annie Moore, and Messrs Claud Glazener and Coy Fisher enjoyed a camping trip near Fairfield over the week-end.

Mrs. Bill McGinnis and daughter, Marvel, of Gasonia, are spending several days as guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manning Moore.

Charles Foster of Asheville, and Jordan Whitmire and son Arthur of Cherryfield, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollis Moore and Collis Moore of Gastonia, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manning Moore.

Mrs. E. A. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lewis and children, and Miss Mabel Lewis of Pickens, spent the week-end as guests of the former's son, W. R. Lewis.

Wade Chastain of Pickens, was a business visitor to Rosman Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McKinney of Jocassee, S. C., were Rosman visitors the latter part of the week.

Miss Bonnie Sigmon has accepted a position as stenographer for Sam Craig, lawyer, of Pickens, S. C.

Frank Whitmire of Cherryfield, was a business visitor to Rosman Tuesday.

John Perry of Calvert was a business visitor to Rosman Monday.

Charlie Bryson of Sapphire, was a Rosman visitor Friday.

Mrs. P. L. Loving of Reids Siding, was a Rosman visitor Tuesday.

D. R. Jenkins spent Sunday at Cashiers Valley visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodson, Lawyer Eckels, and Arlo Goodson of Black Mountain, were guests of Frank Fields at the Rosman Hotel Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Ruffy and children Edith and Inez returned home from Lake Toxaway Monday night after spending the past two weeks visiting at Lake Toxaway.

Rev. Mr. Ruffy and Rev. J. P. Mason have just closed a very successful meeting at Lake Toxaway.

J. F. Hayes and daughter, Miss Mamie, spent Saturday night as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cunningham at Hendersonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Rogers and daughter, Genelia, spent Sunday at Travelers Rest as guests of the former's brother, Ivay Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Marcum of Augusta, Ga. are spending several days as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tinsley Brown at Balsam Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Birchfield and children and Mrs. Johnnie Chapman spent Saturday night as guests of the latter's daughter, Mrs. Charlie Miles.

BOYLSTON NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hollingsworth of South Carolina, spent last Saturday night with relatives on Boylston. Thomas English is working on Turkey Creek at present, being in the logging business.

B. J. Brown, of Glade Creek, visited old friends on Boylston last Sunday night.

Miss Annie May McKinna and brother, Raff, of Etowah, were business callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Duncan Saturday evening.

Carl Orr attended the old time singing at Etowah last Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Crouse, pastor of Mills River Methodist church, and Burgess Allison visited friends and relatives on Boylston one day last week.

Rev. T. C. Holtzclaw, of Hendersonville, will preach at Boylston church the second Sunday in October. The public is cordially invited.

We have heard of most all kinds of animals catching chickens, so one evening last week a "flying machine" passed through our section and one flock of chickens seemed to have thought it was a monster hawk, judging from the fright they received.

Several of our people are looking forward to the opening of the hunting season, as they want to kill deer this year, also several have already been deer hunting for the past five years, and have been unlucky all this long time, so we hope this will be the happy season for them.

T. R. Duncan has finished harvesting his tobacco crop.

Dr. E. S. English, of Brevard, was in our section last Monday evening.

NOTICE OF SALE OF LAND
Under the power of sale contained in that certain deed in trust, executed by Roy Whitesides and wife, Marie Whiteside, to the undersigned trustee, dated the 3rd day of January 1928, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Transylvania county, N. C. in Book No. 21 at page 224, default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness thereby secured, and demand having been made for sale, the undersigned trustee, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder, for CASH, at 12 o'clock M. on the 21st day of October 1929, at the court house door in the town of Brevard, N. C., the following described piece or parcel of land, lying and being in Brevard Township, county of Transylvania and state of North Carolina, to-wit:

BEGINNING at a large post oak, now down, a corner of the old Stamey lot, about 20 poles east of the bridge across the brushy Creek, and runs with the main road N 76 W 50 ft. more or less to a stake at a ditch, corner of the M. A. Mull lot, then down and with said ditch and M. A. Mull line, a south course 200 ft. more or less to a stake in the line of Brushy Creek, then down and with the center of Brushy Creek N 89 E 250 feet to a stake at the mouth of a ditch, coming in from the north side, a corner of the M. B. Bagwell lot, then up and with the center of said ditch, and with the line of the M. B. Bagwell lot N 51 1-2 E 290 ft. to a stake in the old Stamey line, then with said line N 47 W 188 ft. to the beginning, containing 1 3-4 acres more or less.

Excepting from the above description, a lot of land on Oakdale Avenue, a lot of land on 150 ft front and going back to the waters of Brushy Creek.

Said sale being made for the purpose of satisfying said debt, interest, costs and expenses of said sale.

This the 20th day of Sept. 1929.
H. E. Martin, Trustee, 4c S25 Oc
By Kay-Hellar Buick Co. 2-9-16

SELICA NEWS ITEMS

The folks of Selica are wondering when the good old days of sunshine will return, especially the farmers. It is reported that Mrs. Dewey McCall is on the sick list. We hope to see her out again soon.

Mrs. Z. A. Nicholson and party of Flat Rock were visitors of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Roxie Dunn, recently.

Our Sunday School gave a song and prayer service at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barton Sunday.

Kenyon Johnson, who has been away on a job for sometime, is visiting his mother and sister.

We understand that Mrs. Henry McKinna, who was struck by an automobile sometime ago and has been in Transylvania Hospital, is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Breedlove visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hollingsworth, of Pisgah Forest, Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Smith, of South Carolina, are visiting their kindred here, the Barton family.

Mrs. Smith was Miss Emma Barton before her marriage.

Elbert Lance, of South Carolina, is visiting his family here for a few days.

The B. Y. P. U. met last Sunday night as usual, and elected new officers, all promising young folks. Come out folks and help make it go.

Walter Blythe and family, of Balfour, were visiting in our section Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Pruette and baby, of Brevard, were visitors of Mrs. Rosie Barton Sunday.

Miss Annabelle Dunn has been spending some time in Asheville. We surely miss her and hope to see her back soon.

Our prayer meeting is going fine. Our next lesson will be from Heb. 4, conducted by J. P. Hogsd.

Imaginary millions are a great source of satisfaction, until we wake up.

The man who thinks the world owes him a living fails to realize what he owes the world.

LAKE TOXAWAY NEWS

Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Pendleton, of Brevard, visited a number of Toxaway people last week.

Luther Owens, of Gloucester, spent last week with his daughter, Mrs. Cope Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hall, of Brevard, spent last Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Raines.

Mrs. Roland Fisher, of Quebec, visited her sister, Mrs. Bill Fisher, last week.

Mrs. W. W. Ray has returned home after spending last week in Asheville.

Our school is getting along fine. We have three fine teachers. The Christian influence of our principal, S. B. McCall, is not only felt in the school but in the whole community.

Seventeen of our Toxaway people attended the Sunday School convention at Little River church last Wednesday. Lake Toxaway Methodist church won the pennant for the largest attendance in the county.

Mrs. W. P. Croom, of Asheville, spent Sunday with her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McNeely.

Fred McNeely, who has been in the Mission Hospital at Asheville for several weeks, returned home this week.

We are having a good revival at the Methodist church. The revival has been going on for the last two weeks and great good is being done.

Dock Wilbanks, of Asheville, spent Sunday with his father, Frank Wilbanks.

Carl Moltz has returned from New York.

NEXT

We contribute to your good looks. You can get a Vitalis treatment here, the vegetable oil tonic, also the Fitch products.

It Pays To Look Well

SMITH'S BARBER SHOP

SAM ALLISON SAYS:

"The proper thing to do at this time of the year is to prepare for the weather man, for the Old Fellow is very changeable at this season. There will be mud, and frost, and cold rains, and North winds, all of which call for special preparations."

THEN SAM FURTHER SAYS:

Men who work outdoors ought to have High Boots, with good solid soles. Something like the ones we have in stock here at Plummer's Bargain Annex. These Boots are 16 inches high, and are real boots. We have priced them away down, offering them at

$6.95

Then there are Men's Overalls, and good ones, too, at very special price of only

$1.15

Sweaters are the best things to wear when winter begins to come. We have Sweaters for Men, Women and Children, ranging in price from

59c TO $3.50

Wool Blankets are man's best friend when the winds begin to blow. We have them here at the Bargain Annex at the low price of

$3.95 PR.

Something here for the woman who looks to save and save and save. All Leather Slippers for Ladies, at the very low price of

$1.95

Plummer's Bargain Annex

If we haven't here just what you want, then step across the street to Plummer's Main Store, where the Great Sale is going good.

PAY YOUR SUBSCRIPTION