

COMING HOME NEXT WEEK TO BE WITH LOVED ONES AGAIN

admire like Mr. Aiken has written about Mr. Owen.

The Home-Coming Week begins Saturday, October 12, lasting until Saturday, October 19. It is especially desired that all people who have visitors with them during this week furnish the paper with the names and addresses, so we can give publication to the same. This paper would also appreciate it if the visitors would call at the Brevard News office, that there might be a more complete account given of the activities of the former citizens. All the people in the county will be most interested in such news.

The following letter is one of many that has been received, and is an indication of the intense interest being taken in the Home-Coming event:

My Dear Old Friends of Transylvania County:

I regret very deeply to say that I cannot be with you in the big Home-Coming, and share the pleasures which I know will be yours.

Twenty-seven years ago I bade farewell to the dear ones at Cedar Mountain, my old home, and turned my face toward the sunset, and Indian Territory. The intervening years have held many pleasures and joys for me, but not without the mixture of bitter sorrows. My husband and I are living alone in our little home, surrounded by some of our children and a lot of friends, who help to make our lives more pleasant.

Some good friend has remembered us and sent us some copies of The Brevard News, for which we thank them heartily.

We saw some very familiar names in The News, among those, our dear brother, V. B. McGaha and sister, Mrs. S. S. Hardin of Venus, S. C. Mrs. Baxter Summey is an old friend of mine, also Mrs. Silas McCrary, (a girlhood chum), Misses Mamie and Rose Shipman, the Kilpatrick brothers, Perry, C. C., J. M., Robert and K. W. and so many that reflect in memory's mirror, which space forbids us writing them all. But friends, if you would like to make us happy just write us a card or letter and it sure will be gladly received any time, for we have not forgotten you, though years have passed.

Now friends, I hope that every one of you will be at the "home-coming" and will enjoy every minute of the time.

Many of the dear ones have passed on, and we may soon be called to that Great Home-Coming over there; so I hope to meet you there, if we never see each other again here.

Sincerely your old friend,
MRS. S. A. KEITH.

KIWANIS CLUB NOT TO BE DISBANDED

Proposition to disband the Brevard Kiwanis club and merge with the County Club now being organized was discussed at the meeting of the Kiwanis last Thursday, and vetoed to a fare-you-well. It was decided to continue the Kiwanis club, and all members of the organization were urged to join the County Club as individuals, and then have the Kiwanis club cooperate in any way it could with the County club.

The Kiwanis club has done some mighty good work for the community during the past four years, much of which was described at Thursday's meeting.

The Kiwanis meets Thursday at noon. All members have promised to attend.

JULIUS HINTON IS NAMED PRESIDENT

Members of the senior class of the Brevard High School met in the school library Tuesday morning for the organization of the class and election of officers. Following were the officers elected: President, Julius Hinton; vice president, Elizabeth Mills; secretary, Bertha Jean Hampton; treasurer, Charles Morgan.

A total of 34 members comprise the class of 1930, of which members 16 are girls and 18 boys. Present indications point to a successful year, with prospects of much being accomplished by the class during the school year.

J. C. PENNY'S STORE TO OPEN ON FRIDAY

The J. C. Penny company, one of the biggest mercantile establishments in the country, is opening a store in Hendersonville Friday of this week, and in an announcement in this issue of The Brevard News, invites the people of Transylvania county to attend the opening and the special sale being conducted on account of this opening. The Penny company has already an even 1400 stores throughout the United States, and the Hendersonville store makes the 1401st store.

Mr. E. W. Ham is manager of the Hendersonville store, and in an interview with The Brevard News expressed his intention of spending a portion of his time in Brevard and in this county, to the end that he might become personally acquainted with the citizens here. The Penny store carries ladies' ready to wear, shoes, dry goods, notions, men's clothing and accessories for every one.

LOCAL MAN ATTENDING AIR BRIGADE RECEPTION TODAY

Walter Hart is in Greenville attending the reception being given the flying squadron Thursday night. Mr. Charles, head of the Charles Flying School of Richmond, is to return to Brevard with Mr. Hart, flying one of Mr. Charles' planes.

PATTERSON'S SALE UNIQUE IN PLANS

H. Patterson, for many years one of the leading merchants of Brevard, having closed out here a year ago, and since that time devoting his full time to his Hendersonville store, is making an announcement in today's Brevard News of a change in his business policy. His store is now on the strict cash basis, and Mr. Patterson is offering substantial rewards for any customer who finds that they purchase goods of like nature anywhere else at any less price than he is quoting in a big sale he is now conducting.

Mr. Patterson has many friends in Transylvania county.

LOCAL SCOUT TROOP TO GO TO RALEIGH STATE FAIR

Monday morning, October 14, the North Carolina State Fair will open at Raleigh, for its second season under the ownership and management of the State of North Carolina.

Many unique features are connected with the fair. Governor Gardner predicts that it will be the greatest success of any exposition ever attempted in the South.

J. A. Miller, scout master, will leave Tuesday with 25 Boy Scouts of Brevard, to attend the fair. Many other citizens of the county are planning to attend, and several parties are being made up for the trip to the capital.

Want Your Chickens Culled? Want to Know About Proper Feeding of Flock and Stock?

We are fortunate in having with us for several days Mr. F. B. Register, of St. Louis, one of the best informed men on the staff of the Great Purina Mills. Mr. Register will gladly cull your chickens, discuss proper feeding for poultry and cattle, and give any other information you may want about your flock or stock. Of course, all this service is complimentary, there being no charge whatever, nor any obligations incurred.

THE PURINA MILLS

Is, as you know, the outstanding manufacturing plant in all the world of Feeds of all kinds for poultry and stock, and it is because we have been named as the representative of this great mill that enables us to have the services of Mr. Register for this period. We want all of our friends throughout the county to meet Mr. Register. We will bring him into any section wanting him. Come to the store, or phone us, or write us, or send word in to us, and we shall be pleased to bring Mr. Register to your place, cull your chickens, and serve you in whatever way we can. We believe Mr. Register's visit here will be worth many hundreds of dollars to the people of the county.
