TRANSYLVANIA MEN HEARING FAIN CASE

Twelve Transylvania county citizens are serving on a jury in Henderson county Superior court this week, hearing the damage suit case of Stepp vs. Fain. The case grew out of an automobile collision some time ago when a young man, Stepp, was killed in the collision. The car that he was driving collided with a car driven by the Fains. The case has been twice in the Superior court of Henderson county, mistrials resulting.

Mr. Fain, who is editor of The Hendersonville Times-News, filed an affidavit with the court in which he set forth reasons why he considered it impossible to obtain a fair and impartial verdict at the hands of a Henderson county jury, whereupon the court ordered a jury summoned from Transylvania county before which the case is being tried this week.

The following citizens are serving on the jury: C. F. Norton, W. M. Brittain, Anthony Trantham, B. M. Mull, Lee Nicholson, J. O. Cantrell, D. L. Holliday, J. G. Cash, R. E. Mackey, J. Mack Hayes, Harry Sellers, W. L. Stophel.

T. Coleman Galloway, of the Brevard bar, is a member of the counsel for the plaintiff.

The books will be on sale in the building next door to Plummer's in what was formerly known as the "Blue Moon," according to results of the meeting.

It is said that very important matters will be acted upon at the regular meeting this week, and all members are urged to be present. Among those attending the Tryon meeting were James F. Barrett, Master of the Lodge; Henry Henderson, Junior Warden, and F. Brown Carr, secretary.

REPUBLICANS NAME LYDAY FOR SHERIFF IN O. H. ORR'S PLACE

E. O. Shipman Named on Ticket to Replace Croushorn, Who Declined.

MR. ORR'S BUSINESS PREVENTED RACE

Two County Tickets Now Complete for Contest in the November Election.

Oliver H. Orr, nominated at the Republican convention for sheriff-tax collector, met with the county executive committee last Thursday, and made definite announcement that he could not make the race. Mr. Orr was not present when the convention nominated him for the office, and no time since has he made any intimation that he would accept the nomination. At the committee meeting last week, Mr. Orr explained to the members of the executive council that business and personal affairs are such that he was compelled to decline the nomination.

The committee unanimously selected W. A. Lyday, of Pisgah Forest, as the Republican nominee for sheriff and tax collector. Mr. Lyday is widely and favorably known in the county, and has been with the Carr Lumber company for a great many years. He is an active fraternal leader, having long been an officer in the Transylvania Council of the Junior Order. He is one of the most active members of the Pisgah Forest Baptist church and a diligent worker in the Sunday school.

Another change made in the county ticket was substitution of E. O. Shipman for county commissioner, taking the place on the ticket made vacant because Mr. W. W. Croushorn had asked that he be not urged to accept the nomination that was tendered him at the county convention. Mr. Croushorn is executive head of the Carr

SPINDALE TEXTILE WORKERS ON STRIKE

Three hundred and fifty men and women employed in the Spencer Mills at Spindale walked out Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, because of their announced determination not to work any longer under direction of the new superintendent, A. F. Burgess, of Rhode Island. For sixteen years, Mr. J. O. Williams, superintendent now of the mills at Tuxedo and Brevard, was superintendent of the Spindale mill where the trouble is being experienced. The strikers want Mr. Williams back to direct their work, or some other superintendent to replace the Rhode Island man.

It is said that the new superintendent, Mr. Burgess, had installed the "stretch-out system" and it was against this new method that the employees are striking. The affair is of local interest because of the fact that Mr. Williams, for many years in charge of the Spindale mill, is now in this community as superintendent of the Tuxedo and Brevard plants.

Lion's Paw Lost In Brevard Said To Bear Heavy Curse To Keeper

FINDER—Please return to rightful owner, Prof. C. L. Curley, at the Clayton Hotel.

There is an interesting story in these few words, according to Mr. Curley. The lost article is the claw of a lion that Mr. Curley captured in the wilds of Africa when it was but a young thing, and which he trained and exhibited for years as part of his act with the great shows of the country, including Barnum and Bailey, Robinson's Shows, and others.

Mr. Curley says that the finder of the lion's claw, which is held together with a strand of inlaid gold, will do well to return the article to him, as nothing but bad luck can come to the finder who tries to keep it. The lion from whose foot the claw was taken belonged to a man-eating lion family, and this, the natives where lions

SUMMER CAMPS NOW CLOSING SEASON IN TRANSYLVANIA CO.

Hundreds of Young Men and Women to Sing Praises Of Brevard.

HOMES IN ALL PARTS OF THE UNITED STATES

Great Advertising Asset to This Section—Good Season Reported.

Summer camps in this organized camp center are rapidly closing their season, and the campers, councillors and directors are departing for their homes. All but two camps will close during this week, and these will close next week. The camps have had an unusually good season, it is reported, especially in view of the general conditions existing.

The organized summer camp is no longer looked upon as a place for spending a vacation, or placing a boy or a girl for the summer season. It is now looked upon as an institution where manhood and womanhood are so thoroughly developed—physically, mentally, morally—that the placement of a young person in a summer camp is looked upon as investment in the future of the young people. It is this changed attitude on the part of parents that filled the summer camps here this season despite the stringency of the times.

Brevard and Transylvania county have great assets in these summer camps. Into every corner of the country young men and young women are now going to their respective homes, there to tell their relatives and friends about the wondrous beauty of this section. No other form or method of advertising could be arranged that could bring the publicity to Brevard that is given freely by the campers and camp officials. There is some question, leaders of the community say, as to whether Brevard has ever

DEATH CLAIMS SON OF MRS. L. E. BROWN

Young Lad Accidentally Shot by Playmate July Fourth Died Monday.

L. E. Brown, Jr., young son of Mrs. L. E. Brown, former dean of women at Brevard Institute, died Sunday morning at 4:30 o'clock, as the result of a gunshot wound received on the fourth of July last.

Young Brown was accidentally shot in the abdomen with a .22 rifle by a playmate, E. D. DeLancy, Jr., age 12, at the summer home in Montreat. He was taken to the Mission hospital and after an operation it was believed he would recover. His condition, however, grew steadily worse and two other operations were later performed, but were unsuccessful. After more than two months of suffering the end came.

Funeral services for the young man, who was a former member of the Brevard Boy Scouts were held at his home in Waxhaw, N. C., with Rev. J. H. West, pastor of the Brevard Methodist church in charge. Rev. Mr. West was assisted by Rev. J. W. Moore, Presiding Elder of the Charlotte district of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South and the local pastors of Waxhaw.

The party from Brevard attending the funeral included Rev. J. H. West, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Orr, Miss Margaret Garrison, Miss Florence Kern, Mrs. Otis Downs, Dr. Lorenzo and Mr. Coreno, the two latter being Cuban students at the Brevard Institute.

The funeral was held from the home at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon and interment was made in the Waxhaw Methodist cemetery.

Trout Fishing Season for 1932 Comes to Close Next Wednesday

Trout fishing season will close August 31, and it is expected that a large number of sportsmen will put in full time during the remaining days of the season. The same date, August 31, brings to a close the season on Jack fishing. Small mouth bass can be taken until September 30, the date of the season's closing have been extended to that date.

Open season for squirrels begins September first, and the old rifle will soon be echoing throughout these mountainsides. The bag limit on squirrel is ten in one day. State Licenses are required of all persons hunting out of their resident county. Hunting within one's own county requires only the county license.

The department reports more squirrel, quail, and ruffed grouse in Western North Carolina than ever before while other game is more plentiful than in the past.

E. R. Galloway, county game warden, furnished the above information, and at the time of handing this news to the press expressed his appreciation for the splendid manner in which the public co-operates with the authorities in obeying the laws governing hunting and fishing. He points to this as one of the main reasons why the state department is able to report such a great increase in the numbers of squirrel, quail, grouse and other game.
