SOCIETY NEWS

Announcement of the wedding of a Transylvania county young lady to an Asheville man has been received at The News office, but on account of there being no signature to the communication it is not being published. If the party or parties desire this matter handled in next week's paper they are respectfully requested to communicate with The News and sign the article so that the paper may know it is an authentic announcement.

RALLY DAY OBSERVANCE AT PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY

Last Thursday was Rally Day for the Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church, and at their meeting on that afternoon, the members had the great pleasure of having with them to conduct the devotional exercises Mrs. J. S. Hunter, of Hendersonville.

Mrs. Hunter is the Synodical secretary of Religious Education in the Synod of Appalachia. She is intensely interested in the young people, and made a strong earnest talk concerning their training. Taking as her text, "And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man," she brought out the fourfold character of the development of the young—physical, educational, social and spiritual. She emphasized the last, showing how it is only through our spiritual nature that we have the slightest trace of influence upon the world, and how everything should lead to the highest development of the spiritual in our characters.

Mrs. Hunter has the rare gift of expressing her thoughts in forceful and convincing, and at the same time, beautiful language. The Synod has been very happy in the selection of one so peculiarly fitted to represent this cause of Christian Education to the women of the church, one who embodies in her character and bearing the great principles we wish enforced upon the young people of the churches.

The remainder of the program was conducted by Miss Louise Brown. The Auxiliary accepted with many regrets the resignation of Mrs. Lysterly, who has recently moved from Brevard to Asheville. Mrs. A. H. Harris was chosen to fill Mrs. Lysterly's place as chairman of Synodical and Presbyterian Home Missions.

FORMER PENNSYLVANIA GIRL WEDS IN ASHEVILLE

Miss Elizabeth Carr, a former resident of this county, and Mr. Frank DeWitt Miller, of Charlotte, were married at the St. Lawrence Catholic church in Asheville, Tuesday, October 8, at noon, Father Louis Bour officiating.

The bride's father, Mr. Louis Carr, of New Mexico, led her to the altar and gave her in marriage, while Mr. Frank Carr, brother of the bride, accompanied the groom to meet the bride. She was attired in a traveling suit of mixed tweed with accessories to match, and wore a corsage of sweetheart rose buds.

Only members of the two families and a few close friends were guests at the wedding dinner, which was given by the bride's father at Battery Park Hotel immediately following the ceremony.

Immediately following the dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Miller left on a honeymoon trip to New York, which will conclude at Charlotte, where the young couple will make their home.

MUSIC LOVERS CLUB IN INTERESTING MEET

The Brevard Music Lovers' club held its first meeting of the year Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. J. M. Allison. Almost all the members were present and a splendid beginning was made on the new year's work.

The program for the year is a study of folk music of various countries. Mrs. J. B. Pickelsimer and Mrs. A. H. Kizer began the program with a study of Scotch songs. The former gave an interesting talk on the indulgence of Scotch geography on their songs, and the work of Robert Burns and Thomas Moore in preserving folk tunes by composing new words for old melodies.

John Mac Allison Jr. and Miss Eva Call were dressed in Scotch costume. The former gave a saxophone solo and the latter a folk dance. Mr. Alvin Moore sang two songs.

After the business meeting the hostess announced that Scotch refreshments would be served. There followed water, toothpicks and snuff. Later, however, each member had a plate of delicious butter-schotch pie and Scotch candy. The club adjourned to meet next time at Brevard Institute.

PICTURE OF MISS MCGEEHEE IN SUNDAY NEWSPAPER

A large clear-cut picture of Miss Nida McGehee appeared in the Sunday edition of the Macon (Ga) Telegraph, together with the statement that Miss McGehee had just returned from her summer home in Brevard to re-enter Lanier High school of that city, she being sponsor of the A. O. S. club of that school. Miss McGehee is a popular member of Brevard's younger summer set.
