

SOCKS HIS HOBBY, SAYS MR. GLAZENER

Never Had Any of His Own Until He Was Grown, That's Why.

HOLE IN THE HEEL OR THE TOE IS USELESS WORRY

Lots of Lies About Drummers, But Truth Is Stranger Than Fiction.

Theodore Roosevelt, Woodrow Wilson, George Washington, Abe Lincoln and I myself, and nearly all other big men have had their Hobbies. Roosevelt was a big game hunter; Lincoln loved books; Washington delighted in cutting down cherry trees and throwing silver dollars across the Potomac, while Abe Lincoln was fond of splitting rails.

Well, my hobby is Socks—Men's Socks. You see, I was a grown young man before I had any socks except those handed down to me by my daddy and older brothers. As a boy I wanted pretty socks; as a young man I craved good socks. Time passed, and I got started into the goods business, and the first thing I ordered was a great sluice of men's socks. In all my merchandising experience, I have always delighted in buying Men's Socks—Socks of all kinds, and for all kinds of men, and large stocks of socks. I'd rather sell socks than to eat ice cream or watermelon. All my business associates have made fun of me for buying such quantities of Men's Socks.

Just now I have a large stock of men's socks, recently bought at a great bargain, and I am selling these All Silk Socks for 19 cents a pair and 25 cents a pair. If there is a man in Transylvania county who has a hole in the toe or heel of his sock I hope that it worries him so that he can't half work, until he comes in here and gets a supply of these silk socks which we are all but giving away. Better stop writing about socks for fear some fellow will sock me in the jaw.

IT'S GOOD TO BE GOOD LOOKING

Every man to his taste. Now, take James McCall, the young man in our store. He knows exactly what young men want, and he's crazy about caps, so at his suggestion we bought a bunch of Caps for Men and Young Men that are beauties, indeed, if you are cap-inclined. There are Sport Caps in all colors, shades, hues and shapes. Frankly, we've never been so foolish about Caps, until this shipment came in, and the men and young men began trying them on and wearing them. It makes them so good looking and gives them such a fetching air, that we are getting just about as foolish about these Caps as Mr. Anybody Else.

30 HOURS FROM BROADWAY

Mrs. Glazener was in New York, buying Dresses for the store. One lot was such a great pick-up that she brought them back with her. Hardly had these styles passed down Broadway until they were in our store. These Silk Dresses are now selling at $3.95 to $8.95—and they are indeed in truth, so help us Moses, just about the prettiest things you ever say for the money. If you love your wife, then buy her one of these Dresses, and she will love you more and more and better still.

Then, too, there is a lot of Voile Dresses in the shipment which take the cake for everyday wear. Selling for only $1.95, you can afford to have one morning, another for afternoon, and another for after supper. Or, you can just wear the same one all day, and it still looks good and drowsy, cool and comfy.

LOTS OF LIES HAVE BEEN TOLD ABOUT DRUMMERS

But this is no lie, no sir, it is the dying truth, or the living truth, whichever you prefer. There was a Drummer (people call them salesmen now), but there was a Drummer who had a lot of Samples in his Sample Cases this Spring. These Samples he carried about and showed to the merchants. Well, the time came when he had to turn this Spring and Summer line of Sample in, and take out the Fall and Winter line of Samples. There are a whole lot of these Samples, but they are in only two sizes—4 and 4½. We bought the whole capoodle of these Samples, every last one of them. We bought them for nearly nothing, and we are selling them the same way. These are shoes that retail everywhere for $5 and $6. We are selling them at $2.50. If you can wear a 4 or a 4½, and want a genuine bargain in the latest shoe for women, then come right here to yours truly, plunk down a little old two dollars and a half, and walk right out again with a shore-enough $5 or $6 pair of shoes under your arm.

I am plumb crazy about the bargains here in my store, and I want you all to go crazy, too, and get the spirit of enthusiasm and save yourselves enough money to pay your old taxes, and then you'll be happy. We are not going to live long, any of us, so let's live good while we're here, and have just lots of things for comfort and pleasure. I believe you will live a little longer, I know you will live happier, if you'll get the habit of happiness that comes to those who trade here.

Come in Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday, this week and all the weeks that are to follow, and let's all be happy and prosperous.

Yours for Socks and Bargains,
