TRANTHAM-TAYLOR

A pretty home wedding was solemnized here Christmas night, when Miss Mildred Trantham became the bride of Mr. Preston Reeve Taylor, of Mount Holly, the ceremony occurring at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Beverly W. Trantham, on West Main street. The Rev. J. H. West, pastor of Brevard Methodist church, officiated in the presence of only immediate members and relatives of the two families and a few close friends. The ring ceremony was used.

Banks of evergreen, holly, and other seasonal decorations were effectively arranged in the lower floor rooms which were thrown en suite for the occasion. The soft lights from candelabra placed on each side of an improvised altar added to the beauty of the scene.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Mary Jane Walker sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Dan Merrill, who also played the wedding march for the bridal procession. The groom was attended by Mr. Gwyn Gambill, of West Jefferson, as best man, while the bride's only attendant was Miss Eliza Henry, as bridesmaid. The bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her away in marriage.

The bride was lovely in a dark green traveling suit, with hat and accessories to match, and carried an arm bouquet of white roses.

Immediately following the ceremony, the young couple left for a short honeymoon, after which they will go to Baltimore where they will be at home after the first of the year.

Mrs. Taylor, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Trantham, is a graduate of Mars Hill college and the North Carolina College for Women, Greensboro. For the past two and one-half years she has taught in the Gastonia city schools. She is a young lady of charming personality and has many friends in Brevard and Gastonia.

Mr. Taylor is the son of Dr. and Mrs. B. C. Taylor, of Mount Holly. He is a graduate of Wake Forest college and is now studying at Maryland University.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Dr. and Mrs. B. C. Taylor, sons, Caswell, B. C. Jr., and George, and daughter, Elizabeth, all of Mount Holly; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Elmore, of Belmont; Mrs. Harvey Ferrell, of Winston-Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Crary of Charlotte.

Brevard relatives and friends attending the happy event were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Patton, Miss Charlotte Patton, Mr. Tom Patton, Mrs. William Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Plummer, and Miss Reubenia Nicholson.

Trion, Ga., Dec. 27.—A wedding of much social interest was solemnized at high noon Sunday, Dec. 27, at the Trion Inn, when Miss Leslie Mae Rackley became the bride of Dr. H. C. Hardin, the Rev. J. G. Black officiating.

The lobby of the Inn was decorated in the yuletide colors. Three large arches of ferns, mistletoe, cedar and poinsettias formed the altar, on either side of which was large floor baskets containing a profusion of Christmas evergreens and poinsettias.

Mr. Blanford Eubanks, Jr., of Rome, sang, "At Dawning" and "O Promise Me" with Mr. Paul Moffett at the piano.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Clara Gregg, of Manchester, Ga., who was dressed in a gown of rose flat crepe trimmed in pearl with slippers to match. Her hat was a beige felt.

Mr. Ray Swetenburg was the groom's best man.

The bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding

RESTORED THREE

MRS. J. F. PHILLIPS says Sargon restored self, husband and daughter. "Will always praise it."

"Sargon has been such a blessing in our home I'd feel ungrateful not to tell others about it. I suffered from a severe form of indigestion, sluggish liver, and nervousness for four years. I could eat and sleep but little, and my whole system became so weak that even my eyes were affected. Little things that a normal healthy person wouldn't notice would worry me almost sick. Sargon completely overcame my troubles and gave me splendid health. Then my husband took Sargon and it relieved him of indigestion. My little daughter was pale, underweight, and nervous, and Sargon built her right up. We will always praise this grand medicine."—Mrs. Phillips lives at 2253 Cedar St., Charlotte.
