

GREAT SAVING UNDER DEMOCRATIC ADMINISTRATION

On One Item Alone It Is Nine Thousand Dollars.

BULLETIN'S SPECIAL ARTICLE BY GEO. E. BOGGS, THE "APPLE KING" OF N. C.

Raleigh, N. C., June 20.—The fact will be recalled that the report made to the legislature last week by its special committee which investigated the conduct of the agricultural department by the fusionists showed that the cost of the inspection of fertilizers during the last year of the fusion regime was no less than $15,000. Great is the contrast. The present commissioner, S. L. Patterson, shows in his report that the cost this year, with a dozen inspectors in the field, is barely $6000, or only 40 per cent. of the fusionist expenditure. On this one item alone the Democrats have saved $9000.

The July bulletin of the agricultural department will be largely a resume of the fertilizer analyses made during the year. More than 800 brands of fertilizer are now sold in the state. There have been made this year twice as many analyses as were made during the last year of fusion control.

Secretary Hooker of Senator Butler's personal staff arrived today to take a desk at Populist headquarters and will be on duty there until after the August election.

Dr. Adolphus J. Battle, a native of Wake Forest but for many years resident at Wadesboro, died at the latter place yesterday. This morning his body was taken to Wake Forest for burial.

The state charters the Wachovia roller flouring mills at Winston; paid up capital, $20,000; authorized capital, $50,000; Charles W. Shelton, several of the well known Fries family and others stockholders.

The state exposition of 1884 here was no great a success that it is really remarkable another has never been held. The building or the greater part of it yet stands. It is in need of much repair now.

The number of inmates of the Catholic orphanage or protectory here is to be largely increased. It is said that most of the inmates are Protestants. It is a noble charity. The situation of the buildings is particularly fine. There is a large and well cultivated farm.

The making of rag carpets is one of the new features at the hospital for the insane.

The Democrats here are now giving special attention to the matter of registration, as the books open June 25 and will be open 20 days, Sundays excepted; in other words, will close at sunset July 21.

Since the departure of the legislature it is "deadly dull" in the news world here. At the state departments it is humdrum routine.

It was expected that the fast train, southbound, on the Seaboard Air Line would bring the New York papers of the day so as to have them here at 7:55 p. m., but as yet there is no mail on these fast trains.

The framework of the new Willy public school here is up. The site is an ideal one. The building is to accommodate 800 pupils.

The ivy is very rapidly covering the front of the main building of the Agricultural and Mechanical college and is very beautiful. The boiler house, the roof of which was burned last spring, is being repaired. The damage amounted to some $800.

City Editor Pence and Police Officer Woodall went to Wilson today to appear as witnesses at the second trial of John Jefferson, the white man who assassinated Capt. Calvin Barnes and who immediately after he was brought here for safe keeping confessed his crime. It was committed last August. He was tried last autumn, but got a new trial.

The June Bulletin of the agricultural department will be of special interest to apple growers. It will illustrate the best varieties for North Carolina, will tell about pests of the apple, and will have a special article by George E. Boggs of Haywood, the "apple king" of North Carolina.

There are some North Carolinians in the ninth infantry which has gone to China. There were several North Carolina officers in the fleet which was present in 1859 when the British and French attacked the Pei-Ho forts. Two of these officers, both of the marines, were George Kirkland of New York and the late General Francis H. Cameron.

Much interest is felt here in baseball. By all accounts Tarboro, Statesville and Durham will have the teams which will be the "terrors" of the state association.

Alex McIver of Chatham county, a life-long Republican, who was for some years state superintendent of public instruction and also a candidate for congress, comes out for the amendment with much vigor.

Heavy work is being done at Democratic headquarters. No less than 15 persons are at work there. More is being done than ever before in any campaign.

The commissioner of agriculture has carefully reviewed and revised the June crop report, which was given out somewhat hastily the other day. He figures that the increase in the cotton acreage very closely approximates 10 per cent. In the cotton growing counties the farmers have for many years planted all they could gather, and to speak truth, even more. From the tobacco growing counties east of here the increase mainly comes. The 10 per cent, very nearly corresponds with the acreage table made up in May. The condition is $1. Putting the increase in acreage and the figures as to present condition together, Mr. Patterson thinks the status of the crop now is just about what it was last year at this date, when, as will be remembered, cotton was particularly promising.

IN THE OLD NORTH STATE

Items of Interest Gathered From the Tar Heel Press.

Wilson News: Sunday afternoon, at the crack of a pistol, Pat Williams, a negro 23 years old, an employe of a brick yard near here, fell as he was jumping a fence to escape the officers in Lucama and in two or three minutes was dead. A warrant for the arrest of Williams had been received by McRae Boyett, a police officer of Lucama, who deputized W. H. Woodard to assist him. They found Williams Sunday afternoon and arrested him, taking a razor from his pocket. On the way to the station house up town Williams asked why he was arrested and Mr. Boyett began to read the warrant. During the reading Williams broke and fled. Boyett calling to him, "Stop or I will kill you." As the negro reached a fence he vaulted over it and Woodard firing just at this moment, shooting high, but the ball struck. The negro cleared the fence, but fell some 10 feet beyond and in two or three minutes was dead.

Gastonia Gazette: McKinley Hayney, aged 8 years, son of Isaac Hayney, fell in a 40-foot dry well near his home Saturday. He, with a number of other children, was playing around the old well, when the Hayney boy accidentally slipped in. The children gave an alarm at once and assistance soon arrived. A rope was let down to him and he managed to hold on until he was drawn up. He was very much frightened and completely exhausted when he got to the top. His injuries, while very painful, will not likely prove fatal. His father is an industrious old darkey and is well known.

High Point Enterprise: A people say that the horned snake is what is generally called the hoop snake, the snake forming itself into a hoop by taking the horn, which is about two inches from the end of the tail, in its mouth. We are not going to verify anything in regard to the hoop business, but as to the horned snake we have positive evidence. One day this week a man at Archdale, while walking along in a bottom, saw a horned snake and captured it. He had it on an exhibition for a day or so at Archdale. Dr. Burton saw the snake while yet alive.

Lenoir News: Last Wednesday afternoon, while out hunting, Mr. Pink Swanson, living a few miles south of town, had the misfortune to shoot himself through the hand. He placed the butt of his gun on a log and his hand over the muzzle, when the gun slipped off the log, the hammer striking against the log, causing the gun to fire. The ball, a small one, passed through the hand, breaking two of the bones. Dr. Shell attended him.

Newton Enterprise: From the Lincoln Journal we learn that the suspected of a horrible crime near Iron Station, where a woman was cut to pieces with a razor, is named Jackson, a brother-in-law of the woman he came so near killing. It seems that he had some months before married a sister of the woman, who left him because she discovered that he had another wife in South Carolina.

Lenoir News: Last week, while working at Mr. Jim Triplett's saw mill on the Yadkin Valley, Isaac Love, colored, had the misfortune to get his leg broken. Some logs were piled up in the yard and by some means the prop that held them was knocked down, causing them to roll, and one rolled over the unfortunate man's leg, breaking both bones.

Hickory Times-Mercury: George Shuford of West Hickory on Saturday night made an attempt to kill his mother and fought his brother-in-law, James Danner, in a vicious manner. He was taken to Newton jail Sunday morning by Deputy Sheriff Jones, to await the next term of the Superior court.

Mount Airy News: The apple crop in this section of the state will not come up to expectations this year. Why the crop is so light we are not able to say, but that it will not average up there is no doubt. It is quite likely late frosts cut the crop short.

Concord Times: The best farmers of Cabarrus say there has been but one year since the civil war that equals this 1906 for a wheat crop and that was 1882.

ELIMINATE THE NEGRO FROM POLITICS IN N. C.

IT WILL PROVE A BLESSING TO ALL RACES.

Editor The Citizen:—Will you be so kind as to allow me a little space in your paper for the benefit of both Democrats and Republicans in order that they may know how I stand. I absolutely refuse to affiliate with any party except one, and I can't see any politics in that; that is White Supremacy. I firmly believe that when the negro is eliminated from politics it will be a blessing to all races. Nevertheless it is quite exciting to Mr. Pritchard and Pearson. They know that as soon as North Carolina has gone for White Supremacy 50,000 negroes will be knocked out of the box, and they will step down and out. I am happy to inform you they will have to take a walk. Respectfully yours, R. B. BALL.

S. C. INTERSTATE AND WEST INDIAN EXPOSITION

UNDERTAKING BEGUN UNDER FLATTERING AUSPICES.

Charleston, S. C., June 20.—There is now every indication that the South Carolina Interstate and West Indian Exposition company, when organized next Thursday evening, will have on its stock books considerably more than $200,000. The authorized capital stock is only $250,000 and it is entirely possible that the full amount may have been subscribed when the meeting is called to order in German artillery hall. Excellent reports are expected from the various lists in the several counties of South Carolina and the figures at the office and in sight put the total at $208,000 and there is much more coming.

The organization meeting will be one of the most interesting events in the history of Charleston. Subscribers everywhere have been invited to be present and considerably more than a majority of stock will be represented. A president, board of directors and other officers will be elected and the splendid project will be launched with all due forms and ceremonies.

And when the actual work of preparing an exposition is on, a backward glance will show that never was such an undertaking begun under more flattering auspices. Again, the plans are broad and the prospects for a magnificent exhibition are unsurpassed. The exposition is intended to illustrate the wonderful variety and wealth of southern resources and manufactured products. Especial attention will be given to the cotton industry, the growing of the staple and the making of it into yarns, cloth, etc. Agriculture will naturally be an important feature considered, for until recently the south was almost strictly an agricultural section. Mining will be treated more in the wealth of resources than results obtained, as South Carolina and her neighboring states have countless millions in undeveloped minerals. Horticulture and floriculture will naturally receive attention, for this is the garden spot of the world.

The liberal arts in all their variety of interests will be accorded full space and fine arts will not be neglected. The United States has been asked to make an exhibit costing $250,000, and this will in all probability be granted at the fall session of congress, having already been favorably reported in the senate.

Exhibits will show the industries, resources and possibilities of Porto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines.

It is intended that the strides made in education within the century will be demonstrated by exhibits from Clemson Agricultural college, Winthrop Normal college, the State Colored college and other institutions. All these, and many other features will be arranged and placed for the edification and instruction of the visitors to the South Carolina Interstate and West Indian exposition, in Charleston, S. C., December, 1901, to May, 1902.

KIDNEY TROUBLES OF WOMEN

Miss Frederick's Letters Show How She Relieved on Mrs. Pinkham and Was Cured.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have a yellow, muddy complexion, feel tired and have bearing down pains. Menses have not appeared for three months, sometimes am troubled with a white discharge. Also have kidney and bladder trouble.

I have been this way for a long time, and feel so miserable I thought I would write to you and see if you could do me any good."—Miss EDNA FREDERICK, Troy, Ohio, Aug. 6, 1899.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound according to directions, and can say I have not felt so well for years as I do at present. Before taking your medicine a more miserable person you never saw. I could not eat or sleep, and did not care to talk with any one. Now I feel so well I cannot be grateful enough to you for what you have done for me."—Miss EDNA FREDERICK, Troy, Ohio, Sept. 10, 1899.

Backache Cured

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I write to thank you for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me. It is the only medicine I have found that helped me. I doctored with one of the best physicians in the city of New York, but received no benefit. I had been ailing for about sixteen years, was so weak and nervous that I could hardly walk; had continued pain in my back and was troubled with leucorrhoea. Menses were irregular and painful. Words cannot express the benefit I have derived from the use of your medicine. I heartily recommend it to all suffering women."—MRS. MARY BARRINGER, Windsor, Pa.
