MONDAY, JULY 15, 1900.

Remember, white voters, that there is to be an entirely new registration this year. If you do not register your vote will never get into the box.

If the allied troops ever get near enough to Pekin they will break in, or somebody will have to give a reason.

"Democratic Perfidy."

The Hickory Press took The Citizen to task recently concerning "Citcher's Pastorina" and in the same issue spoke of Democratic "perfidy." We were at loss to know where the Catawba county stalwart found this new word. We knew that it had no place in our old Blueback, but with this came the disquieting thought that perhaps "perfidy" had been coined since the days of the birch rod and had escaped our notice.

The Statesville Landmark, however, clears up the mystery. It says that when Adams, the Republican candidate for governor, spoke in Statesville he worked himself up and referred to the Democratic handbook as "a record of the perfidy of the Democratic party." It seems more than likely that the esteemed Press has been sitting at the feet of learning—that is to say, Judge Adams—and heard him discourse on the "perfidy" of the Democrats. The word sounded large and pleasing to the Press, and it pounced upon it. It felt that the word was good, because its chieftain had used it, and anything good enough for Adams was good enough for the Press.

Abel Middleton should have a bit of anti-amendment literature prepared in order to get Adams' "perfidy" into the campaign. It ought to prove a great vote-getter.

It will soon be time for the Republican campaign managers to start up some of the idle mills for campaign purposes. The prosperity cry is growing weak, and Doctor Hanna and his famous soap must soon be called in to give aid.

Just four words to the white men of Asheville: Register, register, register today.

The White Man's Duty.

The campaign that is drawing to a close is one of the most momentous in the history of North Carolina. Upon the result depends the peace and the happiness and the prosperity of the people of the state. There can be no abiding peace for them so long as at regular intervals the negro question must come up to harass them. There can be no undisturbed happiness for them so long as there is any possibility of the negro party getting into power and giving the negro an exaggerated idea of his importance, a thing that is always attended by evil results. There can be no full measure of prosperity for them so long as the best manhood of the Old North State must spend a part of its time in fighting off the evil that threatens and will continue to threaten so long as the ignorant and vicious of the negro race are allowed to be a factor in state politics.

The proposed suffrage amendment offers a settlement of the vexed question. Once adopted it will become a fixture in the law of North Carolina. The Republicans know, or ought to know, that it is constitutional, otherwise they would not be howling themselves hoarse in opposition to it. They know, or ought to know, that it will disfranchise the ignorant and the irresponsible among the blacks, and that it will not disfranchise any white man.

But if the white men of North Carolina want to take the negro out of politics, they must do it with their votes. And they cannot vote on the question unless they are registered. There remain only a few days in which they may register, and if this all important matter is neglected they will find when too late that they cannot have a hand in the adoption of the amendment. It is the duty of every friend of white supremacy to register. The time to register is right now, while you think of it.

No better evidence of bad judgment on the part of Republican Chairman A. E. Holton could be given than his having the Winston registrars arrested. If there is one thing that the people of North Carolina detest it is federal interference with elections. This act on the part of Holton will carry Forsyth county Democratic and make 10,000 Democratic votes for the amendment in the state.

Prostituting Unionism.

The Mill News, a paper published at Charlotte in the interest of mill workmen in that part of the state, sounds a note of protest in an editorial headed "A devilish scheme exposed." The editor says: "The Mill News is recognized by all as a strictly non-political paper, and as such we have ever stood aloof from saying anything on the subject of the proposed constitutional amendment. There is, however, one feature of the campaign now being waged against the amendment about which we feel called upon to speak out without further delay. Within the past few months number of the villages of the manufacturing cities of the state under the guise of labor union organizers and with credentials appearing to be all right as such, but it has recently come to our knowledge that they are spending a large share of their time and using their influence against the amendment."

After declaring that he has proof convincing that the principles of unionism are being prostituted, the editor of the Mill News continues:

"C. P. Davis, High Point, is state organizer. We are reliably informed that he is actively opposing the constitutional amendment. Rev. Mr. Parker of Randleman, another organizer and president of the union at that place, is fighting the amendment. Mr. Bell, from Lexington, an organizer who has been operating in this section for the past six weeks, a man of very unsavory reputation, is strongly anti-amendment. Mr. G. W. Bowman of Gastonia, president of the Gastonia union, is also anti-amendment. Mr. Ed. Fesperman of Charlotte, another organizer and editor of the Southern Workman, came out last week in a two-column editorial in his paper against the amendment. He having worn a 'White Supremacy' button up to a short time ago notwithstanding. Mr. J. C. Meekins, a politician and lawyer at Greensboro, a strong anti-amendment advocate, seems to be the power behind the throne, and his checks have been in evidence in this section recently."

"With these facts we are forced to the conclusion that the present organizer movement is a political scheme, pure and simple, that the principles of true unionism are being polluted, its aims diverted."

If the News is certain of its ground, and it speaks most positively, then unionism is in a fair way to be crippled within its own ranks.

The Citizen profoundly regrets the determination of our esteemed contemporary, the Charlotte Observer, to finally abandon the national Democracy. We had hoped that Brother Caldwell would be able to ignore minor points of difference and support the Democratic nominees on the paramount issue of the campaign. We have full faith in the sincerity of the convictions which impel him to the opposite course, but we are none the less convinced that he is in error, and we are equally convinced that, sooner or later, he will see and acknowledge it.

Only this week remains in which you may register. White man, do your duty.

The Democrats of Madison county have nominated "Big Tom" Frisbee for the office of sheriff. What a terror to the lawbreakers of that county he would be! Standing something less than 10 feet in his stockings, built in proportion from head to heel, a trained wrestler and all round athlete, with the strength of a giant and the courage of the bravest man, "Big Tom" Frisbee ought to make the ideal sheriff. And if he once started "up on Laurel" after some of the men who do their killing on Sunday there would be a lively hiding out of the lawless in those parts. Here's to "Big Tom" Frisbee, every time.

WITH THE BRETHREN.

TROUBLES OF HIS OWN.

From the Brevard News.
 The News office has been afflicted with a break-down this week. Our Washington hand press "busted" its biler and left a very large chunk broken off "in the slot," which had to be drilled out in order to make room for the "next run." We consulted all the blacksmiths in town, the plumber at The Franklin, and, finally, Engineer Piper of the Transylvania railroad acted as doctor and reduced the fracture. We called into requisition the Toxaway company, railroad company, water works, fire department, chief of police, soda fountain (to keep us cool), the devil and a few cuss words before the job was completed, but it is done, and will not break again in some time. In this connection we would like to say if you have a piece of machinery which needs repair Piper is the man to call on. It will be mended right before he quits it.

DETESTABLE.

From the Mt. Airy News.
 If there is one thing that we detest more than almost any other thing it is to see a mother teaching her innocent children to shun poor children. Instead of teaching them that all honest, decent people must be respected. A Christian mother cannot afford to make this mistake. If, however, she persists in such a course, her own children will some day come down to a level with the poor, despised ones.

LISTEN, WILL YOU?

From the Greensboro Record.
 In France women have to pay a tax of ten dollars a year for the privilege of wearing a man's trousers. In this country lots of women wear their men's trousers, and boss the men too, and don't pay a cent of tax.

GOOD ADVICE.

From the Morganton News.
 Don't get excited! Keep cool, especially during July—if you can.

DEALS IN DIRT.

Two Insults.

"The lesson is this: When you see a 'White Supremacy' badge on a supposed white man investigate his genealogy—he is probably a mulatto. A genuine white man doesn't need to be labeled."—From the Asheville Gazette June 19, 1900.

"Dowling was a leading light in the white union club and at the election (1898) was a Democratic registrar, which in our opinion were much worse offenses than robbing a drunk man."—From the Asheville Gazette March 16, 1900.

Don't get hot

Standing over a hot stove in a hot kitchen. You don't need to have a hot kitchen if you use WHEAT-HEARTS. To be thoroughly digestible, cereals must be well prepared in a hot place some time or other. It's hot enough in our factory, but that's so you can be cool. We prepare WHEAT-HEARTS up to the two last minutes—and those two minutes are all you need to cook it. You save fuel, have a cool kitchen, and enjoy the most inviting and reasonable food for hot weather.

BARLEY MALT!

We desire to call your attention to the appended result of a chemical analysis recently made of CHASE'S BARLEY MALT WHISKY, by the recognized highest authority in the United States upon analytical chemistry, HERBERT E. SMITH, M. D., dean of the medical faculty of Yale University and state chemist of Connecticut.

YALE UNIVERSITY. DEPARTMENT OF MEDICINE. New Haven, Conn. Messrs. E. H. Chase & Co., Louisville, Gentlemen:—Inclosed you will find the results of my analysis of the sample of Chase's Barley Malt Whisky which you recently sent to me. These results show it to be a whisky of good alcoholic strength, free from fusel-oil and containing no trace of the metals, copper, lead and zinc. In my opinion Chase's Barley Malt Whisky is, on account of its absolute purity, an excellent article for medicinal use. Yours truly, HERBERT E. SMITH, M. D. Conn. State Chemist.

Chemical Laboratory, July 21, 1899. Result of a chemical examination of a sample of Chase's Barley Malt Whisky, 100 cubic centimeters contain: Alcohol 51.95 cub. cent. or 4.32 grams. Residue on evaporation 0.51 " Non-volatile matter or Ash..... 0.01 " Free acid, as acetic acid 0.04 " Reducing bodies, as dextrose 0.22 "

Tannin a trace only Attest: HERBERT E. SMITH, M. D. These facts commend the CHASE BARLEY MALT WHISKY, not only to the public, who seek a superior Whisky, but also to the members of the medical profession in their practice.

The consumptive will find it most beneficial, as it strengthens the Lungs, checks the wasting of tissues, and relieves the severity of coughing. The dyspeptic will find it an aid to digestion, as it relieves the stomach when oppressed with gas. It builds up the feeble and stimulates the system against malarial attacks.
