IN FORSYTH COUNTY.

The Forsyth county Democratic meeting Saturday was the largest ever known in the county. The contest for soil-farmer was spirited between Hendren, Cox and Griffith. Griffith was given the nomination on the second ballot. A resolution of endorsement of the administration of Judge H. B. Stevens was unanimously passed and the delegates to the judicial convention were instructed to vote for Judge Stevens. A splendid fighting ticket was nominated and the Democratic forces are thoroughly organized. Editor Whitaker of the Winston Sentinel and Mr. Baldwin were nominated for the house.

CLOSING HOURS OF CONFERENCE

dress by the Rev. J. A. B. Fry of Concord on "The Epworth League and Revivals." It was the most spiritual address of the conference and made a fitting climax to this young people's gathering. Mr. Fry urged the delegates to reconsecrate themselves to the service of the Master, and go to their homes with a stronger determination than they had ever had to engage in the loving service of the church. His address made a deep impression on the congregation, and although the hour was late when he closed, he preserved the closest attention of his audience to his closing words.

Rev. C. F. Sherrill offered resolutions of thanks to the railways for reduced rates, to the congregation of Central church and to other city churches for entertainment, and to Professor Jones and faculty of the Asheville college for Saturday's concert, which were adopted by a rising vote.

The congregation joined heartily in singing "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder," and Rev. J. W. Jones of Morganton dismissed the congregation. This ended the fifth and most successful Epworth league and Sunday school conference.

MAY BE CONTEST FROM THE FIRST

DISSATISFACTION AMONG SOME OF THE VOTERS.

In the meeting for the first precinct Saturday there was a close contest between two delegations, the winning delegation having only one vote to spare. The vote was 16 to 15. There is considerable dissatisfaction among the voters who were defeated by this narrow margin, and there is talk of a contest before the county convention next Saturday.

It is claimed that some of those who voted with the successful side were not entitled to vote as Democrats. Among these was D. M. Luther. Mr. Luther was there and took as active a part as he did in the days when his Democracy was unquestioned. Each of the delegations would have received the same number of votes had he not voted.

Then, it is claimed that there were men voting who were not entitled to vote, among whom was one man who had been in Asheville only since the beginning of the year, and it is claimed that the old standbys in the precinct were given the cold shoulder in favor of some men who have never done any hard work for the party.
