77TH BIRTHDAY IS CELEBRATED

On Sunday, June 8, on a beautiful knoll covered with large spreading oaks surrounded by large cotton fields three miles south of Piedmont, S. C., Mr. Jordan P. Waldrop celebrated his 77th birthday, together with from one to two hundred of his kinfolks.

Mr. Waldrop is the youngest son of the late Alfred Waldrop of Greenville county, S. C., and the only one living of a family of ten.

Mr. Waldrop had seven brothers and two sisters, all of whom have passed on to their reward, and he is gently waiting for the time to come when he too can join the loved ones who have gone on.

When just a boy, and at the close of the Civil War, he with his father, older brothers and one sister moved to what is known as the Crawford farm some six miles south of Brevard, in Transylvania county, N. C. After spending several years in North Carolina the family moved back to South Carolina with the exception of Robert and Amey, who married and lived the rest of their lives in North Carolina (Robert marrying Miss Kathryn Harris, and Amey marrying the late William Duckworth).

After returning to South Carolina Mr. Waldrop married Miss Tina Davidson, of Pickens, S. C., who is his only companion, and who has already passed her 75th mile post. Of this marriage there are seven children living. Two living in Charlotte, N. C., one in Baltimore, M. D. on in Florida, two in Greenville, and one in Piedmont, S. C.

It was on this special occasion that the writer, and a nephew, together with all the family except one, with their families, and with a host of cousins, nephews, nieces and friends too numerous to name met at this particular time and place to celebrate their father, grandfather and uncle's birthday. After meeting, shaking hands with uncle, aunt, cousins and friends, we were entertained by hearing the honor guest of the occasion tell of days gone by, and especially the history of our forefathers who first came to America and settled in the Carolinas.

About 12:30 we were attracted by a large mail plane as she crossed the heavens bound south, and a little later we heard an unusual noise, one that we were not accustomed to hearing; upon investigation we found that it came from the rear, and just opposite the dining hall of the beautiful home, and under some large spreading oaks. Closer examination revealed to the delight of all present that it was the legs of the long dining table groaning under their heavy weight of the many good things that had been placed upon them for us to eat.

After a short history of the family by Mr. Waldrop, a few remarks by J. E. Hudson of Charlotte, thanks were returned by the pastor, Rev. Ben Davenport, of Piedmont, and everybody were invited to partake of the many good things that were set before them.

After dinner we all spent several hours in reminiscence, and before we were aware of the fact it was time to say good-bye—and as we turned our faces homeward, we felt that this was a day long to be remembered.

SCOUT NEWS

BY SCOUT REPORTER

The Boy Scouts met at Transylvania Camp Friday, June 21, at 9 o'clock. The first thing, of course, was a swim. For we were about to roast by degrees. The water was very cool and refreshing and we were soon feeling in good shape for the Jamboree. Randolph Meyers of Savannah, Ga., who is spending the summer here, was with us for the afternoon. Randolph is the proud possessor of an EAGLE badge, the most coveted honor in all Scouting. This badge is received only after months and months of hard work and none of the Brevard boys have as yet completed the necessary requirements.

Now what do you know about this! We had to postpone the Jamboree until a later date because several of the boys were absent and we lacked competent judges. Nevertheless, the Inter-patrol Jamboree will be held on the Brevard High School Athletic field, Friday, July 11. The public is cordially invited to be present and view our attempts at signaling, drilling, first aid, and fire-building.

Now that our intended project was rejected, we had to find something to do to pass the time away. This was an easy task and soon the boys were scattered about, signaling, shooting horse shoes, golfing and what have you. Four of the Silver Fox Patrol went on a golfing expedition. One should have seen those future Bobby Jones go. They would par one hole and then over par the next.

Scoutmaster Miller drilled us for a time and found that as yet we are dumb insofar as drilling is concerned. He used only a few of the fundamental commands and our response to them was slow.

We ate supper at various times during the afternoon and at seven-thirty rushed to the gym to hold Scout meeting. Why do those Eagle Scouts persist in flaunting their badges in your face? We had as a visitor another Eagle Scout. He answers to the call of Oliver Allen, and hails from Winter Haven, Fla. He is a likeable chap and an experienced expert when it comes to Scout work, especially Reptile Study.

A baseball game in signaling and a few games of "Capture the Flag" ended the official program for the evening. Several of the boys spent the night in camp. I hope they had a fine time.

SARGON GAVE HER SURPRISE OF LIFE

"I took nearly every medicine recommended for my trouble but nothing did me any real good until I took Sargon, and it gave me the surprise of my life. I could hardly Sargon gave me a splendid appetite and my digestion is perfect. I never have headaches, I'm fast regaining my lost weight and have just lots of new strength and energy.

LET US LIVE OUR PATRIOTISM

WHEN Freedom from her mountain height Unfurled her standard to the air, She tore the azure robe of night, And set the stars of glory there."

On the Fourth of July we celebrate the birthday of freedom. The "stars of glory" will shine brightly in our flag only so long as we maintain loyalty.

This means more than talking patriotism. It means living it. On this Independence Day let us resolve to be better citizens by informing ourselves even better about the problems of the times!
