MRS. JORDAN WHITMIRE, Manager

WELL KNOWN MAN DEAD AT SOUTH CAROLINA HOME

Lawrence Murphy, aged 64 years, died of Brights disease in the Six Mile hospital on Saturday, July 26. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Jesse C. Owen and burial was made with Masonic honors Sunday at Keowee church, near Pickens.

Mr. Murphy was twice married, his first wife having been Miss Kanie Galloway, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wash Galloway of Rosman, and sister of Mrs. Lee R. Fisher. Six children survive this union. About eight years ago he was married to Mrs. Wm. Cantrell, of Pickens, who survives him.

LEON GILLESPIE IN NARROW ESCAPE LAST SATURDAY

Leon Gillespie, traveling salesman of Asheville, had a narrow escape from death Saturday night when the Ford car he was driving caught on fire and completely burned, with the exception of the front castings. Mr. Gillespie struck the battery on a large rock in the East Fork section, causing a short circuit and the car immediately caught fire. Several hundred dollars worth of samples were completely destroyed. It could not be learned if any insurance was carried on the car. The tank, filled with gasoline, remained intact, not exploding.

SARGON WAS GRAND BLESSING, SHE SAYS

"Billious headaches and sieges of vomiting used to nearly run me distracted and I've gone for nights at a time without a 'wink' of sleep.

MRS. MAMIE L. RUDD

My appetite was poor and my stomach badly disordered. Ten years of these troubles put me in bed, but Sargon overcame every ailment I had and nobody knows what a grand blessing it has been to me. I just feel like a new woman!

"Sargon Pills rid my system of poisons and gave nature a new start in keeping my bowels perfectly regulated without the least weakening or upsetting."—Mrs. Mamie L. Rudd 48 Middlemount Ave. West Asheville.
