OAKLAND NEWS ITEMS

The revival at Lake Toxaway Baptist church closed Sunday night, after a series of services. There were 20 additions to the church, some of whom were converted at the meeting just closed at the M. E. church at Lake Toxaway, some by letters from other churches, and some restored to full fellowship who had wandered away from the paths of duty. Taking it all in all we had a wonderful meeting. Rev. E. R. Pendleton, pastor, did the preaching.

Mrs. Ed Bryson and daughter, Camille, of West Asheville, were visiting friends here last week.

Mrs. C. C. Wilson, who has been quite ill here, has been moved to her home near Black Mountain.

Charlie Nicholson, of Asheville, called on his sister, Mrs. Charles Reid, of Sapphire, Friday of last week.

Clarence Wilson, of Lenoir, was in our village Saturday night and Sunday.

Several of the Oakland people attended the McCall Reunion in Brevard Sunday and reported a good time.

Rev. E. R. Pendleton, of Brevard, was dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCall Sunday.

BOYLSTON NEWS

Rev. A. O. Allison, of Kentucky, visiting relatives and friends on Boylston at present, and preached at Boylston church last Sunday.

Mrs. F. Allen and Mrs. G. Bryson of Pisgah Forest, are visiting relatives on Boylston.

We are glad to know that business is improving in our section, as real estate is beginning to sell; also Mr. Banning and Mr. Orr are in the syrup making, and hunting season is in full blast.

All persons who are underweight and want to put on flesh are advised to eat plenty of bear meat, as one man in our section tried the bear meat treatment last hunting season and now he is as stout looking a man as we can find anywhere, so we want to advise all people to take the same treatment and especially sickly children.

There is one of the most sensible dogs in our settlement that can be found in the state. One night recently some of the men folks brought some roasting ears to the house, and one of the cats stole one of the said roasting ears, and began to eat off the good juicy corn. The dog fought the cat off the corn, picked up the ear of corn, placed it in the cook's lap. We figure the dog liked cooked corn better than raw.

Some of our young men seem to be going to make a break-away and leave us, as they seem to be afraid of our old bachelors. There are more bachelors in this settlement than any other place, as Mr. Holliday of Blantyre, says he can hardly pass a house on Boylston without some old bachelor sticking his head out of the doors to look at him.

Miss Leota Simpson went to Lyman, S. C., a few days ago, where she has employment.

Tom English, who has employment on Turkey Creek, was at home last Sunday.
