

WELCOME FOR N. C. LAWYERS

In its general term, and when you are not in session think of nothing except enjoyment. 'Get your money's worth,' and if you do not have a royal time it will be your fault and not Asheville's. Throw all your worries and cares to the winds, your clients forgetting and by your clients forgot, and while here let the doctrine of abandonment apply to them. You have now made your entry here, and before you leave you will discover that Asheville as against you holds no adverse possession, but that what is ours is yours. We promise you immunity from all arrest. Think not of attachments, except the attachment for each other, and which we trust you will ever have for our town. The charges here, while sufficiently high to amuse you, will not cause you to think seriously upon bankruptcy, and the consideration which you will receive will be ample. The question of cost should not disturb you. Add them to the first account you render to a client. It will even pay your client to have had you here, for you will go back to your work and their cases with renewed intellectual vigor. You will learn here more about courtesy than you will find in all the law books from my Lord Coke to Wammack's Digest, the third volume inclusive.

"Our customs and usages will not be disagreeable to you, but in order to follow them you need not consult Gould on Waters, but you may casually examine Black on Intoxicating Liquors. All your demurrers to our customs will be overruled, and no device of yours can change them. However, we will not use duress or undue influence to compel you to conform to them, but will leave it to your election, and if you desire so to do you can ask your wives to plead exonerata for you. We will covenant and guarantee to you a good time, if you will only follow our advice—which, differing from our usual custom, we will give you free of charge.

"Make up your judgment as to what you wish; make your levy upon us for it, and I assure you that execution will be returned 'satisfied.' I again bid each of you a hundred welcomes."

President Warren responded. After returning the association's thanks for the welcome, he said: "While your guests we will conform to your ways and to your atmosphere. I trust those of us from the tidewater will not have the same difficulty in breathing the rare air of the mountains as did your western judge in inhaling the liquid air of the seacoast district."

The Asheville bar is and always has been strong and able. It has had many illustrious names. It has had its Merrimon, Judge of the Superior court, senator of the United States, justice of the Supreme court of the state, and who died its chief justice—an able judge and an upright man. It has had its Vance, member of congress, senator of the United States, and greatest of the war governor. He was to its people a pillar of cloud by day and of fire by night, true to his state as the needle to the pole, and who 'though dead yet lives.'

"If our sojourn among you shall not be pleasant it will not be your fault. Your kind and gracious hospitality has not made us strangers within your gates. The Bar association of a state should be representative of the best thought and the highest standards of the profession. This annual meeting should result in good to the profession and service to the state."

The following committees were announced: On selection of officers, John W. Hinsdale, James A. Lockhart, A. L. Brooks, A. Burwell and L. H. Clement; on publication, R. O. Burton, John L. Briggs and Louis M. Burns.

Notice was given of proposed amendments to the constitution, and a report was made on the establishment of a law journal in accordance with the action of the association.

Judge T. A. Jones extended the hospitality of the Asheville club and the Swannanoa Country club to the association by authority from the boards of governors of the two clubs.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:30. Many of the members are accompanied by their wives or daughters. Among those who have arrived are Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Guthrie of Durham, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jones of Winston, Col. Thos. S. Kenan of Raleigh, Chas. F. Warren of Washington, Maxey L. John of Laurinburg, Hon. R. L. Leatherwood of Bryson City, Fab. H. Busbee of Raleigh, S. Gallert of Rutherfordton, J. S. Manning of Durham, Judge James C. MacRae of Chapel Hill, J. Crawford Biggs of Durham, Paul Jones of Tarboro, John L. Bridgers of Tarboro, A. A. Hicks of Oxford, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Manly of Winston, John W. Hinsdale of Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Pruden of Edenton, B. F. Long, Miss Lois Long of Statesville, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. J. Justice of Marion, R. O. Burton of Raleigh, James A. Lockhart of Wadesboro, Judge G. H. Brown of Tarboro, R. B. Redwine of Monroe, J. E. Alexander of Winston, A. L. Brooks of Greensboro, L. H. Clement of Salisbury, Judge As Burwell of Charlotte, Captain Charles Price of Salisbury, Charles W. Tillett of Charlotte, R. L. Ryburn of Shelby, Judge James E. Shepherd of Raleigh, Marshall Bell of Murphy, L. L. Smith of Gatesville, H. A. London, A. H. London, Miss London of Pittsboro, Judge Walter Clark and son of Raleigh, Z. I. Walser of Lexington, and Sarah and Mrs. J. C. Pritchard of Marshall.

TODAY'S SESSION. The association met this morning at 9 o'clock to hear the president's annual address, a report of which will be found on page 2 of The Citizen.

Secretary Treasurer J. Crawford Biggs' annual report was then read. It shows the membership of the association to have reached 300. The receipts for the current year have been $406.57, making, with a balance on hand of $721.97, a total of $1128.54. The total expenditures have been $614.06, leaving a balance of $508.68.

The members were to meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the foot of Battery Park hill for a ride over the trolley lines of the city, to be followed by a reception at the club house of the Swannanoa Country club.

FORECAST till 8 p. m. Friday.—Showers tonight and Friday.

Blue Ridge lodge No. 295 I. O. O. F. will confer the first degree this evening and elect officers for the ensuing term.

The J. B. Bostic company today sold for Mrs. Lon Mitchell two business lots near the passenger station on Depot street, to M. Cornelia Weaver.

The meeting of the Young Men's Democratic club has been postponed from tomorrow to Saturday evening, when some visiting member of the Bar association will address the club.

The Asheville and Biltmore Cricket club met last evening at Bainbridge's book store and arranged a match to be played July 4 at Biltmore. The game will begin at 9 a. m. Visitors especially are invited to attend.

J. G. Stikolander, secretary of the Asheville Liverymen's association, today paid to Secretary Jones of the Good Roads association the subscription of $100 which was made toward the fund for resurfacing South Main street.

Locke Craig and John Y. Jordan spoke at Morgan Hill, Lower Hominy, Wednesday evening. The meeting was very attentive and enthusiastic and was characterized by the presence of every Democrat in the neighborhood, except one, who was too old to go out at night.

The joint discussion on the amendment between R. S. Ball and A. S. Melton will not take place at Grace school house, as has been arranged for this evening, it has been decided to give way to County Superintendent Venable, who will deliver an address there.

A. G. Young, John B. Weathers and A. W. Teele can get $16 each if they will call on Register of Deeds Mackley. The money is for annual state pensions. Mr. Mackley has been anxious to pay out this money ever since December 16, but has not been able to get the owners to call for it.

Volumes 1 and 2 of J. W. Moore's "Roster of North Carolina Troops in the War Between the States" have been taken from the office of the Superior court clerk and it is very important that they should be returned at once, as they are sometimes needed in verifying applications for state pensions.

Two handsome new mail wagons have arrived for use in carrying the mail to and from the postoffice and station. The wagons belong to the original contractor and will be placed in use for the first time Sunday, when the new contract with the government goes into effect. The wagons are the latest improved style of mail wagons. Another of similar build is on the way here.

Senator Josh Franks of Swain county was here today en route home from Raleigh, where he attended a meeting of the state election board and resigned as a member. Senator Franks says the reports that the meeting of the board was held for any partisan reason are entirely erroneous. He says he requested Chairman Simmons to call the meeting just after the legislature, which he was unable to do, as he was very busy, and that the call at this time was not his, Franks', fault.

Hendersonville Hustler: The First Regiment band appeared in all its glory at the opera house Monday evening and gave our people the benefit of one of the most pleasing and highly enjoyable concerts ever witnessed in this city. The songs were excellently clever and pleased the audience immensely. If they should decide to repeat the visit a much larger house would be in evidence, we are sure. Everyone present Monday evening was delighted and a large number on the outside also received the benefit-free. Hence the vacant seats within.

Little Edna Hampton entertained a number of her friends yesterday afternoon at her home on Haywood street. Games and refreshments furnished the entertainment the occasion being her seventh birthday. A number of presents were received, among them being a beautiful gold bracelet with seven gold beads. Those present were: Katie Glawer Sudds, Swartzberg, Pearl Mills, Lena Bosse, Agnes Bosse, Rosa Bosse, Frances O'Donnell, Mary O'Donnell, Ruby Newton, Becky Newton, Minnie Newton, Julia Stelling, Regina Stelling, Louis McInnis, Jake Stelling, Walter Hill, Dan Hill, Roy and Ike Swartzberg, Claud and Roy McInturf, Fred Hampton, Echols Hampton, Boyiston Mills and Master Johnnie Walters.

Adulterated (Alum) 10 to 20c. lb.

Which do you prefer? Why pay 50c. a lb. for a baking powder (made by a trust) when you can buy the wholesome Rumford Powder for 30c.?

The adulterated alum powders sell for a little less than the Rumford, but they are unwholesome and give the biscuits a peculiar odor and taste. The residue left in the bread from the 50c. powders is Rochelle salts, residue from the adulterated goods is alum; residue from Rumford is phosphate—same as found in wheat and which makes the bread more wholesome.

Ask your doctor about the healthful qualities of Rumford. Ask your grocer about the satisfactory results obtained by his customers who are using Rumford.
