

FROM THE FILES OF THE BREVARD NEWS

10 YEARS AGO
Mrs. H. H. Patton and children have arrived from Florida and are the guests of her mother, Mrs. T. D. England.

Since the inauguration of special summer passenger train service to the "Land of Waterfalls" by the Southern Railway System, such streams of tourists have been pouring into Brevard and other resorts of the mountains of Western North Carolina that passenger officials are predicting that travel this season will even surpass that of last year when the Southern brought in over a hundred thousand tourists during the summer season.

Steps should be taken at once to get the Corporation Commission to ascertain what kind of telephone service Brevard and Transylvania county are entitled to and also to ascertain how much the present service falls short of what the public is entitled to.

20 YEARS AGO
Brevard needs more and wider streets. Why not lay out the town now instead of waiting until it is as large as Asheville, and then have to buy and tear down buildings to make room for street extensions?

Dan Richardson's orchestra of Charlotte, one of the best in the Carolinas, will arrive at the Franklin this evening for the summer.

Invitations are out for the annual reception at the Franklin, Monday, July fourth.

30 YEARS AGO
People who are keeping tab on the weather report only three days in June without rain. This is a record for moisture which the ocean might well be proud of.

The display of bunting on Main Street July Fourth was meagre, being confined entirely to The News office. It seems that our people must go away from home if they ever see a Fourth of July celebration. Even the post office, a branch of the government, failed to display the national colors.

An office of the Southern express company has been opened at the depot, and Brevard will now have the advantages which follow direct express connections. The first noticeable result of the new order of things was the arrival of the Charlotte department of The News one day sooner than usual. We expect to be on time hereafter.

Oakland News Items

Several folks from our community attended the singing convention at Brevard Sunday.

Mrs. Lee F. Norton and Mrs. R. G. Matheson and little daughters, Billie-Jo, Mary and Martha, left last week for Little Rock, Ark., where Mrs. Matheson will join her husband who is employed there by the Luton Bridge Co. Mrs. Norton expects to be gone six weeks or more. While away she expects to visit relatives at Mena, Ark., also in Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Sanders were Brevard visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Reid and son Leo, called on Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McCall Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. C. W. Fisher made a business trip to Enka one day last week.

Selica News Notes

We were certainly glad to see East Fork back on the line again last week and to know her tobacco crop is doing nicely. We are sorry about the worms cutting it. We have a remedy or at least one of our prominent and successful farmers, W. W. Galloway, has trained his chickens to help him, believe it or not. Come and see.

Elzie McKinna and sons of Pickens, S. C., were visitors in our section Sunday and Monday.

Luther Garren and party were visitors in South Carolina Saturday. Jetter Barton and his aunt, Mrs. Belle White, were visitors in Hickory on Saturday.

Clarence Galloway and party were Selica visitors Sunday.

Sherman Pearson of Brevard spent part of Sunday with his father-in-law, H. C. Barton, who has been in ill health for many years.

We are wondering why so much ado about the county commissioners and the roads. We can't tell much difference, be it much money or little, so long as we don't get the benefit of it. What we need is a man in each district who is interested in working the roads instead of so much loafing on the job.

We hope The News editor is right in his statement concerning the newly nominated senator of New Jersey.

David Orr, Sr., says we made a mistake last week concerning his ducks and that he and ducks have no dealings. These ducks belong to his son, Allison. Anyway, it's duck business.

Mr. and Mrs. Lem Brooks were visitors with Mr. Oates Bryson on Sunday.

Inez Dunn and Ruth Bryson were guests of Mrs. Lem Brooks recently. Albert and Nellie McKinna were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John McKinna.

Mrs. Van Waldrop and Mrs. David Orr were visitors of Mrs. Joe Dunn Monday.

Julius Lance was a caller with George Summey on Sunday.

Mrs. E. J. Ross and Mrs. Mays Waldrop attended the singing convention Sunday evening.

"IT GOT ME UP OUT OF WHEEL CHAIR"

"I was a complete invalid and had to be pushed about in a wheel chair before I started Sargon, and

MRS. LILLIE GARLAND JARVIS now my friends all marvel at my wonderful recovery.

"Pains and swelling started in my hand and extended into my left side, arm and lower limb. I couldn't walk a step or raise my hand to my head. My trouble was diagnosed as inflammatory rheumatism. My kidneys were disordered, my weight dropped to 97 pounds and I suffered with sick headaches and indigestion. Four bottles of this wonderful Sargon reconditioned my whole system and ended every one of my ailments! I'm up and about as good as anybody and have already regained 10 pounds of my lost weight!

"I took Sargon Pills right along with the liquid and the way they stimulated my liver and rid me of constipation without the least upsetting is perfectly remarkable."—Mrs. Lillie Garland Jarvis, Woodfin Station, Asheville.

ALEXANDERS HOLD FAMILY REUNION

An event that will be long remembered was the reunion which was held Sunday at the home of J. W. Alexander, of Turkey Creek. The day was spent in "just all being together" and talking of the things that have happened since the last reunion two years past.

There was a picnic dinner served at the noon hour. An abundance of good things to eat made for a meal that was more than enjoyable.

We will have to give up to the Holliday Family, for all having the same religious and political beliefs—for out of the 5 relatives present, all were Baptists and all were republicans with the exception of two—and of course that gave us a mixed multitude.

However, one remarkable feature was outstanding: in this family there are five generations living—J. W. Alexander, who is now 85 years old, and his daughter, Mrs. Lena Newton; granddaughter, Mrs. Beulah Rhodes; great granddaughter, Mrs. Otho Scott, and great-granddaughter, Clara Jane Scott.

Sixty-five relatives and a number of friends made the occasion a happy event. Relatives were: J. W. Alexander and Nona Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Alexander and children, Mr. and Mrs. Fate Mahaffey and children, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Orr and son Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Brown and children, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brown and children, Maude and Warren Alexander, Mrs. Suma Burgess and daughter Lois, Mrs. A. W. Davis and children, Mr. and Mrs. James Lyday and children, Mrs. Wade Galloway and children, Mrs. Virgil Galloway and children, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Newton and child, Mrs. Lena Newton and Minnie Newton, Mrs. Otho Scott and daughter, Clara Jane, Mr. and Mrs. John Parker.

DAD HAS THE KEYS

DAD? What's he? Aw, he's the person I go to for the keys to the car."

This sums up—all too completely—the whole relationship between some fathers and sons. But this kind is few, after all. For a renewed warmth of comradeship seems to be developing, and speaks well for the future.

Dad holds not merely keys to the car, but also the keys to his boy's success in life, if he uses them wisely. The ideals of thrift and credit—the basis of financial integrity—are usually copied from Dad.

The condition of a boy's Savings Account is a splendid index of his father's influence on Character in the Making.
