JOHN THE BAPTIST BEFORE THE COURT

He's a Negro, and That's His Real Name.

AND JOHN IS CHARGED WITH SHUFFLING "DE KYARDS FOR DE COLD CASH."

One of the cases set for trial before the Criminal court this afternoon is that of state against John the Baptist. John is a banjo artist, who is well known in colored circles, where his talent is much in demand for dances and cakewalks.

John was before Judge Brown the other morning charged with having wilfully and maliciously and with malice aforethought and against the peace and dignity of the state and city and contrary to the statute in such cases made and provided played and picked upon his banjo on the public streets of Asheville at a late and unseemly hour of the night.

John's trouble in the Criminal court is an indictment for gambling.

MISS SMITH'S PAPER BEFORE THE TEACHERS

REGARDING WORK OF SECOND GRADE IN THE SCHOOLS.

Miss Margaret Smith read a paper before the teachers' institute yesterday afternoon on the work of the first division, second grade. The subject was handled most ably and interestingly, and the various questions touched upon provoked a good deal of discussion among the teachers—proof that they were deeply interested in what she had said.

This evening Dr. Paul Paquin's lecture on "The Infinitely Little" will be given. It is primarily for the teachers, of course, but the public will be welcome, and certainly everyone who failed to hear the former lecture on this subject should attend.

TEXAS POPULISTS AT FORT WORTH

THEY ARE A UNIT ON ENDORSING MIDDLE OF ROAD.

Fort Worth, May 2.—Delegates to the state Populist convention to be held here tomorrow began arriving here today. There will be a very large attendance, as the matter of fusion will be determined, settling the question whether the fusionists or the middle of the roaders shall control the party in Texas.

Captain Samuel Evans, who in 1887 organized the Union Labor party, which was later merged into the Greenback party, said he believed the conference would be almost a unit in endorsing the middle-of-the-road and delegates being instructed for the Cincinnati convention.
