

FROM THE FILES OF THE BREVARD NEWS

30 YEARS AGO.
The crop of rain is remarkably short for this month of May. There hasn't been sufficient rainfall this month to lay the dust—but it is due us and we will probably have a "gully-washer" some of the fine days.

Such another fruit crop as is promised this year has not been seen in Transylvania county in many years. Every tree big enough to produce a blossom is loaded to its full capacity. This is true of all varieties of fruit and means that payment of all debts in the county if the crop is properly cared for.

Mr. J. W. Pless has severed his connection with Brevard, and has departed our borders for a permanent location in Marion, N. C. Mrs. Pless is an ornament to any society which is graced by her personality, and the ties which were severed by her departure have caused wounds here which will be slow in healing. By their removal Brevard loses while Marion gains two brilliant attractions which we hope our sister city will learn to appreciate, as Brevard appreciates them. The News bids them Godspeed.

Miss Maude Jacobs of Lake Toxaway visited Miss Kathleen Erwin last week, returning home on Saturday.

Prof. C. H. Trowbride of the Brevard Institute, went to Waynesville this week to attend the meeting of the State Woman's Missionary society.

On the train bound for Asheville Monday were the following representative citizens: W. M. Rogers, J. W. McMinn, C. M. Cooke, A. H. King, C. E. Orr, T. H. Galloway, J. J. Miner and Mayor Wm. E. Breeze. This was a great subtraction for one day, but so well oiled is the town machinery that it kept running on as if nothing had happened.

10 YEARS AGO.
Miss Lucy Pfister, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Pfister of Blumont, Va., and Judge Robert Lenoir Gash of Brevard were married on Saturday, at Glenmeade, the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Malcom Taylor. The wedding was a very quiet one owing to the illness of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. S. Bromfield, who is now in a hospital in Washington. After a delicious luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Gash left on an extended tour after which they will make their home in Brevard, where Judge Gash is engaged in the practice of his profession.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Whitmire and young son, Thomas, were visiting in Asheville this week.

Prof. Oliver Orr of Brevard Institute conducted the services at the Brevard Methodist church last Sun-

THE PRAYER CORNER

THE HEAVENLINESS OF A LITTLE CHILD
Matthew 14:4, 5
I have added another verse, PLEASE READ BOTH. I begin with the closing sentence of last week's Prayer Corner, "It is only the childlike life of the parent living in great simplicity of truth and trust with the Father in Heaven, that can maintain the childlikeness in the child too."

To this end let us take in the lesson our Saviour has. WHOSO RECEIVETH SUCH LITTLE CHILD IN MY NAME, RECEIVETH ME.

Let us at their birth receive our children in the name of Jesus, in His Spirit, with His appreciation of their simplicity and humility. Let us receive them in His Name, as those whom He loves and blesses, and of whom He says "of such is the Kingdom," to be kept and trained for Him and His Kingdom alone. Let us receive them in His Name as sent by Jesus to remind us of HIS OWN CHILDLIKE HUMILITY and OBEEDIENCE TO THE FATHER and the Heaven from which He came to draw us thither too. Let us receive them and cherish them in His Name, just as He would receive them and bless them. Let us receive them in His Name just as we would receive Himself.

Yes, just as we would receive Himself. This is not saying too much, for He asks and promises nothing less. "He that receiveth one such little child in my Name receiveth me." He that recognizes and loves the humility, the childlikeness, the Christlikeness of the little child and on this account receives and treasures the child receives Christ Himself. This is the promise. With every child something of Heaven and of Christ comes into the house. In many cases it is not noticed, not cared for, and all of Heaven is pushed aside by the world. Blessed are they who know truly to receive the child in Jesus Name, a being from Heaven, and like heaven and for heaven—they receive Himself. He comes to such with the little one to be its and their Saviour. "Whosoever receiveth one such little child in my Name, receiveth me."

"With the child He sets in their midst, He takes the parents afresh into His training, to teach them how to be great in the Kingdom of Heaven. He comes to make their child a blessing to them, that so they may be prepared to be a real blessing to it. He comes to bless parent and child together, and make the home what it was meant to be—day evening. Prof. Orr came in a case of emergency to relieve the circumstances occasioned by the serious impediment to the voice of Rev. W. F. Powell, who is suffering with la grippe.

the picture, the promise, the pathway to the Father's Home in Heaven.

Dear parents, shall we not ask our Lord Jesus most earnestly to open our minds to take in His Divine thoughts about the heavenliness of our children; to open our eyes to see Him in them, to bring our hearts into perfect sympathy with Himself, so that our little ones may day by day be the blessed messengers that lead us to Heaven, that bring to us JESUS HIMSELF, the LIFE and the LIGHT OF HEAVEN.

A PRAYER
Blessed Lord, open our ears to hear what Thou speakest, and our eyes to see as Thou seest. Give us hearts to beat in sympathy with Thine at the sight of every little child; and above all, our Lord, to understand and experience how surely and how blessedly Thou fulfillst Thy promise, "Whosoever receiveth one such little child in My Name, receiveth Me."
Blessed Lord, we do thank Thee that, however feeble we be and how ever far short our attainments fall of what we should be, in receiving a child in Thy Name we receive Thee. Thou comest Thyself to be our teacher and our helper. We pray Thee to strengthen us, and all parents in this faith, that we may rightly understand that nowhere art Thou nearer or more ready to bless than in the home where the children are received in Thy Name, to be blessed by Thee, to be trained for Thee. Amen.

Cherryfield News

Farmers are busy in their crops. The large amount of rain has prevented some planting their gardens.

The Cherryfield Farms is still in progress. The writer has been informed that they have 400 pheasant eggs setting and have some few fish. The hotel on the farm will soon be ready for use.

Tom McKenna, who has been working on the farm, has moved back to his home on Highway 28.

Tom Galloway and family spent Sunday on the Cherryfield Farms, and they were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Southers were visiting the former's sister near Pickens Sunday.

Fred Whitmire has returned from New Mexico.

Mrs. Eugene Souther and Mrs. Ed Landan visited Mrs. Bill Davis at Rosman Monday.

Ed Landan is attending Federal court in Asheville this week.

Work is still in progress on the Silver Fox Farms.
