INTERESTING TALKS HEARD AT HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Regular meeting of the Home Economics club of the Brevard High School was held Tuesday morning in the Home Economics department rooms. Girls of the seventh grade were guests of the occasion.

After calling the meeting to order, the club song was sung and the motto given.

Several interesting talks were given, including one by Flora Reid on the required high school subjects; Pauline Powell on the requirements for college entrance; Mrs. Kimsey, on "How a girl is helped by the study of Home Economics."

Following the transaction of business, refreshments were served by Clara Barnette, Nell Duckworth, Mary Nell Black and Catherine Snelson.

WEDNESDAY CLUB HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

An unusually large attendance of the Brevard Wednesday club met at Mrs. E. W. Blythe's on the afternoon of March 19th. There were only three absentees from roll call.

Mrs. H. N. Carrier gave an invitation from the state president to attend the general convention in Colorado in June.

The following question was brought up for discussion: Should the new officers elected at the next club meeting in April enter office at once, or wait, as has been customary, until the first meeting of the new club year in September? The majority of the members thought it would be better for the present officers to continue until the close of the club year.

NEWS ITEMS FROM THE BAPTIST CHURCH

There will be no preaching service at the Baptist church Sunday night, March 30. We are to join the other churches in a union service at the Presbyterian church.

Mr. Ralph Ramsey has recently been elected director of our Baptist Young Peoples' Union. He makes the following announcement: The Senior, Intermediate and Junior unions are launching an intensive campaign for new members. The campaign starts Sunday night and continues through April. Each union will set as its goal the doubling of its membership. B. Y. P. U. meets Sunday evening at 6:30. Visitors welcome.

A most interesting and enjoyable social was given by the Livingston Circle of the Womans' Missionary Society, at the home of Mrs. Avery Case, last Friday evening. Games, contests, music and readings featured the entertainment. It was an evening of intelligent amusement. Delicious refreshments were served.

The Brevard Baptist church is sponsoring a county-wide Sunday School enlargement campaign. The campaign will begin as soon as we can secure the co-operation of the churches in this association and get the men from our Sunday School Board to lead us.
