

ENKA OUTFIT DRUBS LOCAL NINE 10-7

Plenty of Excitement in Seven Inning Game—Brevard There On Saturday

Brevard went down before the onslaught of Enka on McLean Field Saturday afternoon by the score of 10-7 in a seven inning affair that began late and lasted a long time.

To make a bad day, Enka had car trouble and failed to get to Brevard until five o'clock. Enka failed to score in the first, and Brevard came in to make three runs off as many hits. Doc Brewton, pitching for the visitors was wild, and broke out in a new spot—that is he "jowered" at His Umps.—something the former Brevard idol never was guilty of. Several times this happened, going a long way toward making the game non-interesting. Aiding in this melee-mixup was two men hit by Simpson, who was in the box for Brevard, plus a pop bottle and some uncalled for language from the bleachers. Several fans left, either from the slowness of the game, or to avoid the foul language that persisted in keeping up.

Several miscues on Brevard's part mixed with eight hits by Enka, permitted the one-sided score. Brevard had nine hits for their seven runs. Outstanding feature was the home run by Gudgeon of Enka, coming at a time when the bases were loaded. Batteries were: Enka, Brewton, Allen and Winecoff; for Brevard, Simpson, Kilpatrick, with Shachner and R. Bryson flagging.

Score by innings:
 Enka ..... 030 500 2—10
 Brevard .... 300 002 2—7
 Brevard goes to Enka Saturday for a return game.

East Fork News

Revival services began at the M. E. Church Sunday night. Rev. W. E. Ruffy, pastor, is doing the preaching.

Leon Gillespie had the misfortune to have his car burned up Saturday. He was on his way from East Fork to his home in Asheville, when something became wrong with the battery and the whole car was destroyed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gravely and son, Robert, visited Mrs. Gravely's sister, Mrs. Gillis, in Canon, last week. They were accompanied on the trip by Bill Dockin of Augusta, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd McGuire and son Frank, spent Sunday at Penrose with Mr. McGuire's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat McGuire.

Mr. Underwood, of Canton, is spending some time with his daughter, Mrs. Gravely.

Rev. and Mrs. Ruffy and children and Miss Opal Wright were visitors at the Gravely home Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. Will Gravely, who was real sick during the past week, is slightly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Reynolds spent a few days last week with Mrs. Reynolds' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry, at See-Off.

Miss Kate Gillespie is at home, after attending school for twelve weeks at Cullowhee.

For several Saturday nights we've been listening to the programs being broadcast from Station WWNC, and so far we have not found any thing nearly so interesting as the Sunday School lessons which were delivered by Mr. Barrett. We were, and are still, of the opinion that lots folks were badly disappointed when that feature of the broadcast was discontinued. We'd be mighty glad to know it was to be on again.

Folks in this community were grieved to learn of the death of Rev. W. A. Thomas. For years he was the pastor of the M. E. church at East Fork, it being one of the four churches on the Rosman circuit. We can say that of all the number of methodist minister who have served on this work there was none who could get and hold the love and admiration of his people more than did Brother Thomas.

Mother Brags on Him

"Why shouldn't I brag on Otto? If you had seen him a while back you couldn't believe he's the same boy," says Mrs. McGuire Thigpen, San Antonio mother, whose home is at 1816 S. Pesa St. "If he tried to play he'd get all out of breath right away. He rolled and tumbled instead of sleeping. We had to drag him out of bed in the mornings so he would be sure to get to school. He's such a healthy specimen now because we finally reached his trouble by giving him Herbine. He eats big meals now, sleeps sound and even works after school from 5:30 to 11:30."

A teaspoonful of Herbine, taken as directed on the bottle, is usually all a sluggish, irritable child needs to help his stomach and bowels so he can eat and grow strong. Try it. Sold By DAVIS-LONG DRUG CO.

GREENVILLE TEAM BOWS TO BREVARD

Tebell and Davis Help Home Boys Play Fast Game—Final Score, 4-3

In a game that was jam-up from start to finish, Brevard handed the crack team of the American Spinning company of Greenville the little end of a 4-3 score here last Friday afternoon.

Greenville scored three runs in the first, when Morgan walked, was sacrificed to second, went to third on fielder's choice and was safe when the only infield error of the day was made. Next man up hit for two bases and scored two men. Houston, pitching for Brevard, allowed only four hits in the remaining four innings, and turned the boxwork over to Simpson who allowed only one more safety, giving the visitors six hits out of the nine innings.

Obie Davis and Coach Tebell, both Sapphire counsellors, made their debut on the local diamond, and aided materially in the winning. Davis incenter, covered his territory and plenty on both sides. Coach Tebell played heads up ball in right field, and had two singles to his credit out of four trials.

Brevard scored two in the sixth, when Tebell, Davis and Clayton were safe on three straight hits, followed by R. Bryson, who sacrificed to deep left. Clayton scored one in the eighth, when he slammed out a double, was safe at third when Davis was out at home, and came home on Bryson's second sacrifice fly. Simpson got a free walk in the ninth, went to second on an error and came home when Paul Schachner got his second hit of the day.

A small crowd of fans witnessed the game. Score by innings was:
 Greenville ... 300 000 000—3
 Brevard .... 000 002 011—4

THE PRAYER CORNER

THE FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT

 MENTAL SUFFERING
 I said there were three-fold trials of your faith which will meet you at every step, and grow in number and force. In last week's Prayer Corner I mentioned the first of these, SPIRITUAL SUFFERING, which we call Temptation and Sin.

In this week's Prayer Corner I mention the Second Trial, MENTAL SUFFERING

You will have to contend with trials and anxieties, disappointments and difficulties, sorrows of one kind or another—the loss of relatives and friends, all leading to depression and despondency, all making you feel as you grow older, how true it is that "Man is born into trouble as the sparks fly upward," and tempting you to cry in the loneliness and desolation of life, "my God, my God why hast Thou forsaken me." Then go to The Holy Ghost the Comforter "and so long as you have not forsaken God He will help you to hear the answer to your cry "For a small moment have I forsaken thee, but with great mercies will I gather thee." He will provide you with the "sheet anchor of Hope" and as you look at the storm clouds before and around you, know from the rainbow that the sun is still shining behind them all.

It is a beautiful thought that if the rainbow, caused by the rays of the sun shining upon the drops of rain, with its three-fold colors, fading softly into each other, the Love of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost shed over all trial, till with St. Paul we can say, "Troubled on every side yet not distressed; we are perplexed but not in despair; persecuted but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed."

REMEMBER the trials of your faith which God permits, not those you make for yourselves, are really marks of The Holy Spirit, that you may realize fully that "whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom He receiveth" and that while "no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, nevertheless afterwards it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby."

And this will save you from the spirit of discontent—and rebellion against God's Will, and from feeling that the light of your lives is going out as you cry.

"O that my spirit were a choir, a place Where holy thoughts might meet to sing Thy Grace!
 So once it was, or seemed awhile, but now 'Tis dull and timeless all, I know not how Faint cries, like little birds, asleep in pain, Are most my music can attain."

I am reminded of some lines on the "Accolade," in the old days of chivalry as soldier was made a knight by a stroke of the sword on the shoulder hence the name:

"Sorrow gives the Accolade, With the sharp edge of his blade, Where the noblest knights are made. Up the glory lighted hall Where the King at festival Meets and greets his knights with all They shall lead thee, stayed of none To the forefront of the throne To the bliss of His well done."
 (to be concluded)

A PRAYER

Dear Christ, I thank Thee for Thy gracious message. It is high, but I can attain unto it if Thou wilt help me. Grant me self mastery in the noblest use of self and all its powers. Give me the tender grace of mercy, that I may care for all that lives. Inspire me with intelligence that I may know the truth and with faith that I may truly believe. So shall I live aright, my Lord, and so only.

Yes, Lord, I come, though late, to obey Thee. I have followed long enough my own way and I had found it a way of loneliness and sorrow. Now I would fain follow Thy way. O make me Thy willing, loving, believing servant, for I know Thou has planned only good for me. Make me glad in my obedience, and through the clouds let me see the sunshine of Thy dear Love, that I may never doubt Thee or leave Thy side.

Dear Lord, I thank Thee for Thy goodness in teaching and leading me as a little child. Thou knowest my weakness, and so Thou dost gently draw me to Thyself, and dost tell me what to say to Thee. Thou knowest my hunger of soul, and, Thou dost supply food which satisfies. Let me sing hymns to Thee, dear King, hymns of faith and love. Let my earthly life be filled with prayer and praise, and at last suffer me, unworthy but redeemed, to worship Thee in heaven. For Jesus sake, Amen and Amen.—C. D. C.

you want a cigarette that is milder and of better taste..

Smoke Chesterfield

MILDER, YES—BUT SOMETHING MORE. Chesterfield offers richness, aroma, satisfying flavor. BETTER TASTE—that's the answer; and that's what smokers get in Chesterfield in fullest measure—the flavor and aroma of mellow tobaccos, exactly blended and cross-blended. Better taste, and milder too!
