MRS. E. S. ENGLISH HOSTESS AT SURPRISE PARTY

Mrs. E. S. English was hostess at a lovely surprise birthday party at her home Monday evening honoring her daughter, Miss Jean. The lower floor, which was tastefully decorated with pot flowers, was thrown in suite. A color note of red was observed in the dining room where the hostess served hot chocolate from a beautifully appointed table. Dancing was enjoyed during the evening.

Those present at this delightful affair included: Misses Mary Osborne Wilkins, Rebecca Summey, Almata Waters, Ross Schachner, Sara Louise Andrews, Gladys English, Elizabeth Ramsey and Jean English. Messrs. George Bromfield, Glenn Miller, Moultrie Truluck, Paul Keller, Julius Hinton, Joe Schachner, Henry Erwin, Langdon English, Garland Sledge, Ashe Macfie, Paul Schachner and Ed English.

BANKS-BLYTHE

A wedding of much interest to Pleasant Grove community took place in Greenville, S. C., on Saturday, Jan. 10th, when Miss Goldia Banks became the bride of Mr. Coy Blythe.

Mrs. Blythe is the attractive daughter of Mr. Gay Banks of Etowah. She is a graduate of Etowah High school and is very popular with both the young and old people of her community.

Mr. Blythe is the son of Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Blythe of Blantyre, and at present is engaged in business at Blantyre. He is a former student of Fruitland Institute.

The wedding was an informal affair with only a few friends present. The bride was lovely in a costume of brown with brown accessories which matched her brunette beauty.

The young folks have a host of admiring friends who wish to extend to them their best wishes for a life of true happiness.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR REV. PAUL HARTSELL ON ANNIVERSARY

Rev. Paul Hartsell was given a surprise birthday party by Mrs. Hartsell on Friday evening, January 9. Several friends had been invited to the affair, which was marked by games and contests of many kinds. During the evening a salad course was served by the hostess, who was assisted in the serving by Mrs. W. W. Pruett. The following guests were present:

Prof. J. B. Jones, A. E. Hampton, Brown Carr, W. W. Pruette, D. F. Moore, R. P. Kilpatrick and L. P. Hamlin.

CLUB DANCE HELD LAST THURSDAY EVENING

Weekly dance of the Theta Delta Beta club was given last Thursday evening at the club house on East Main street. Bridge was enjoyed by those who were not dancing. After a delightful evening, the club members fared forth to the Canteen for refreshments. Those present were:

Misses Rose Schachner, Mary Osborne Wilkins, Almata Waters, Ann Lewis, Rebecca Summey, and Messrs. George Bromfield, Paul Keller, Julius Hinton, Joe Schachner, Harold Kilpatrick, Garland Sledge, Tom Patton, Mose Macfie, Glenn Miller and Henry Erwin.

MRS. SILVERSTEEN HOSTESS TO D. A. R.

Mrs. J. S. Silversteen was hostess Monday afternoon to the members of the D. A. R., in what was pronounced one of the most enjoyable and profitable meetings ever held by the local chapter. At the request of the regent, Mrs. E. W. Blythe, the past regent and hostess, Mrs. Silversteen, presided at the meeting. Much business was transacted, and a most interesting program, under the direction of Mrs. Laura Miller was enjoyed.

Mrs. Silversteen, Miss Dorothy Silversteen and Miss Annie Gash were named as delegates to attend the Continental Congress to be held in Washington next April, with Mrs. Ralph Osborne as alternate.

New officers were elected, as follows: Mrs. J. S. Silversteen, regent; Miss Annie Gash, vice regent; Mrs. Ralph Ramsey, secretary; Mrs. J. P. Deaver, treasurer; Mrs. Mac Allison, registrar; Mrs. Ralph Osborne, historian; Mrs. Laura Miller, chaplain.

Miss Florence Kern, in beautifully expressed manner, extended to Mrs. Blythe, retiring regent, the appreciation of the chapter for her faithful and efficient administration. A feature of the program was an interesting history of the chapter, written by Miss Kern and read by Mrs. Osborne. Miss Kern was given a rising vote of thanks for the splendid paper. The origin of the American's Creed, by Wm. Tyler Page, was read by Mrs. Silversteen, and greatly enjoyed, while the origin of the D. A. R. as read by Mrs. Allison proved most interesting and instructive.

The February meeting will be held with Mrs. Tatum.

MUSIC LOVERS CLUB MEETS AT HOME OF MRS. LONG

Mrs. Roy Long and Miss Janie Strickland entertained the Music Lovers' Club on Monday evening, January the fifth at eight o'clock at the home of Mrs. Long. The club was delighted to receive into membership Mrs. Ralph Ramsey, Mrs. Paul Hartsell, and Mrs. Thomas Hampton.

Mr. Alvin Moore had charge of one of the most interesting discussions of the year, "Lovers Affairs of Great Musicians." Under Mr. Moore's treatment of this subject, the club ceased to think of Schubert, Haydn, Chopin, and Liszt as great musicians only; they became passionate lovers, men capable of soul-stirring emotion. The great Beethoven was too much in love with his music, and himself, ever to care very much for another. Not so with Schubert; he loved deeply, but remained throughout his short life, too poor to marry. Franz Liszt, the idol of Europe, was the Rudolf Valentino of his day. He made it a rule never to accept a young lady piano pupil who would resist his kisses. The life and talent of Chopin blossomed at the touch of his beloved

George Sand. Perhaps the most refreshing love of them all was that of Robert Schumann for Clara Wieck, a noted pianist. Miss Wieck's father so opposed the marriage that young Schumann took his "case" to court—and won.

During the program Mrs. Allison, accompanied at the piano by Miss Call, sang two beautiful selections, Schubert's "Serenade," and McDowell's "Dererted." One of the happy events of the evening was Mr. Moore's interpretation at the piano of the "Raindrop Prelude" by Chopin.

HOME-MAKERS TO MEET

Announcement is made that a meeting of the Home-makers class of the Brevard Baptist church will meet with Mrs. S. W. Radford Wednesday afternoon, January 21st, at 3 o'clock.

SOCIAL HOUR ENJOYED BY THE C. E. MEMBERS

Members of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church enjoyed a social hour at the Hut last Friday evening. Many games were played by the young people. Later in the evening refreshments were served. Those attending the social event were:

Misses Emma Deaver, Elizabeth Wood, Louise Wood, Elsie Perry, Ruth Perry, Bertha Jean Hampton, Charlotta Patton, Rebecca Glenn, Messrs. Glenn Miller, Ed Hampton, Sandy McLeod, Hinton McLeod, Jack Miller, John Miller, James and Lucien Deaver, and Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Alexander and Mrs. L. M. Hart.

SARAH TAYLOR CIRCLE MEETS WITH MRS. RUSH WHITMIRE

Mrs. Rush Whitmire was hostess to the Sarah Taylor Circle at her home on Monday afternoon, with ten members and visitors present. During the business hour plans were discussed for the coming year.

An interesting program "The Lordship of Christ Recognized and Acknowledged" was presented by the president, Mrs. H. E. Boucher. The circle was delighted to receive into membership one new member, Mrs. Charles Newland. The hostess was assisted in serving dainty refreshments by her little daughter.

The next meeting of the Circle will be held at the home of Mrs. P. N. Jenks, in February.

MRS. UNDERWOOD HOSTESS TO FORTNIGHTLY CLUB

Regular meeting of the Fortnightly Club was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Underwood. The subject for the afternoon was "Narcotics." Mrs. Cordia King had charge of the program and gave a most interesting discussion on the harm derived from the constant use of narcotics. Routine business included the decision to give a cash donation to the Associated Charities. A delightful salad course was served during the social hour that followed. The next meeting will be held with Miss Alma Trowbridge.

MICHAEL-KOWALSKI

Announcement has been received in Brevard of the marriage on November 14 of Miss Elizabeth Michael to Mr. Ulrich F. Kowalski. The marriage, only recently announced, was performed in "The Little Church Around the Corner," New York City. The bride has many friends in Brevard who will be interested in announcement of the wedding.

TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE MEETS WITH MRS. BROWN

By Church Reporter
The committee on Temperance and Social Service of Brevard Methodist church met with Mrs. L. E. Brown, in New Taylor Hall, Brevard Institute, Monday evening.

After being led in prayer by our pastor, Rev. J. H. West, we discussed and formed plans to advance congregational interest in our work—to see that special emphasis is made on the preparation of temperance lessons in the Sunday School; endeavor to interest parents in the temperance teaching in the public schools required by the state; and encourage signing of temperance pledges—also, to help those who are not so fortunate as we to help themselves, including looking after families, visiting non-attending church members, visiting and helping the sick, giving immediate aid, and finding work for the needy.

Other business having been arranged, the committee adjourned to meet in the church at 2:30 next Sunday afternoon.

At the close of the business session, Miss Garnell Lee and Miss Edna Jones, presidents of the Adelpian and Lanier societies of B. I. came in, each bringing a large bowl of oranges, bananas, and grapes, which we enjoyed together around the big center table during the social hour following.

The name Firestone is on every tire Firestone makes. They do not make tires under Special Brand names for mail order houses or other distributors. Such tires are made by some unknown manufacturer and sold under a name that does not identify him to the public, usually because he builds his first line tires under his own name.
