SURPRISE WEDDING ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

A most enoyable social event of the past week was the celebration of the thirty-fourth wedding anniver-sary of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Osborne, the event being in the nature of a surprise party given by Miss Cather-ine Osborne Wednesday evening, January 15, at their suburban home, honoring the wedding anniversary of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Osborne were taken entirely by surprise, being unaware of the party given in their honor until after the arrival of the guests of the occasion. After the guests had arrived, the purpose of the gathering was announced to the two guests of honor by the entrance into the room of a bridal party, in miniature. To the accompaniment of the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Elizabeth Mills, little Mabel Mills, daintily dressed as a bride, and little Louis Sims, representing the groom, marched into the room where the guests were assembled, thus heradling the celebration of the wedding event of many years ago.

A color scheme in yeilow and white was prettily carried out in the decorations and in the refreshments. A large white cake on which were thirty-four little yellow candles added to the attractiveness of the oc-casion, and further reminded the couple of their wedding day thirty-four years ago. Cake and punch were served during the evening.

Games which were in vogue thirty years ago were played, to the expressed enjoyment of the twenty or more guesta present.

Cash Prizes

Say, Lady, write a short article, and win a Cash Prize! If you can write a better article than your neighbor can write, you can win one of these Five Cash Prizes.

The Citizens of Brevard who are conducting a campaign of education, showing how harmful it is to the community to patroniz Chain Stores and have them sending all the money of the community to their headquarters in distant cities, will give these Cash Prizes for the best letters written on this subject.

Here are the rules:

Write a letter on this Chain Store subject, as follows:

"Why I Should Patronize The Home Merchant"

Write the letter just as short, or just as long, as you want it. Use any argument you choose. The contest is open to all the women of Transylvania County. Your letter is to be sent to The Brevard News. It must be in The News office not later than February first. A committee of three disinterested citizens will read all the letters and judge them. Sign name at bottom of letter, leaving room to clip the name off the copy, number it and the letter, so the judges will not know the name of the writer, thus giving absolute guarantee that no partiality can enter into the judging of the prize winners.

Five Cash Prizes

For the best letter, a prize of $5 Cash For the next best letter ... For the third best letter . . . $3 Cash For the fourth best letter . $2 Cash For the fifth best letter .... $1 Cash

Write your letter now. Be one of these prize winners. The ladies of Brevard and Transylvania County are the most interested people here in all matters pertaining to the good of the community. Ye Mothers are wondering now what your boys and girls will do in li Your children have graduated in the High School, or will soon graduated in the High School graduated in the Hi ate. The Chain Store menace hits your boys and girls, for it sho to them all opportunity to go into business for themselves. You mot know how the home merchant gave you credit when your husband was sick, or that time when you were sick. You women know that the Chain Store would not do this for you, even if your children were starving to death. Write about all these things in your letter on "Why I Should Patronize the Home Merchant." You know, better than any one else, how the home merchant has built your town, your schools, your streets and sidewalks, your churches, and you know that the Chain Stores does not help in these things. You know that all the Chain Store cares for is to get your money and send it to headquarters next day. You know how your husband is out of work, and cannot get a job, because so much money has been sent out of the county through chain stores and mail order houses that there is nothing much left here to do business on.

Write your letter, have it in The Brevar ruary First, and the judges will award the Cast Don't delay. Get a pencil and paper right now on "Why I Should Patronize the Home Merchan

Mother-- The Drudge!

Mother used to be a drudge. There was no help for it.

Some mothers are are drudges. But hev needn't be.

Electricity-the Modern Servant-has knocked the drudgery out of housework wherever it has been given an opportunity. Always on top, always "a-rearing to go," electricity today is adding years of brightness and happiness to countless thousands of housewives who have taken the trouble to find out just what electricity can do in the home.

We invite attention to the quality of the electric service rendered in the communities served by us, and particularly to our liberal merchandising policy which, because of low prices and convenient terms, is enabling thousands of housewives to enjoy conveniences and comforts in a degree that would be impossible under ordinary circumstances.
