REGULAR MEETING OF MISSIONARY SOCIETY

March meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist church was held Thursday afternoon at the ladies' parlor. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. A. H. Houston.

Resignation of Mrs. Hume Harris from the office of pledge superintendent was accepted with regrets and Mrs. Ralph Fisher was elected to fill the vacancy. Mrs. Z. W. Nichols was elected delegate to High Point to the annual meeting of the Western North Carolina conference which convenes in High Point April 22-25. The following membership committee was appointed: Mrs. J. B. Picklesimer, Mrs. Cordia King, Mrs. A. R. Gillespie, Mrs. J. S. Nicholson.

A program of unusual interest was in charge of Mrs. H. C. Ranson on the subject, "Home as a School for Training of Good Citizenship." This was followed by a round table discussion on the subject. Devotionals were in charge of Mrs. L. B. Haynes, basing her remarks on the subject of "The Christian Ideal of Marriage."

T. E. L. CLASS MEETS TUESDAY

The T. E. L. class of the Baptist church will meet next Tuesday afternoon at 8:30 o'clock in the class room.

P. T. A. TO MEET MONDAY AFTERNOON

Regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher association will be held next Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Elementary school building. Miss Martha Boswell will speak on the subject of proposed legislative measures of interest to the P. T. A. A full attendance is urged.

MRS. ALEXANDER IS HOSTESS TO WEDNESDAY CLUB

On Wednesday, the first day of Lent, Mrs. R. L. Alexander graciously consented to entertain the Wednesday club. Twelve members and three guests were present. Mrs. Carrier distributed the questionnaires concerning the survey of accidents in the home.

Mrs. T. H. Shipman was in charge of the program, discussing interestingly the subject, "Manners and Customs in Hawaii." She was assisted by Mrs. P. N. Simons, reading an article on "The Lagueans, telling of the influence of Robert Louis Stevenson's life and death on the natives." The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. E. W. Blythe, on March 19.

MRS. PUSHELL ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Luther Pushell entertained the B. H. T. bridge club Wednesday evening at her home on West Main street. Three tables were made up for play, and at the conclusion of the games dainty refreshments were served. The club's membership is composed of people from Brevard, Hendersonville and Tryon.

EASTERN STAR GIVES BIRTHDAY PARTY

Members of the Eastern Star will give a birthday party Thursday evening at the Masonic Hall, honoring the first birthday anniversary of this organization. Lunch will be provided in the hall, and according to present plans a most enjoyable evening will be spent by those in attendance.

GIRLS' AUXILIARY HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

The Girls' Auxiliary held its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Oliver Orr, with ten members present.

The president, Mrs. Willis Brittain, presided over the meeting and had charge of the program, discussing topics from the Missionary Voice. A membership drive is to be started, as decided at this meeting, and other matters of business were discussed. Miss Geraldine Barrett was elected delegate to the annual Missionary conference to be held in High Point, April 22-25.

Refreshments were served during the social hour following the meeting.

MISS KERN ENTERTAINS D.A.R.

Miss Florence Kern entertained the members of the Waightstill Avery chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution Monday afternoon at her home on Depot street. Seven members were present.

Several letters were read, among the most interesting being one read by Miss Annie Gash, historian, from Miss Violet Alexander, of the Charlotte chapter, telling about the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence and stating that a copy of this would be sent to the local chapter.

Mrs. J. M. Allison told interesting facts about Payne's Cavern near Guilford, after which Mrs. Ralph Osborne, who had just returned from Greensboro where she was delegate to the state meeting, gave an interesting report of that meeting.

The next meeting of the organization will be held at the home of Mrs. Laura Miller on the second Monday in April.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE ENJOYABLE EVENT

Mrs. W. L. Wood entertained at her home Thursday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock, with a birthday surprise party, honoring her mother, Mrs. J. D. Ledbetter, on the occasion of her 63rd birthday anniversary. As the guests entered the room, they each showered the honoree with gifts, much to the surprise and delight of the latter. After a pleasant social hour, refreshments were served.

DAUGHTERS OF WESLEY ENJOY SOCIAL MEETING

Members of the Daughters of Wesley Sunday School class of the Methodist church met in the recreation rooms of the church Tuesday night for their regular business and social meeting.

Following the transaction of business pertaining to the class, a social feature was enjoyed. Each member brought her own lunch, which was exchanged with some one else, all enjoying eating together the box lunches.

AUXILIARY AND GUILD MEET WITH MRS. ALLISON

The Auxiliary and Guild of St. Phillips Episcopal church met at the home of Mrs. J. M. Allison Thursday afternoon. Eight members were present. Mrs. Frank Jenkins presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. David Ward.

Mrs. Benedict was appointed on the calling committee. A letter was read from Mrs. Patton, of Hendersonville, asking for donation for altar linen for Kaunga Lake, and the society voted to send a donation for this purpose. A letter was read asking for contributions for missions on the first Sunday in Lent. A request was made from a South Dakota mission for a box to be sent. It was decided to meet every Thursday at the home of Mrs. David Ward for mission study, with Mrs. Frank Jenkins as leader.

At the Guild meeting following that of the Auxiliary, it was voted to give a donation of $2 toward the Associated Charities fund. A check for $1,000 was paid on the church building fund, leaving a balance in the treasury of $169.80. A donation of clothing from the rummage sale was voted to be given to the Associated Charities. Mrs. H. V. Smedberg sent some fancy work to be made by the members to be placed on sale at the approaching bazaar. A social period and refreshments followed the business session.

H.A.W.K. CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING

Miss Geraldine Barrett and Robert Duckworth entertained jointly Saturday evening at the home of the former, the members of the H. A. W. K. Club.

Following the transaction of business, the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. Delicious frozen salad was served during the evening.
