SCOUTING

The Girl Scouts of America have high and honorable principles, for their organization and their aims point to ideal Christian lives for American Girls.

The purposes and qualities of the Girl Scouts of America may be found in the following article, written by one of the Girl Scouts of the Brevard troop, Miss Jane Pearce.

The true meaning implied by the term "Scouting," is more accurately represented by the expression used by our British sisters—"Guides." The primary purpose of Scouting is to endow a girl with the admirable characteristics that produce a woman who is a good and helpful comrade to her brother or husband or son along the pathway of Life. To guide her family in the virtuous walks of life is the visionary ideal of every true girl and woman. Therefore, the members of this organization, besides being handy and ready for any kind of

THE CHRIST-CHILD

White shepherds watch their flocks of sheep
One calm and silent night,
A brilliant star shone in the east
And guided by its light

Three Wise Men from a distant land
Inspired by rumors new,
Traveled many, many weary miles
To learn if they were true.

When the long, long quest was ended
Upon a bed of hay,
They found the Child, the Holy One
Who reigns supreme today.

And when they saw this wondrous Babe
Of whom so much was said,
They laid their treasures at His feet,
And knelt beside His bed.

They worshipped Him, this little Child
To Whom all power was given,
This Prince of Peace, this King of Kings,

And now we're soon to celebrate
The birth of Him whom we Should love and serve with all our hearts
Through all eternity.

duty, are also a jolly, happy family and likely to be good, cheery companions to their mankind.

As Scouting is a voluntary requirement, Girl Scouts depend on themselves to obey their motto, slogan and laws because it is their earnest desire to perfect themselves by conscientious endeavor. Since Scouting provides a well-rounded education, Girl Scouts are prepared for every emergency, problem or crisis that may confront them. Armed with a willingness to work, a feverish desire to serve their fellow-beings and the assurance that their undertakings will be successful, the Girl Scouts resolutely face the uncertainty of the future, determined to do their bit for home, country and God.

To embody in them the necessary qualities for a useful life, they have competent leaders. Due to wide versatility and experience coupled with a cheery, hopeful disposition, Miss Ethel McMinn constitutes a capable lieutenant. Although she possesses inestimable wisdom, her youthful enthusiasm endears her to every member of the troop.

Despite the fact that Miss Lillian Jenkins is comparatively new in this field, it is obvious that she is well adapted to this work. Not only is she extremely earnest and untiring in her efforts but also kind and sympathetic toward Scouts in theirs. As her talent in music is a boon to Scouting that cannot be overestimated, it will surely tend to the general betterment of her vocal abilities of the Girl Scouts.

IDEAL GIFT FOR THE BOY

What glorious adventures boys between the ages of ten and twenty have reading THE AMERICAN BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION! As if by magic, this well-known magazine carries boys to distant parts of the world, introduces them to strange people, lets them experience queer customs and revel in the adventures of foreign lands.

In a single issue, a boy will battle the frozen Northland with sled and dog team, cross Indian-haunted plain in a prairie schooner, zoom over war-torn lands in an army plane or on dangerous routes with a U. S. mail pilot, hunt wild animals in Africa atop the swaying back of an elephant, go cruising in a battleship, fight Arab raiders with the Foreign Legion and participate in many other thrilling experiences that come to readers of THE AMERICAN BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION.

It is such experiences as these that sharpen a boy's wits, kindle his imagination, strengthen his character, develop his understanding of the world in which he lives and of the people that inhabit it. Here, indeed, is the ideal gift for that boy in whom you are interested—that son, nephew, cousin, neighbor, or perhaps, the son of a business associate. An attractive gift card bearing your name will be sent to the boy if you request it with your order. Then every time the mailman brings the magazine to his door the boy will think of you gratefully.

Subscription prices are only $2.00 for one year and $3.00 for three years. Mail your order direct to THE AMERICAN BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION, 550 W. Lafayette Blvd., Detroit, Michigan. Service on your subscription will start with whichever issue you specify.

CHRISTMAS TREE ENJOYED AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Over fifty children of the Presbyterian church were given a Christmas tree program at the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon under the direction of Hinton McLeod, superintendent of the Sunday School.

The children were given a stocking filled with candy and fruits by a jolly old Santa Claus who entered the room delivering the presents to the delight of all the children present.

METHODIST CHILDREN IN CHRISTMAS PARTY

The children of the Methodist church will enjoy their Christmas exercises at the church Wednesday night. A tree will be erected and the children will be given delightful gifts.

An interesting program will be given during the evening exercises by the children.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY TO MEET THURSDAY

The Missionary Society of the Brevard Methodist church will meet in the church parlor Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. All members are urged to attend.

PISGAH FOREST NEWS

We are wishing our relatives and friends, our Editor and his force and everyone a Merry Christmas and a very happy and prosperous New Year for 1932. Let us all stand by our Editor and his little band of loyal workers and make the dear old Brevard News more successful and valuable than ever before. The News, in our opinion has made a marked improvement over what it used to be and we should all be proud of our county paper. So lets help to make it go.
