THE BREVARD NEWS IS NON PARTISAN IN THE EXTREME, NOW AND ALWAYS.

The Brevard News is to remain in the future, as in the past, an independent, non partisan, community-boosting, county newspaper, to the very highest degree that it is possible for a county newspaper to be.

The fact that the editor of The Brevard News is a candidate on one of the party tickets for the office of state senate makes absolutely no difference in the policy of The Brevard News. This newspaper will be just as fair to one candidate for state senate as it is to the other.

Both parties will be accorded identical treatment, insofar as our news gatherers are able to gather the news and present it to the public, in an unbiased, unprejudiced, fair and square manner.

The Brevard News is much more interested in the welfare and advancement of Transylvania county and her fine people than it is in the success or failure of either or both political parties.

The Brevard News is a county institution, and is not the tool of any man, set of men, political party or partisan group. It is a servant of ALL the people of this county, and as such must Serve ALL alike. Amongst its subscribers are democrats, republicans and independents; Baptists, Methodists, Presbyterians, Episcopalians, and several other groups in the religious field; merchants, farmers, lawyers, doctors, factory owners and factory workers; preachers, teachers, tourists; rich folks and poor folks and ordinary folks, financially speaking; old people and young people, town people and country people, and to the very best of its ability this newspaper is serving all just alike.

The Brevard News is hopeful that all the citizens will assist whenever they can in helping our force to make The Brevard News the ideal county newspaper—under general obligations to every one of its subscribers and under special obligations to none of them—free, fearless and footloose, fighting for Transylvania county first, last and all the time.

LARGE NUMBER OF CANDIDATES OFFERING.

Over in Buncombe county there are almost one hundred candidates seeking county offices, nominations to which will be made in the June primaries. Among these candidates are many men who have hosts of friends in Transylvania county, and these are very naturally interested in the outcome of the contest. Fact is, there is just about as much interest being taken here in the Buncombe county situation as is expressed in local affairs.

The Brevard News has many warm friends among those Buncombe county candidates, one among them being of especial interest. C. G. Worley is asking the democrats to nominate him for sheriff. For some fifteen years, the editor of The Brevard News was closely associated with him, and no finer man ever lived than Garrett Worley. True as steel, honest as the day is long, faithful to every trust, considerate in the extreme of the rights of every one, deeply sensible of even his smallest obligation, Mr. Worley is worthy of any honor that his party can bestow upon him. He has friends throughout the state who will be watching the returns from the Buncombe county primary, and if sincere good wishes could be counted as votes, there would be no doubt whatever of Garrett Worley's nomination.

Several articles and editorials had to be left out this week on account of advertisements which came in late. Please bear with us this time.

Nurse (to eight year old Bobby)—“Would you like me to show you the nice, cute brother the stork brought your mother?”

Bobby thought a minute and his answer was typical—“Say, Nurse, if it's all the same with you, I'd rather see the stork!”

MRS. JULIA CAPPS.

(By Thomas Johnson.)
Mrs. J. C. Capps died Sunday, May 18, at her home in the Little River section, after an illness of more than a year. Mary gave her heart to Jesus and joined the Baptist church at an early age. She was 67 years of age at the time of her death. The great crowd of sorrowing people who attended her funeral and the beautiful floral offering told more plainly than words can express, of her beautiful and helpful life. All who knew her will miss her.

She leaves to mourn the loss a loving, grief-stricken husband, and three children: Rev. Raleigh Capps, of Pisgah Forest; Mrs. Morris Gosnell, of Balfour, and Mrs. Howard Summey, of Greenville, S. C. Nine grandchildren also survive.

The deceased leaves seven brothers and sisters, as follows: Boyd and Perry Moore, of Dowrey, Calif.; Edwin Moore, of Roosevelt, Okla.; Elbert Moore, Mrs. Luther Wilson and Mrs. Joe Johnson, of Brevard.

Funeral services were conducted at Little River church by the Rev. Vaughn, the pastor. The pallbearers were eight nephews, and the flower girls were eight nieces.

May God bless the sorrowing relatives and friends.

SCHOOL CLINIC MET WITH SATISFACTORY RESPONSE

Great success attended the school clinic held last week for examination of children who will enter school next fall for the first time. It is said that some twenty-five children were given examination by the physicians of the town, who gave their services free to the county in making these examinations.

Dr. G. B. Lynch, Dr. Chas. L. Newland, Dr. E. S. English and Dr. R. L. Stokes were all present at the clinic, which was held in grammar school building, under auspices of the Parent-Teacher association.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for the kindnesses shown us in the sickness and death of our beloved daughter and sister, and for the beautiful floral offerings. May God bless each and every one.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Gillespie and Family.

THOMAS LOFTIS SERIOUSLY ILL AT MRS. KING'S HOME

Tommy Loftis is critically ill, being at the home of his aunt, Mrs. King, on Probarbe street. Eugene Loftis, a brother who is a conductor on the Southern Railway, arrived in Brevard Wednesday to be with him.

GIRL SCOUTS MEET ON THURSDAY AT NEW PLACE

Notice is given of the change of date of the meeting of the Girl Scouts from Friday to Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Plummer Building. The Scout master urges that all members be present as there are important plans to be discussed.

JURY TRIALS SET FOR TERM OF GENERAL COUNTY COURT

County court will convene next Monday for the trial of cases demanding jury hearings. The jurors have been summoned, and it may require two or three days to try the cases on docket.

MRS. FLORENCE E. VALDES

Mrs. Florence E. Valdes died last Saturday at Mountain Sanatorium, Fletchers, and the body was taken to Charleston, the family home, on Sunday, for interment.

The deceased was well known in Brevard, where she had lived for a number of years. She was a member of the Episcopal church, and was most active in church work.

DR. PEARCE CRITICALLY ILL

Dr. R. S. Pearce is critically ill at his home in Brevard. Relatives and friends are greatly concerned about his condition.

“I hate those impromptu complexions, don't you.”
“What do you mean?”
“Those they make up as they go along.”—London Opinion.

INSTITUTE OFFER
MOST APPEALING

Announcement is made that the Brevard Institute will conduct a summer school, beginning May 31 and ending July 25, which will be of great benefit to the community. High school and commercial courses will be offered, and the actual amount of class room time is said to be equivalent to that of a regular term.

The Institute is making especially low prices for the summer school, offering boarding pupils the session, including everything but books, for $50 for the term. Day pupils will be accepted for the small sum of $8 for the term.

It is believed that many people from other sections of the state and adjoining states will take advantage of this offer.

BOLIN IS IMPROVING,
ACCORDING TO REPORTS

Friends of A. C. Bolin, of the Carolina Cleaners, will be glad to know that he shows some signs of improvement during the past few days. Mr. Bolin suffered hemorrhage of the brain several days ago, and was removed to Knoxville, Tenn., for treatment. It was feared that he would lose his eyesight, but last reports are to the effect that this may be averted.

CHARLES DUNN SUFFERING BLOOD POISONING ATTACK

Blood poisoning in the hand, caused by an injury received while fighting forest fires, is causing Mr. Chas. Dunn great suffering, and much concern is felt for him by his friends. Mr. Dunn is at his Pisgah Forest home, taking treatment for the poisoning.
