FORTNIGHTLY CLUB HOLDS LAST MEETING

Generally pronounced a most enjoyable social event was the final meeting for the club year of the Brevard Fortnightly club, which occasion was in the nature of an informal luncheon held at the home of one of the members, Mrs. J. E. Waters, Thursday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock.

The dining tables were beautifully arranged with the club colors, yellow and white, predominating in the center table decoration of yellow iris, the dainty handpainted place cards, and the delicious course luncheon, the latter served by the hostesses' two attractive daughters, Misses Almata and Willie Kate Waters.

Following the luncheon, a short program was rendered by the club members, including: Reading, "The Bride," by Mrs. H. E. Boucher; musical wedding contest, supervised by Mrs. J. E. Loftis, at the piano, and Mrs. Goode Loftis; magic writing game, supervised by Mrs. J. S. Nicholson; Fortnightly Club Alphabet, original verses read by Miss Trowbridge, a copy of which, in the form of a scroll tied with yellow ribbon, was presented to each member and guest at the conclusion of the program.

Club members present and out-of-town invited guests, who were former members of the club, included: Mrs. J. R. Hamlin, West Asheville; Mrs. W. O. K. King, Canton; Mrs. F. A. Starrette, Rutherfordton; Mrs. A. L. Aycock, High Point; Mrs. R. Y. Neel, Johnson City, Tenn.; Mrs. Julian A. Glazener, Mrs. J. F. Winton, Mrs. H. A. Plummer, Mrs. J. E. Loftis, Mrs. Z. W. Nichols, Mrs. J. S. Nicholson, Mrs. J. C. Wike, Mrs. H. E. Boucher, Mrs. J. F. Zachary, Mrs. Goode Loftis, Mrs. W. H. Underwood, Mrs. J. E. Waters, Mrs. Cordia King, Miss Alma Trowbridge, all of Brevard.

STEAK FRY AT SHIPMAN'S CABIN

Among the several enjoyable social events of the week was a steak fry last Friday evening at the Shipman Cabin, when about twenty members of the younger set enjoyed the hospitality of Hays Shipman.

While dancing was a main feature of the evening, much pleasure was had in the solos sung by Henry Erwin, who greatly entertained the party.

A delightful luncheon was spread while the steak was being fried, making a very appetizing meal.

The party consisted of Misses Sara Louise Andrews, Almata Waters, Mollie Snelson, Martha Vaughn, Jean and Gladys English, Rebecca Summey and Robert Duckworth, Hays Shipman, Joe Schachner, Everett Simpson, Julius Hinton, Ruel Hunt, Henry Erwin and Tom Patton, with Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Alexander as chaperones.

JOINT HOSTESSES ENTERTAIN WITH DANCE

Greatly enjoyable was the dance given by Misses Gladys Wood, Catherine Osborne and Elizabeth Mills who were joint hostesses to a large number of friends last Friday evening at the home of Miss Wood.

Dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening during which delightful refreshments of punch and cake were served.

About twenty members of the younger set enjoyed the evening.

HOME-MAKERS TO PROVIDE FLOWERS

Mrs. J. K. Mills and Mrs. C. S. Osborne were joint hostesses to the Home-Makers Class at the home of the former Tuesday afternoon, in a most enjoyable meeting. After the business session, a happy social hour was provided in most appropriate surroundings. The living room was decorated with native wild flowers, and notable in the scheme was a large vase of mountain laurel.

Mrs. S. W. Radford, president, presided at the meeting, and reports of various committees gave interesting information of splendid work being done by the organization. Of interest was the decision by the members of the Home-Makers Class to provide flowers each day for decoration in the church during the revival which starts next Sunday. Mrs. W. S. Price and Mrs. C. W. Pickelstimer were named as a committee to attend to this work. Mrs. C. R. McNeely and Mrs. W. W. Pruette were named on a committee to supervise decorations in the Sunday School class rooms during the next month. The meeting hour was changed from 3 o'clock to 3:30 o'clock.

VIRGINIA WARD HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

Fourteen young friends of Virginia Ward enjoyed a pleasant afternoon on Friday when she delightfully entertained on the event of her eighth birthday.

At the conclusion of the many enjoyable games, the young guests were invited into the dining room to be served with ice cream and cake.

Adding much to the pleasure of the afternoon was the opening of the many gifts of the guests to their hostess.

GIRL'S AUXILIARY HAS INTERESTING MEETING

Miss Winifred Nicholson was hostess to the members of the Business Girls' Auxiliary at her home Tuesday evening in what was said to be one of the most interesting meetings of the year.

The program was conducted by Mrs. Oliver Orr, who made very interesting reports on her recent trip to the State Conference meeting at High Point, relating the plea made by the returned missionaries who so vividly described the suffering and need of the natives. Representatives from Japan, Africa, China were presented, either by native or returned missionary at the conference.

During the short social hour that followed the business session, the hostess served delightful refreshments.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Orr, June 17.

AIKEN-NEULAND NUPTIALS AT NOON SATURDAY

Next Saturday, at high noon, Miss Nell Aiken will be married to Dr. Charles Logan Newland, at the bride's home in North Brevard. Rev. Dr. J. H. West, pastor of the Brevard Methodist church, will officiate. The affair will be informal, with only a very few of the bride's relatives present. Immediately after the ceremony the couple will leave for Kentucky, where it is planned to spend a few days with the groom's father, after which they will visit Canada, and be at home to their friends in North Brevard after June 10.

Miss Aiken is one of the most popular young women in Brevard, attractive, accomplished and beautiful. Dr. Newland came to Brevard two years ago, and has already established a fine reputation as physician and surgeon.

BLANCHE BARRUS CIRCLE MEETS WITH MRS. LONG

The Blanche Barrus Circle met with Mrs. Roy Long Tuesday afternoon in a most pleasant and profitable session. Mrs. Brown Carr had charge of the program, and after devotionals and business session was held. One of the important matters acted upon was the decision to make contribution to a fund to send a negro delegate to the convention for colored people to be held in Knoxville in June.

Mrs. Carr gave an outline on the second chapter in the book being studied by the club, entitled: "A Day of Small Things," by Emma Seward Pruitt. At the conclusion of the program a social hour was enjoyed, during which Mrs. Long served refreshments. The Circle will meet on the third Tuesday in June with Mrs. Lewis Osborne.

HONORING MISS AIKEN AT BRIDGE TEA

Among the courtesies given for Miss Nell Aiken, bride-elect of Saturday, will be a bridge and tea given by Mrs. Frank M. Whiteside at her home on Maple street at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Four tables of bridge will be made and ten tea guests have been invited.

CAPPS-ANDERSON

Word has been received in Brevard of the recent marriage in Tryon of Miss Mabel Capps to Mr. Joe Kelsey Anderson, of Cashiers. Because of the prominence of the families this wedding created great interest. Miss Capps is one of the most attractive and popular members of Tryon society, and was given many parties before her marriage. Mr. Anderson is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Anderson, leading family of Cashiers, and is one of the most popular young men in his section, and has wide connections in Transylvania county.

The young couple will reside at Cashiers.

W. M. U. MEETS

The W. M. U. of the Baptist church met in the ladies' parlor on Wednesday afternoon, May 14, with eleven members present.

Mrs. J. B. Jones gave an interesting program on the subject "On Good Ground" with the assistance of Mesdames Norwood and Osborne. After a short business session the meeting adjourned.

GLENN MILLER HOST AT DANCE

Glenn Miller was host to a large number of friends at a dance at his home on Probarte street Wednesday evening.

Dancing was greatly enjoyed during the evening. Punch and cakes were served by the host's mother, Mrs. T. G. Miller.

Among those enjoying the hospitality of their host were: Misses Gladys English, Margaret Miller, Almata Waters, Jean English, Rebecca Summey, Martha Vaughn, Rowena Orr, Gladys Wood, Elizabeth Mills, Helen Ebbs, Jessie Anderson and Henry Erwin, Jimmie Sledge, Craig Cathey, Mitchell King, Milton Sellers, Hays Shipman, Paul and Joe Schachner, Ruel Hunt, Tom Patton, Julius Hinton, Moultrie Truluck, T. J. McCall, Robert Duckworth, Garland Sledge and Joe Tinsley.

MRS. CLARKE HOSTESS TO WEDNESDAY CLUB

Mrs. Harry Clarke was hostess to the Brevard Wednesday Book Club which met on the afternoon of May 14 at Rockbrook, with fourteen members present.

Mrs. S. P. Verner had charge of the program and gave a most interesting talk on Panama. She read a beautiful poem written by Professor Verner on one of the most beautiful orcsids of Central America, the name being El Spirito Santo.

Each member of the club was gratified to receive a typed copy of this poem.

The next meeting will be on May 21st with Mrs. O. L. Erwin, with Mrs. Simons as program leader.

A copy of the poem read by Mrs. Verner follows:

EL SPIRITO SANTO
Fair spirit of a frostless clime,
Who taught thee to array thy plume
With snow-drops on each gleaming bloom,
As if some dream of winter time
Stole softly o'er the Mexic sea
And brought a spotless soul to thee?
What means that purplish-crimson spot,
Blushing ashamed to be the blot
That mars the whiteness of thy crest?
Or no, are they the anguish tears
That gentle breast in silence bears
Sighing in vain for winter's rest?
Sweet spirit, why dost cage the dove
So deeply in thy petaled bower.
It is not seemly for a flower
To keep the emblem of eternal love
Emprisoned even in such chains
As rob a prison of its pains.
L' Envoy
I bare my snow-white breast
To the stormy tropic breeze
Because my soul's at rest.
And I know that he who sees
The dove I in my bosom keep,
Must feel his soul within his leap
To higher aims, and nobler strife,
That living may indeed be life!

REPUBLICANS

On June 7 each of you will have an opportunity of showing your appreciation for a man who has done much for you, and at the same time show your interest and pride in a man of your own county.

RALPH R. FISHER

Is a candidate for the nomination for the office of solicitor on the republican ticket. This year the republicans must go into the primary to vote for a candidate for solicitor and for United States Senator. Congressman George M. Pritchard is a candidate for nomination for the United States Senate, and Mr. Fisher is a candidate for the nomination of solicitor.

WE URGE YOU

To go to the primary voting place, your regular voting booth, on June 7th and vote for these men. Mr. Fisher is opposed for the nomination by Mr. Dockery, of Rutherfordton, and Mr. Lisenbee, of Marion. Both of these are real good men, but we believe that all of us want our old tried and true friend, Ralph Fisher, to have this nomination.

Fisher Has Stood By Us--- Let's Now Stand By Him

There are six counties in this district—Transylvania, Henderson, Polk, McDowell, Rutherford and Yancey. Unless Mr. Fisher gets his full vote in Transylvania county, there is but little chance of his getting the nomination. So let's all of us, every republican man and woman in the county, go to the primary and vote for Ralph Fisher.

New Registration In Cedar Mountain

A new registration has been ordered in Cedar Mountain township. Let all the republicans in that township see to it that they are registered by next Saturday, else they cannot vote in the primary.

TELL YOUR NEIGHBOR

To go with you to the polls and vote for Ralph R. Fisher for Solicitor on June 7th. It means much to him, and to our county. Let's give him a rousing vote in the primary.
