Following is a list of the men who have agreed to raise one acre of tobacco on their farms:

W W N C GIVES TOWN WIDE PUBLICITY

G. O. Sheppard and Clyde Smith Guests of the Kiwanis Club

BROADCAST PROGRAM FOR TOWN AND COUNTY

Great Crowd Hears Officials Tell of Operation of Radio Station

Brevard Kiwanians enjoyed the greatest meeting in the history of the club last Thursday noon, when G. O. Sheppard and Clyde Smith, manager and assistant manager of Station W W N C, The Asheville Citizen's broadcasting station, were guests of honor at the meeting. Beginning promptly at 12 o'clock, as the members and guests were seated about the table, a special Brevard program was broadcast over W W N C, in which the beauties of this community, its natural advantages, its agricultural progress and manufacturing possibilities were given in detail. After this tribute to the community, a special musical program was given in Brevard's honor, lasting until 12:30, when Messrs Sheppard and Smith began their splendid addresses.

The speakers gave the Brevard men some idea of how a broadcasting station is operated, its obstacles and its achievements. Mr. Sheppard urged the citizens to make suggestions to the station, asserting that the only way the officials there could determine just the kind of programs that pleased the people or was not so good, was for the people to let their impressions be known to the station.

Mr. Smith told of the commercial side of the proposition, saying that no magic wand was moved across the station and enabled the operators to provide a continuous service from 8 o'clock in the morning until 12 o'clock midnight. It takes money, and lots of it. There are but few ways in which the company can raise money: Through advertising over the radio, just like newspaper advertising, and through the membership in the radio club, just like the subscription list is to the newspaper.

The visit of the two gentlemen to Brevard meant much to this community, and all citizens who had the pleasure of meeting with them and hearing them expressed great delight. Wm. E. Breese introduced the speakers, and thanked the radio officials for the Kiwanis club and for the town and county for selecting a Brevard man to broadcast the Sunday School lessons every Saturday evening over W W N C.

A Majestic radio was installed in the dining room for the occasion. This was done by Houston Furniture company, local Majestic agents.

REGULAR COMMUNICATION AT DUNN'S ROCK MASONIC LODGE

Regular meeting of Dunns Rock Masonic Lodge will be held Friday night at the Masonic Hall, beginning at 8 o'clock. The third degree will be conferred at this time.

SHADRICK BOYS BOUND TO COURT

Went on Warpath Saturday, and Several Heads Were Badly Banged Up

WILL BE TRIED IN NEXT WEEK'S SUPERIOR COURT

Interesting Evidence at Preliminary Hearing—The Trio Resting in Jail

Joe Shadrick, Jess Shadrick, Jim Shadrick and Bud Pressley were given preliminary hearing in Mayor Whitmire's court Tuesday morning, on two warrants charging assault and assault with intent to kill. The three Shadricks were bound over to Superior court, while Bud Pressley was not connected in the evidence with the case.

Evidence showed that the Shadrick boys and another man went to the home of Alonzo Holden Saturday night, where the latter was given a severe beating. Mrs. Holden testified that she was at her son's house next door, when she heard the racket, and ran into her own home. There she found, she swore, one of the Shadricks at one door, and another Shadrick at the other door, while two men in the room were beating her husband. She was not allowed to enter, she said, the Shadricks on the doors threatening her if she attempted to enter the house. She swore that one of the Shadricks knocked her daughter down when the daughter made effort to go to her father's rescue.

After leaving the Holden home, the Shadricks, it was testified, and another man not identified, rushed past the barber shop nearby, where several men had rushed out when they heard the screaming in the Holden home. The Shadricks, it was testified, knocked these men down as they came to them. In the crowd was Looney Owen, who turned the Shadrick trick on themselves, it was testified, and laid one of the Shadrick boys out.

Several heads all wrapped up were about the court house, mute evidence of the terrific force of what is commonly called "on the streets" "The Shadrick Rebellion." Arrests were made by Sheriff T. E. Patton, Jr., Deputy Tom Wood and Chief of Police Freeman, who were called to the scene and made the arrests. Their case will come up next Monday or Tuesday, it is believed, Ralph R. Fisher and Pat Kinzey appeared for the boys and will defend them in the higher court.

KEYSTONE CAMP REPORTS GOOD YEAR'S PROSPECTS

Word has been received from Miss Fannie Holt, director of Keystone Camp for Girls at Brevard, that she is anticipating an unusually good camp season this year. Miss Holt states that registrations are coming in better this year than ever before, and that a splendid and happy season is expected. Miss Holt is planning to arrive in Brevard about June 1st to remain through the season, which will be welcome news to her many friends here.

MISS VERNER WINS GORGAS CONTEST

Brings High Honor to County and the County Schools — Many Contestants

STATEWIDE VICTORY FOR YOUNG BREVARD LADY

Now Eligible for National Contest — Friends Hoping She Will Win Highest Award

Distinction of a high nature has been accorded Miss Laura Verner, in that she has been awarded the state prize for North Carolina in the second annual Gorgas Memorial Essay Contest, sponsored by the Gorgas Memorial Institute of Tropical and Preventive Medicine. In addition to receiving this high honor, Miss Verner was also recipient of a cash prize in the form of a check from the national sponsors.

Miss Verner, who is the daughter of Superintendent and Mrs. S. P. Verner, and a member of the senior class of 1930 of the Brevard High School, was winner among three contestants from the local High School, winning a bronze medal, thereby entitling her to enter the state contest in which she was winner over many other contestants. Having won in the state contest, Miss Verner will now be eligible to enter the national contest, competing for first prize among others contesting in the nation.

Forty-two students in as many states in the nation won Gorgas Memorial Institute cash prizes for the best essays written in their respective states, and 262 students won Gorgas medals for writing the best essay in their schools. A total of 4,741 essays were entered in the national contest.

In achieving this distinct honor by writing the best essay as adjudged by national judges, thereby winning first place in the state of North Carolina, Miss Verner has accomplished a commendable piece of work, reflecting credit upon herself, her school and the community in which she lives. Her many friends are congratulating her on this honor conferred upon her and predict for her the winning of first place in the final national contest.

FIDDLERS CONTEST HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

Prizes Being Offered for Best in the Several Classes—Big Crowd Expected

Great interest is being taken in the Old Fiddlers Contest to be staged this Friday evening at 8 o'clock, in the auditorium of the Brevard High School. Five prizes are to be given winners, three in solo work and two for string band excellence. The best banjo solo, either playing and singing or playing alone, will be awarded with a Swan hat given by the A. C. Glazener company. The best fiddle solo will draw a prize of a dress shirt given by Plummer's Department store. The best in mandolin, guitar, or other string instrument, a prize will be awarded by Pushell's Department store. The best two or three piece band will receive a cash prize, as will the best rendition by a string band of four or more pieces.

Men from all parts of the county have been "tuning up" their old instruments, and are coming with blood in their eye to win these prizes. It is expected that a large crowd will attend the affair, as the proceeds go to the athletic fund in paying off debts incurred last year in giving Brevard fine baseball and other sports events of the high school.

SHIPMAN RETURNS FROM WEEK IN NEW YORK CITY

T. H. Shipman, president of The Brevard Banking company, has returned from New York City, where he spent a week on business. The Brevard banker expresses belief that financial conditions will show some improvements within the near future. He says, however, that there can be no real revival of business until something is started which will give employment to working people. Progress is founded on production, he points out, and when working men are not producing, there can be but little activity.

LOCAL MEN WILL ATTEND TAX MEET

Much interest is being manifest in the tax meeting scheduled to be held in Raleigh on March 31st. The rate on real estate, which it is pointed out is excessive, is doing much to prolong the period of depression, advocates of a new measure, assert. The following men from this town and county have been appointed by Mayor T. W. Whitmire and Chairman J. H. Pickelsimer to attend the meeting next Monday: J. S. Silverstein, T. G. Miller, W. W. Croushorn, Carl Moltz, R. R. Fisher, S. W. Radford, J. S. Bromfield, W. E. Breese, J. F. Barrett.
