THE PRAYER CORNER

LITTLE THINGS THAT CHRIST MAKES GREAT

Some words in my reading on this subject impressed me and I would share them with my readers.

"Little things to the thoughtful man or woman, speak of God and power, more truly than big things. The mountains and the ocean tell His story; but the little flower tells it ever more eloquently; Tennyson puts forth a rich lesson in his beautiful lines:

"Flower in the crannied wall,
 I pluck you out of the crannies,
 I hold you here root and all in my hand,
 Little flower—but if I could understand
 What you are, root and all, and all in all,
 I should know what God and man is."

"So God has so generally used the weak things of this world to confound the things that are mighty. The great Goliath the lion of desperation. Goliath was mastered by a stone and a sling from the hands of a boy. Christ fed five thousand with five loaves and two little fishes. Upon a simple cross of wood the world's salvation was achieved. By Peter's sermon three thousand were converted, and it has been so all through history, and it so all through every man's and woman's individual experience. We can look back upon our own lives, and see how the crises and turning points of our human career have been brought by trifling incidents."

"It would be most interesting to stop and think why God so ordered; why He has placed a little child as our example, rather than some great saint; why He has taken some simple ploughboy or some shepherd lad and made him the world's deliverer, while kings sat useless on their thrones; and wise men have lived and died in the midst of their books, and the world has not missed them."

"It certainly cannot be because He wants us all to remain ignorant or to despise knowledge and wisdom. It cannot be because He is not to be found in lifes great issues and movements, and reformations, for we know He is the Centre and power of them all."

"It must be that He would teach us to guard well the little things of life, because from them may come great blessings. It must be that as He would hold us from glorying in anything that we do, for all glory is due to Him 'who alone worketh great marvels.'"

"We need never be afraid to bring any little thing to God. It may be two mites for an offering; it may be a smile or a song; it may be a cup of cold water; it may be only a loving spirit; but when Jesus looks upon it, lo! it changes and accomplishes His mighty purposes. I do not know who wrote these verses but they have been a blessing to me"

broken;
 It strengthened a faith beset by fears
 And groping blindly through mists of tears
 For light to brighten the coming years,
 Altho it was lightly spoken."

"It was only a helping hand,
 And it seemed of little availing,
 But its clasps were warm
 And it saved from harm
 A brother whose strength was failing.

Its touch was tender as angels wings,
 But it rolled the stone from the hidden springs
 And pointed the way to higher things
 Tho it seemed of little availing."

"A smile, a word or a touch,
 And each is easily given,
 Yet one may win
 A soul from sin
 Or smooth the way to Heaven.
 A smile may lighten the failing heart,
 A word may soften pain's keenest smart,
 A touch may lead us from sin apart—
 How easily each one is given!"

A PRAYER

Our Father, be with us, we pray
 Thee, not only in the great moments of experience, but also in the trivial round, the common task. Make us children of quietness and heirs of peace.

Grant that we may go among our fellows with cheerful kindly faces, ever glad to praise their virtues. Help us to control our tempers, and to be kindly affectionate one toward another. Wherever we see need or distress, may we be ready to help, counting it our joy to bear another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. Save us from all selfish pleasure and slothful ease and idle curiosity.

Keep us ever mindful of the fewness of our days, and the greatness of Thy work. As our day so let our strength be. And all Thy favours be upon us, establish the work of our hands establish Thou it, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Dear King, all glorious in Thy supreme might, whose greatest glory was in the weakness of Thy humanity, wherein Thou didst live and die on earth that we might live here and hereafter, we beseech Thee fill us with Thyself that we may be great in obeying Thee.

Empty us of ourselves that Thou mayest live in us. Encourage us, that we may not despise even the crumbs which Thou art willing to multiply. Grant us power that in Thee we may do all things. And so hide us in Thine own dear goodness and greatness, that we may share in Thy work here, and at last share in Thy rest forever, Amen.
