Hogs—Steers—Sheep Say: "The Purina Pound Is Cheapest"

IT'S not what we say about Purina Chows that counts—it's what the animals say. Through 2,413 feeding records from all leading hog raising centers, 90,247 hogs shout, "Purina makes pork at $6.50 per hundred," while 19,850 steers add, "and makes beef at $10.08." At the same time 33,399 sheep say, "$9.98 per cwt. gain." No wonder Purina feeders are making money—more money than by any other plan of feeding. No wonder we became enthusiastic about Purina and decided to become the local authorized distributor of the Checkerboard line.

You'll be an enthusiastic booster, too, once you've fed Purina to your poultry and live stock. Why not phone us for a supply—or drop in.
